Whitewalls Extra?

As a combined effort of every school club and organization, there will be a mammoth car wash at BHHS next Saturday, May 28.

Soft drinks and baked goods will be served. Bake sales will also be set up in Birmingham and at Miracle Mile.

If you see us, help us out. Come and get your car cleaned before the week-end starts.

Last week the annual Student Council officers were elected. Nominations were chosen by a committee of this year's student council.

Each was given a chance to speak before the entire high school at an assembly the day before elections. Many candidates had others speak for them. Speeches for which there was no time at the assembly were given on the public address system the next morning.

Those elected were Bob Pike, president; Paul Kasameyer, vice-president; Karen Sundberg, treasurer; Kathie Moon, secretary.

Good luck to them all next year. I hope they do something with their new terms.

Here and there: The 1960 yearbook, The Hillcrest, was distributed last week. It was the culmination of almost a year's work by many staff members (all seniors), but special credit goes to Lynn Marshall and Margaret Plaxton for unflagging effort as co-editors, and to Mr. Dennis the editor.

The French club was honored to host Monsieur Desparmet, the French consul to Michigan, Ohio, and West Virginia. He spoke on De Gaulle, and showed a movie. Thank you Monsieur Desparmet for a charmingly interesting evening.

When Patti had her picture taken, little did her family realize that she would be seen by more than two million people.

Patti attends kindergarten at Pembroke school with her twin brother, Mike. She has another brother, Jack; and three sisters, Lynn, Karen, and Tracy Jane.

It's Spring, And there's Music Here

By BECKI BROGAN

Our Annual Spring concert will be held in the Bloomfield Hills junior high school gymnasium at 8 p.m. May 26. Everyone has been invited to come and hear the vocal and instrumental presentation.

The seventh-grade mixed chorus led by Mrs. Hill will harmonize. Mr. Tilton will lead the ninth-grade mixed chorus, the all-star orchestra and the band to round out the performance.

Both the eighth and ninth-grade choruses won superior ratings at a recent music festival and will compete again May 30.

With such outstanding groups, the concert is sure to be a treat to all who wish to come. Tickets may be purchased at the door.

More campaign speeches May 19. The junior class presented the annual spring prom on May 21.

when candidates for the Senior High Student Council spoke before a ninth-grade assembly.

The three parties: Poursome, Unity and Checker have the most outstanding leaders in both schools as candidates.

Our baseball season has been unpredictable so far. After defeating the Clarensville team 8 to 4, the Lancers were defeated by Rochester 7-5.

The next game against Troy went on amid mud and drizzle until the downpour forced the game to be stopped, leaving the Lancers behind 7-5.

These defeats haven't hurt the school's winning spirit though, and with such staunch backers, the Kingswood, their skill and spirit team could lose and still win. Their next game is scheduled against Dublin Wednesday.

A 'Princess' At Pembroke

Mr. and Mrs. Donald E. Nanry, of 925 Norwich, Birmingham, are the proud parents of a "Princess" cover-girl these days.

Their six-year-old daughter, Patti, is the "Little Princess" who inspired the new Princess theme to Michigan while appearing on the cover of the annual report of Michigan Bell Telephone company.

AND, FOR THOSE who might not have seen the colorful annual report with blue-eyed Patti in regal purple robe, the parents are telling their friends that the same picture is also appearing in "Calling Your Way," the folder which is accompanying all telephone bills during May.

When Patti had her picture taken, little did her family realize that she would be seen by more than two million people.

Patti attends kindergarten at Pembroke school with her twin brother, Mike. She has another brother, Jack; and three sisters, Lynn, Karen, and Tracy Jane.

Barnum JHS

TTM—Doesn't Everyone Have One of Those?

By the Press Club
T.T.M. What does it stand for? Why for Triangular Track Meet. One of these was held at Rochester, May 13 in which Barnum participated.

Other schools participating were Romeo and Rochester. At the out-ermost, Barnum was behind. As the meet progressed, Barnum's score did likewise. As the meet ended, Barnum found itself the winners although they had been hampered by the illness of several regulars.

The scores were Barnum 48 1/2, Romeo 34 1/2, and Rochester 23 1/2. At present Barnum track groups have won three meets and suffered no defeats.

One of the week's most exciting and well-carried out events was the student council election. Every candidate put on an extensive and well-organized campaign, and the halls and cafeteria were decorated with well-spelled, eye-catching posters.

The campaign culminated in an assembly where each campaign manager presented his candidate who in turn made a speech to the faculty and student voters.

These speeches were particularly well done this year. Bob Ganter, this year's student council president, acted as master of ceremonies, while music was provided by the seventh-grade band under the direction of Mr. Hanson.

At the end of the day the officers for 1960-61 were announced as Kirk Quillian, president, Heidi Erwin, secretary, Betsy Griffith, treasurer, Paul Good, safety commissioner.

All candidates had to meet grade and citizenship standards and have their teacher's signed approval before running for office.

We all feel certain that our school will have a well-managed student government next year with such high requirements and fine student leadership.

Mrs. Carol Epling, dean of students at Scablon high school, spoke to all ninth-grade students and their teachers, May 18 in the school cafeteria. She explained not only all the phases of the academic curriculum and also the extra-curriculum and social aspects of school life.
