

Write-ins for Yogi Fail to Win Election

By BOB HUGHES

With the election dominating the national scene, Cranbrook yielded to election year pressures and held a straw ballot. Despite strong Kennedy support from certain quarters of the intelligentsia, it was a smashing victory for Nixon.

There were some write-ins for Lodge as president, as well as Stevenson, Rockefeller and Yogi Berra.

The Nixon result may have derived from a speech delivered the morning of the election by Richard Van Dusen of the Nixon-Lodge committee in Michigan; partly it was because most of the boys would probably have voted for Nixon had he been a Republican.

THE REORGANIZED Federalist club held its first meeting of the year last Friday. The meeting was held in Cranbrook cabin, where supper was served to about 20 boys.

Speaker for the evening was Dr. K. F. Bennett, father of Tom Bennett, who spoke on current issues in the civil defense program. Other meetings will follow shortly with various speakers on various areas of current affairs.

HALLOWEEN was celebrated in various ways around campus. It is rumored that early in the evening some of the boarders were chasing some girls (or something of that order).

Later, faculty children, dressed in various guises, were to be seen haunting the halls. Still later, the boarding houses held various types of parties, including pipe-in music and "No. 1" Soda and the Ray Charles organization.

KINGSWOOD SCHOOL

Mock Election Takes On 'Live' Spirit

By BETSY WRIGHT

While the rest of the nation was going to the polls for real, Kingswood held its own mock election on Nov. 17. The proceedings were conducted by the current class members.

With the assistance of Mrs. E. S. Bauer and Miss Joyce Dunning the girls — placed arbitrarily into either the Democratic or Republican party — organized a small scale election.

Two weeks beforehand, all students and faculty who wished vote were required to register. A week before deadline, pictures of the candidates were posted in the halls. These spurred on many avid supporters of each nominee and interested even the most passive of observers.

On Monday, a pre-election assembly was given by the current events classes and included three-minute speeches given by a representative of each party. Discussing the issue of civil rights were Mimi McLoughlin and Carrie Reed; foreign policy was reviewed by Bonnie Cohen and Dianne MacCormack; social and economic policies were debated by Jane Milley and Joan Pape and the farm policy was reported on by Doris Smith and Ann Bushong.

Weeks of preparation and discussion were climaxed with the election conducted throughout Tuesday by secret ballot in the telephone booths.

AFTER AN interview with Mrs. Sandburg district chairman of AFS, Mrs. Robert Shile, a friend of AFS; Bertha Seifert, Kingswood's chapter chairman; Joan McDonald, Kingswood's AFS representative last summer and Florence Casalis, this year's foreign exchange student from France, the four finalists for next summer's AFS Exchange Program were selected. There were over twenty applicants.

The finalists, all juniors, are Angela Dudson, Joan Getzinger, Emma Jean Livingston and Roberta Reising.

The girls filled out extensive questionnaires which were sent to

New York where it will be decided who—if anyone—will be Kingswood's next AFS student.

THE SEVENTH grade held its first class election a few weeks ago. They elected Cynthia Nash as their president.

Other class presidents for this year are Dorothy Withers, eighth grade; Pat Hewlett, ninth grade; Ann Livingston, tenth grade; Mimi McLoughlin, the junior class and Betsy Barbour the senior class.

FOR THE PAST five weeks Kingswood has had the pleasure of entertaining the mothers of grades eight through 12 on successive Thursdays. Seventh grade mothers will be visiting Nov. 17. On these visiting days mothers attend classes with their daughters throughout the days.

Scoutmaster Robert Hayes made the presentations at this, his last meeting. The new scoutmaster will be George Dick.

G. E. LaBeille is in charge of advancement for the troop.

BARNUM JUNIOR HIGH

Ninth Grade Squad Wins Tough Contest

By KAREN L. PIEL

On Oct. 27, Barnum's eighth and ninth grade football teams played Derby's squads at Sealhorn High. The Barnum eighth grade team fought hard but was unable to win. Greg Anderson, an end, scored the only Barnum touchdown of the game. The final score was 21-6.

Barnum's ninth grade squad played Derby in the closest game of the season, winning 19-13.

BARNUM'S OPEN HOUSE will be held tonight at 8:00 p.m. Its purpose is to give parents a chance to meet their child's teacher and to acquaint them briefly with the curriculum. Parents will follow their child's daily schedule with each class period lasting ten minutes.

Members of the National Junior honor society will help direct parents to the various rooms and the girls' ninth grade choir, under the direction of Evelyn Mischel, will perform at the open house. William Seebach's eighth and ninth grade boys' glee club will also sing.

Walter Wasiolewski, industrial arts teacher, as sponsor has recently been organized. Members are Dick Simmons, George Schaffner, Dave Wangaman, Pete Hilder, Bob Oil, Richard Connolly, Steve Parks, Rick Keys, Dave Fyke, Mike Thorn, Charles Defoe, David Lidzey and Don McTague.

The members provide noon movie entertainment for other Barnum students. In addition to this, the boys run slide projectors, tape recorders and also help set up amplifiers for assemblies.

Groves Show Will Feature Garb and Gab

BETH KOENIG and JAN TARRACKS

The Homemaking department at Groves is sponsoring a Christmas fashion show which will be presented at an all-school assembly on Nov. 22. The fashions, thanks to the cooperation of the Village store and The Princeton prep shop, will represent five different categories.

They are sleepwear; active sportswear; and school, dress and date wear. Models have been chosen from the ninth, 10th and 11th grades.

Tom Wood and Mike Bearden will lend a little humor during the assembly.

ALL OF MRS. Baumgartner's clothing classes, at the close of a 10-week sewing period, next Wednesday are required to wear one of the garments that they've made in homemaking during this period. Each of them also wears a gold and blue badge—which excuses them for looking so messy on that day.

FOR THE first time at Groves, a water ballet has been organized by Frances Pulley.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Speak Up, Doc

Doc Turner was up playing cribbage with Smiley Roberts the other day when, long about supertime, Mrs. Roberts invited him to stay and have a bite with them.

Now, Doc had snifled a cherry pie coming out of the oven and his mouth was watering. But what did he say? "No, thanks," says Doc. "Some other time, then," says Mrs. Roberts, and back she goes into her kitchen.

Well, next day Smiley ran into Doc on the street. Smiley said, "You missed some good cherry pie last night, Doc."
