peasner when he permitted Russia to change sides in World War II. Russia was a Hitler ally—until he turned on the Soviets. If Russia had been made to go alone in handling her problem with Hitler, he still would have been defeated by the Allies.

HARRY F. TRUMAN was an appeaser in freedom's fight against slavery when he permitted his then secretary of state—Dean Acheson—to say the United States would not defend Korea against Communism.

IN THE MINDS of millions of Americans, John F. Kennedy has clearly indicated that he has appeasement tendencies. He has stated he would "pacify, satisfy, quiet, calm, soothe and ally" Russia in at least two important respects.

RICHARD NIXON AND HENRY LODGE have proven to me they will fight communism. John Kennedy indicates he may appease the Communists. That is why I am going to back my convictions on Nov. 8 with a vote for Mr. Nixon and Mr. Lodge.
