

Often one may see a boy and a girl walking along a street holding hands. In the case of the teen-agers this is but the threshold of romance . . . romance that can, for the remainder of their lives, open to more spacious halls in the House of Human Happiness. This simple hand-holding is a symbol of an inner urge that's close to the Divine. Clapped hands entwine hearts.

Scouts' Project To Benefit Camp Narrin

Camp Narrin is many acres of scenic land near Ortonville owned and operated by Girls Scouts of Southern Oakland, Inc. Girls are offered a well-rounded summer camping experience and girl scout troops use the facilities in fall, winter and spring.

Girls Scouts will sell calendars from Nov. 11 until Nov. 30. Each troop receives a small share of profit on each calendar while the major portion of profits from the sale makes it possible to maintain and improve Camp Narrin as well as to maintain a day camp at Indianwood.

CHAIRMAN FOR calendars in Birmingham district, Mrs. Charles Stein, 6887 Lahser road, says this year calendars will not be ordered. You may purchase them direct from the Girl Scout when she calls on you.

Scene from 'Be Seated'

their employers, only to find out it's easier to be a maid than a socialite. The play was presented today at the November meeting of the Birmingham Musicales.

Music, Drama Highlights B'ham Musicales Meet

Music and drama will be the theme of the Birmingham Musicales' meeting today at the Birmingham community house at 1:30 p.m. Chairman of the day is Mrs. Harold Sherman. The program will be given by the Royal Oak Music club as an exchange program.

Mrs. Emerson Brown, hostess chairman for the afternoon, will be assisted by Mrs. A. Frye Ayers, Mrs. Earl Cannon and Mrs. Claude Jordan.

MRS. HENRY McQueen, chairman of the tea which follows the program, has asked Mesdames W. W. Raymond, B. McMechan, W. H. Hohmeyer and D. I. Tate to pour. Tea committee members include Mesdames William T. Ariand, Eric Bergshagen, Donald Biggee, Emerson Brown, W. K. Carvell, C. H. A. Davidson, Andre d'Hyevre, John Dinkeloo, Nelson Harston, James Murphy and John Tobin.

THE ONE-ACT comedy will conclude the program. Members of the cast include Mesdames Harold Atherton, Fletcher Blagborne, Lee Dreyfus, William Hanford, Warren Heiler, William Hopper, Robert Leggett, A. J. Manery and James Oliver.

Director is Mrs. Nancy Burleigh, past president of the Royal Oak Musicales who studied voice and dramatics in Paris. Accompanist is Mrs. Robert Major and prompter is Mrs. Wright C. Palmer.

Newcomers Schedule Open Bridge

An open bridge for women will be held by the Newcomers club of the Birmingham community house 8 p.m. Tuesday. Mesdames Kenneth Crosby, David Miller, James Moll and Mark Stoult are in charge of the party.

At the luncheon meeting Nov. 17 the Newcomers will see holiday fashions and gift suggestions for Christmas. Reservations will be taken until Nov. 14 by Mesdames Josef Palme, Robert Dial, William Gram and Peter Iversen.

TWO OF THE Newcomer activities will change regular meeting dates this month to avoid conflicts with the holiday. The Little Theater group will meet Nov. 30 at the community house. The women are preparing a Gay Nineties review to be presented at the January Meeting.

The book review club will meet Nov. 16 instead of the usual fourth. Thursday, Mrs. Preston Weir, AAUW member, will give review on "I'm Not All Mink." Hostess will be Mrs. Robert Wingler, 823 Bates.

EVENING bridge for couples will be Friday evening at the Birmingham community house.
