Association Schedules Crazy Hats, Crazy Fun

GILBERT LAKE—Some 70 members of Lone Pine road estates improvement association will don party dress and crazy hats for their dinner dance tomorrow night at Edgewood country club.

A chartered bus will call for members and future newcomers to the subdivision. The bus will call for the latter at their building sites. Association guests include Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Pines, Mr. and Mrs. Allen L. Young, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Plante and Mr. and Mrs. McKenna.

On board the bus, the subdivision's musicians will jazz it up, with Guson Jaynes leading on the clarinet, Charlie Armstrong plans to bring his voo-doo drums and Bill Korsh will rattle a cha-cha with his maracas.

Howard McDonald has been appointed to judge the funniest hat; Mrs. Joseph Oros will judge the most appropriate hat and J. Reed Alexander will decide which hat is the craziest.

The Joseph Flaherty's of Don Valley had a busy weekend recently. While their daughter Kathy went to Milwaukee to attend the wedding of a friend, Mr. and Mrs. Flaherty attended a wedding here with their daughter Pat and her husband, Jim McNeerney. The McNeerneys and their two little daughters came from Toledo to spend the weekend with the Flaherty's.

Mrs. John Robert of N. Darlington has invited neighbors to her home on election morning, after they have voted. She will entertain at a coffee for a new neighbor, Mrs. Leland Ferguson.

Dr. and Mrs. Scott Fisher of S. Darlington invited all the families in N. and S. Darlington to a Halloween party Monday night.

North Hills Improvement association will contribute $500 for additional Foxcroft perimeter planting on which the improvement association and the Foxcroft branch W.P.C.A. have been working together for the past year. A proposal to reduce the association dues was defeated.
