

When a home owner puts something other than money into his house, such as special hand-blown beams, a small table or shelf, a picture, some convenience in the kitchen, or numerous other refinements and self-wrought items not sold in stores — when one's home possesses some of these facilities, it takes on personal, intimate aspects that endear it to its occupants.

At Jaycee's Annual Event

Gathering at Forest Lake country club last week for a fashion show and luncheon which was sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce auxiliary are (from left) Mrs. James Cahill, 17342 Edenborough; Mrs. Bliss Bowman, 1898 Pine and Mrs. Donald Borgeson, 18301 Riverstone.

Volunteers Awarded Silver Pins

Volunteers of the Women's Service Committee of William Beaumont hospital were honored Monday afternoon in the hospital cafeteria for donating many hours of service in the past year.

Gold pins were awarded for 1000 hours of service and silver pins for 500 hours of service. Marshall Fredericks, noted sculptor, spoke on "Sculpture As I See It."

Mr. Fredericks designed the aluminum bas relief sculpture that decorates the east facade of the hospital. A replica of the sculpture in the central figure of the awards pin.

MRS. ELLERY Laidlaw of Royal Oak, awards chairman, announces that 28 women now wear gold pins and 118 earned silver pins.

The volunteers have given more than 180,000 hours of service to William Beaumont hospital since its beginning five years ago. More than 48,000 hours were served in the past year. The Women's Service committee now has 611 members. This year's president is Mrs. Merrill White.

Birmingham women who received a silver pin were Mesdames W. J. Coxon, Angela Ring, Elsie Robinson, Robert Calver, Earl Rohrbacher, Rolfe Spinning, F. H. Wilson, E. Ross Hanman, Grace Pardee.

OTHERS ARE Mesdames Bradley Stephenson, S. F. Baker, Carl Beers, Harold Geggie, Ar-

Receiving gold pins for 1000 hours of volunteer service at William Beaumont hospital Monday at the annual awards meeting were (from left) Mrs. Courtney Parker, 131 N. Cranbrook; Mrs. Harry J. Pitcher, 786 Colonial court and Mrs. Jere Dorrough, 32362 Beaconsfield. Also receiving a gold pin was Mrs. Lyman Craig Jr., 32745 Lasher road.

mand Issette, Kenneth Dixon, John Franklin was Mrs. Keith Bliss and Gates, E. R. MacDonald and Horace Mrs. Milton Ringland from Lath-

Members of the Birmingham Newcomers club working on a sleigh, which is to be used as a stage decoration for a semi-formal dance Dec. 3 at Hillcrest Country club,

Birmingham Newcomers Club Schedules Holiday Festivity

A gay "Winter Whirl" will usher in the holiday season for members of the Birmingham Newcomers club. The semi-formal dance will be preceded by cocktails at 6:30 and a buffet dinner at 8. Dancing will begin at 9.

General chairman for the dance is Mrs. Gordon Wood and her helpers include Mrs. Charles Falk, decorating chairman; Mrs. Richard Kinnard, Mrs. Jack Baker, Mrs. C. A. McLeod, Mrs. Kenneth Saunders.

OTHERS ARE Mrs. Eugene Mandell, Mrs. Stuart Knowlton, Mrs. Edward Sahacki, Mrs. Albert Fred, Mrs. James Thrasher, Mrs. Lawrence Gillespie, Mrs. James Benjamin, Mrs. G. W. Smith, Mrs. Donald Wolfslayer and Mrs. Michael Brown.

Among the attractive decorations being planned are glittering miniature sleighs to adorn each table. The club is sponsored by the Birmingham Community house.

AT THE CLUB'S luncheon meeting today, a group of 10 members will sing a variation of "Winter Wonderland" and will distribute candy canes from gayly decorated baskets.

A Touch of Paris Adds International Flavor to Market

International flavor will highlight the four day "Old World Market" which is patterned after sidewalk shops and market places of Europe and the Orient. The event is going on through Sunday at the International Institute, 111 East Kirby.

Thirty nationality groups have set up booths for visitors to shop for unusual art, food and gifts. This year, shoppers will be able to see the interior of a typical European village home with its gayly decorated windows and a cross variety of orange blossom and jasmine teas.

BIRMINGHAM area residents who have worked many hours on the market include Mrs. Harold C. McKie, 534 Woodale; Mrs. Donald K. Tyler, 26590 Franklin Hills drive; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Penfield, 752 Lakeside drive; Lee A. White, 652 Brookside; Mrs. W. H. Bagley Jr., 3535 Burnside; Bush and Mrs. Donald P. Eise, 26685 Capitaine lane.

