Parents, Staff Meet Tonight At Barnum

The Barnum staff and PTA invite all sixth grade parents to attend a special meeting in the gymnasium at 8 p.m. tonight. The purpose of the meeting is to acquaint the parents with the junior high program.

Robert Ford, principal, will show a film entitled, "A Day at Barnum", and answer any questions pertaining to the school, its program and activities.

Other members of the staff who will participate in the discussion are Miss Muriel Brasie, girls' counselor; Malcolm Tindall, boys' counselor; and Roy Yonette, assistant principal.

THE "PARENTS' Handbook" will be distributed at this meeting, and there will be a tour of the school.

Following the meeting, refreshments will be served by the hospitality committee.

Baldwin PTA's Annual Spring Fair Stated Tomorrow

The annual spring fair given by Baldwin school PTA is set for tomorrow from 9:30 to 8 p.m. Fun features and prizes for everything are planned, with plenty of refreshments.

The kindergarten mothers under Mrs. Robert Sadell will staff a nursery for pre-school youngsters so that everyone will be free to share the festivities. Booths range from "make-up" to "catch-a-fish" with parents making the projects. For after-fair tasting, there will be a bake sale.

Invitational Tea Stated for Sunday

Pontiac society of artists will hold its 12th annual exhibit with an invitational tea Sunday afternoon from 2:30 to 5 p.m. in the Adah Shely library in Pontiac. During library hours, May 29-28 the show will be open to the public.

Judges will be Marshall Fredricks, sculptor; Mrs. Lloyd Radell, art teacher at MSUO and Clifford West who teaches life classes at Bloomfield art association.

On exhibit will be oil paintings, charcoal drawings, sculpture, pastels and water colors.
