Baptists to Show African Crusade Movie on Monday

Evangelist Billy Graham's recent African crusade is the theme of a new motion picture which will have its area premiere here next week. "Africa on the March" will be shown at 8 p.m. on Monday at the Hickory Grove school, 2800 Lahar road, by the Bloomfield Hills Baptist church.

PHOTOGRAPHED in authentic sound and natural color in 17 principal cities across Africa from Monrovia, Liberia to Cairo, Egypt, the film captures the spirit of the document capturing the current crucial years, according to John N. Venneman, the church's public relations chairman.

AFTER PREVIEWING the film, the Rev. Wallace Arthur Alcorn, pastor, stated that "this is probably the finest mission film I have ever seen."

Mr. Alcorn found this to be especially interesting since he has recognized many familiar scenes from his years in West Africa with his missionary parents.

THE REV. LEIGHTON Ford, a college classmate of Alcorn's, an associate evangelist with the Graham team, told the pastor that "even after the years in Africa, the picture it gives of the economic and social ferment in Africa today, is outstanding."

He added that this film "ought to be a must" for everybody interested in contemporary affairs as well as in "Christian missions."

Venneman states that the public is cordially invited and that there is no admission charge.