A touch of Paris has been added to the market where a left-bank radio has been used and decorated with hand painted prints. A Japanese tea house will serve a variety of orange blossom and jasmine teas.

OTHER BOOTHS will feature jewelry from the Baltic States, wood carvings from Lithuania, Germany, and Africa, pewter and Delft blue chinaware from Holland, ski tineware made by Scandinavians, Persian silver, Grecian vases and hand carved mother of pearl from Israel, Armenian lace, Mexican hand painted skirts and leather goods.

Highlighting the market will be gourmet foods to tempt the most sensitive appetite. The market opens at noon each day. A late card international luncheon will be served each day from noon to 2 p. m. by committees from various nationalities.

THROUGHOUT the four day event, an international coffee shop will be open from 2 to 10 p. m. Old country pastries will be served by Russian, Greek, Armenian, Ukrainian and Polish women volunteers.

Many of the shopping booths will feature Christmas cards printed in foreign languages.

Making final plans for Birmingham chapter 22 OES's "Holiday Fair" slated for Nov. 30 at the Masonic Temple, 329 S. Woodward, Birmingham, are (from left) Mrs. Gladys McVean, 1212 Webster; Mrs. Ruth Murray, 1942 E. Lincoln and Mrs. Lyla Theobald, 1950 Cole street.

Local OES Chapter Plans Holiday Fair

"Holiday Fair," sponsored by Birmingham chapter 22 OES, on Nov. 30 at the Masonic Temple will feature handmade items and home baked goodies. The one-day event will open at 1 p. m.

Booths will include such items as aprons, Christmas decorations, pillow cases, washable stuffed toys and dolls, parcel post packages from near and far, gift items including OES napkin holders in colors, cutting boards, recipe books compiled of favorite recipes of members and greeting cards.

man with the assistance of Mrs. Virginia Stutz, aprons; Mrs. Lyla Theobald and Mrs. Ruth Murray, gifts; Mrs. Bessie Ross, parcel post; Mrs. Ruth Reading, Christmas decorations.

Mrs. Lillian Walden, baked goods; Fay Matrons, handkerchiefs and greeting cards; Blanche Brooks, Ione Shepard and Mrs. Ione Stewart and Mrs. Virginia Heath, recipe books; Mrs. Peggy Cooper and Mrs. Dorcas Little, children's surprise grab bags; Mrs. Pyrie Bowden and Mrs. Irg Sahlin, dinner and dining room.

MRS. GLADYS McVean is chairman.

Our Thanksgiving Issue Will Be Out Wed., Nov. 23; Please Get Your Copy in Early; Final Deadline: Monday, Nov. 21.

Suburban Scene

By Shirley Adams
Society Editor

To Play Role of Connoisseurs

A "French Champagne Gala" will add sparkle to the holiday social season on Nov. 26 in the Founders room of the Sheraton-Cadillac hotel. The Women's committee of the Tuberculosis and Health society will sponsor this event in lieu of the Cinderella Ball that had become a Thanksgiving weekend fixture on the social calendar for the past decade.

THE BLACK-TIE affair, limited to 200 persons, will be a one-year replacement for the Cinderella Ball, Mrs. Herbert Hart said, adding that the latter event would be resumed. The group is joining with the Champagne producers of France in staging the Gala to benefit the Christmas Seal charity, open the holiday season, and introduce Detroiters to new vintage French Champagnes and to a distinguished French noblewoman, the Princess Simone Troubetzkoy.

Birmingham area women working hand and hand in this gala affair are Mrs. William J. Scripps, Mrs. William S. Cooper, Mrs. Edgar Flint, Mrs. Roy A. Fruehauf, Mrs. Joseph Paulus, Mrs. Warren Avis, Mrs. Robert Awrey and Mrs. Don Borgeson.

THE SCENE of the Gala, where the tastings will take place between 7 and 9 p. m. and will be followed by dinner and dancing in the Crystal Room until 1 a. m., will be specially decorated for the event with settings created in New York and shipped to Detroit for the occasion. The Princess Simone Troubetzkoy, who has been selected as Ambassador of French Champagne and will come to the U.S. from Paris will preside. The whole room will be transformed to resemble an enchanting setting in her native country.

