Bible Comment:

To What Extent Do We Really Know Jesus Christ?

"The time draws near the birth of Christ," and as the birth of Christ," and as the Christmas eason approaches with all its reference to the Christ one may wonder just how well if it is known.

Oue need not reflect too Che need to christ one may compare to which for many, Christmas compared to the compared to the christman, Christmas on the christman christman in the christman christman in the christman christman ite birth.

is rather the evidence of tack of knowledge of the ist, and the extent to which earthly life of Jesus, and significance of His teachare virtually ignored, one may read the yast mass modern literature, apart

a majealled Jesus of Nazareth ever lived.

But even more important than this is the hek of knowledge out Jesus Christ on the same and the same and the live of the
