

Social Workers Invited to Dinner-Meeting

A Challenge for Social Workers - College Recruitment will be the subject for the November dinner meeting of the Oakland County chapter of the national association of social workers 6:30 p.m.

Nov. 22 on the campus of MSU. Guest speaker will be Mary Olson from the Detroit office of United Community Services. The meeting is open to non-members who are social workers. Following the speaker, there will be a panel discussion with Herbert McEachern from the Child Guidance Clinic, Birmingham office, as moderator. Subject for the panel discussion will be "Possible areas of cooperation between NASW and MSU" designed to interest students in social work careers.

The Christmas Shopper

As the holidays approach, there are those who spend untold hours of frequently harassing time shopping with gift lists in hand, and all too often come the last few weeks there are still decisions to be made. On the other hand, a number of careful shoppers have gained by cheerfully achieving their choice by shopping at our store. The choice now is quite complete, so choosing is quite simple.

Shirley Mignon Phillips Weds James R. Wheeler

The First Methodist church in Birmingham was the scene Saturday evening for the marriage of Shirley Mignon Phillips to James Richard Wheeler. Dr. Arnold Runkel performed the double ring ceremony in the presence of 250 guests. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James C. Phillips of E. Lincoln street, Birmingham. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph S. Wheeler of Ravine drive, Birmingham.

MRS. JAMES WHEELER

The BRIDE appeared in a gown of crystal white coronation tulle. Pearl frosted alencon lace etched a rose pattern over the molded bodice which was fashioned with petal scalloped bateau décolletage and a long traditionally tapered sleeveless. The bouffant skirt belled from the slender princess waistline and was accented at either side with hem length panels of the lovely lace and sweeping from a Dior bow at the back, spread to a court train. A diadem of jeweled lace crowned her tiered veil of silk illusion and she carried a cascade of white roses.

HONOR attendant was Midge Yost of Parkstone street, Birmingham. Bridesmaids were Mrs. James C. Phillips, Carolin Killing, Linda Wheeler and Mrs. James Binder. They appeared in peacock blue silk taffeta gowns with bouffant skirts and bustle back detail. They carried cascades of yellow carnations.

Garden Club Meets

Kern Lake branch of the Woman's national farm and garden association held their November meeting at the home of Mrs. J. Ferrar, 739 Parkman drive, Bloomfield Hills. Speaker of the day was Mrs. F. Hyde who gave instructions on making Christmas wreaths.

To Give Book Review

Mrs. LeRoy Kiefer, 720 Kennelwood, Bloomfield Hills, will be hostess Nov. 28 at 12:30 to members of Birmingham branch of AAUW. Mrs. Joseph C. Dodge will give the book review for the day.

The BRIDE'S mother appeared in a beige silk shantung sheath. Theodore Schwartz stood as best man and ushers were James C. Phillips, Richard Schwarz, Lawrence Girard and Donald Halpin.

Following a reception in the Birmingham community house, the new Mrs. Wheeler changed into a royal blue jersey sheath with gray accessories to start her wedding trip to Miami. The newlyweds will live in Royal Oak.