BIRMINGHAM and Bloomfield Hills guests will assume the role of connoisseurs as they sample and appraise each vintage. The waiters presiding over the tasting tables will be instructed in the art of properly serving champagne, and representatives of each producer will be on hand to supervise the serving.

Dine, Dance and Be Merry

Detroit athletic club's current dinner-floor show gala assuredly is a forerunner of upcoming holiday zavety, if the first few evenings are a criterion. Folks donned black tie dress last weekend to dine, dance, see their friends and give ringing plaudits to Joanne Wheatley for her singing, and to Inna and Rolf for their superb dancing.

At Friday's opener, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Manuel of Oakleigh road, Bloomfield Hills, entertained the Myron Snyder and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Schales, all of the Bloomfield area, and the C. L. Millers, Mr. and Mrs. William P. Woodside were hosts to the Ralph Ginters of Grosse Pointe. In foursome were Mr. and Mrs. Philip R. Flanders with the John Flannerys; the Robert W. Wolf and their guests, the Richard Krajenkes; the W. Reid Hallas and John Theisens. At another table were the John McKees, Jr.

ON THE FOLLOWING night, the Sidney Norwoods of Bloomfield entertained the Carl E. Smiths and the Clarence Kramers of the Pointe. And among those who went into town Wednesday for the DAC floor show festa were the Frederick Richardsons of Bloomfield Hills. Just back from Europe, the Richardsons were guests of the J. Luke Hoffmans.

Business and Pleasure

Business and pleasure were combined when Mr. and Mrs. William J. DeGrace, 2113 Yorkhill, Birmingham, visited New York and Philadelphia areas. They were houseguests in Brightwaters, L. I., of Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Doughty, formerly of Birmingham, and in Westport, Conn., of Mr. and Mrs. W. Robert Grubb. In New York, they saw "My Fair Lady," "Thru the Carnival" and the Jack Paar show. Mr. DeGrace also spoke at a national public relations training conference in New Jersey for council presidents, executives and public relations chairmen.

Needy Persons Receive Items From Guild

More than 6,500 items of new clothing and household linens have been distributed to needy and deserving persons in the area by the Birmingham - Bloomfield Hills branch of the Needlework Guild since the Oct. 19 ingathering.

Board members will meet tomorrow for coffee at the Wadlington road home of Mrs. Morgan Collins Jr. to discuss the distribution of funds received at the ingathering.

ROBERT J. James, executive director of the Family Service, who was guest speaker at the Needlework Guild's ingathering, told of the great need for the clothes and for the shoe fund provided by the guild.

Newly elected officers who will attend the board meeting are Mrs. James O. Wright, incoming president; Mrs. C. C. Patterson Jr., secretary and Mrs. Stephen Booth, assistant secretary.

OUTGOING officers are Mrs. Robert H. Porter, Mrs. Morgan Collins Jr. and Mrs. William P. Thomas Jr. Mrs. John S. Judd is the new first vice president. Mrs. Nelson B. Noland will replace Mrs. M. R. Liles as membership chairman.

Mr. James said that although the Family Service is a Trench Drive agency, many of the families referred to them for counseling are in need of more financial help than they now receive or are borderline financial cases.

ONE EXAMPLE is the "TV" family whose income is marginal. Much sickness and back medical bills and debts from a period of unemployment have made it extremely difficult to provide for all the needs (See GUILD, 2-C)

Linda Busy On Bake Sale

A batch of delicious cookies will be Linda Jacobson's contribution to the baked goods sale sponsored by Walnut Lake senior Scout troop 325 Nov. 19 from 11 a. m. to 4 p. m. at the Downing Pharmacy near the Walnut Lake shopping center. Fifteen year old Linda is an active troop member, and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Jacobson of Walnut Lake road. This project will bring finance a trip to the United Nations in New York during Easter vacation of next year. To assist girls in preparation for the bake sale, a workshop for troop mothers was held at the home of troop leader, Mrs. Mitchell Middleton. Attending were Mrs. Charles Robinson, Mrs. L. P. Swoboda, Mrs. Floyd Layman, Mrs. Raymond Collick, Mrs. Arnold Brown, Mrs. John Nabeulian, Mrs. Richard Schirs, Mrs. Hugh Matthews and Mrs. Ernest Jacobson.

Record Hop Planned

Red Run golf club will have a "Record Hop" for juniors, age 11-14 on Nov. 25. Junior social committee includes Bill Farmer, Teri Fournier, Patti Anger and Reed McCarty. Mrs. J. Townsend is chairman.

