The best qualities from Michigan, California and Florida. Try the new crop of broccoli—thick, heavy stems, tender and juicy—thats how you identify the finest of this popular vegetable. Squash with that rich, old-fash-ioned flavor. Many kinds of Michigan apples, the best in the land; celery, too. Try our sand-grown potatoes, they're deliciously different.

HAND-MADE BASKETS from Europe, the Orient, Mexico and South America; some useful, some decorative, all interesting. Come in and look up, they hang from the ceiling.

FREE - Olsen's own recipe for plum sauce (you can use cherries, pincapple, or raisins, if you prefer)—a finishing touch for our ham loaf or baked ham. Also our recipe for mustard sauce (with or without horse-radish). Phone and we will mail you both recipes.
