Athletic Club Takes Constructive Action

BEVERLY HILLS—A field that has known only stagnant pools for tadpoles and mosquitos in recent years was broken last week and activity for weeks to come. Located just west of Southfield and south of Beverly road, it will house a new kind of pool for other kinds of tadpoles, the small fry of members of the Beverly Hills athletic club. Clearwater pools and building company of Southfield began earth moving Friday, Oct. 28. The pool proper will be completed and filled before winter and the cement apron completed in the spring months. Construction will also commence on the contemporary cabana, and the fencing will be completed prior to winter. Spring will see the 120-car parking lot, landscaping, lighting and cabana completed.

PLANS ARE now being formulated for an opening day celebration Memorial Day, 1961, according to Edward F. Dolan, club president. He also stated that the club's first annual meeting for all members will be held at the Birmingham Community House Thursday evening, Nov. 17, at 8:30 p.m. Persons interested in club membership should contact Charles M. Dotterrer of 1622 Reedmere.
