

Duet of Birthdays Honored at Dinner

WING LAKE—Two birthdays were celebrated Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Robinson of Birmingham. Mrs. Robinson's mother Mrs. Ella Hutton, who was 88 years old Saturday, was guest of honor along with the Robinson's son Bob, whose birthday was Tuesday.

Also at the Robinson home for the birthday dinner party were Bob's wife and daughter as well as the Robinson's daughter and her husband and son, Mr. and Mrs. Don Wylie.

FOXCRIFT—Weekend visitors

Howell of Crabtree road was his brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin D. Howell of Rome, New York. As both Howell men are graduates of University of Michigan, they enjoyed the football game in Ann Arbor on Saturday.

Combining business with pleasure, Mr. and Mrs. Leo H. Knapp of Valley Forge traveled to White Sulphur Springs to spend a week. Knapp attended the American Institute of steel convention.

The Knapps have invited a few close friends in for cocktails honoring Mrs. Theodore W. Jones, former resident of Foxcroft. Mrs. Jones now lives in Naples, Fla., and is visiting her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Nelson of Bloomfield Hills.

BLOOMFIELD HEIGHTS—Mr. and Mrs. George J. Engelhard of Sodon court spends parents' weekend with their daughter Katherine at the University of Arizona. They arrived home just in time to prepare for an upcoming weekend with their son, Richard at Ferris institute.

Another son, Joe, arrived from Central Michigan university last Saturday for a weekend visit.

Mrs. C. W. McClellan of Sodon court took her two young sons, Willie and David, to Hamilton, Ohio, last week to visit her mother. She returned home just in time to welcome son Danny and his roommates home for a visit from U. of M.

Just back after a month in California and Arizona, are Dr. and Mrs. S. F. Jenson of Sodon Lake road. While en route, they stopped to visit their daughter and son-in-law, Capt. and Mrs. John Rogers. During their visit their grandson Steven Craig celebrated his first birthday.

They spent a week in Los Angeles where Dr. Jenson attended the American dental convention, headed for Arizona to spend a week in Tucson with Mr. and Mrs. Randolph Monroe. Traveling home they couldn't resist another stop at their daughter's in Missouri as well as one last stop to visit their daughter Sue, her husband and baby son, Brian, in Ann Arbor.

Mothers Sponsor Telephone Bridge
