

Music Group Slates Concert

"An Oasis in a Cultural Desert!" Seventeen years ago, when the Detroit Chamber Music society was founded, its president, Karl Haas, often heard those words. Today in Detroit there is good cultural fare for the most discriminating and this city and its suburbs have attracted top flight artists as permanent residents.
 On Monday at 8:30 p.m. the Chamber Music society of Detroit presents an all Bach concert and the artists are all nationally known performers and all Detroiters.

THE SOCIETY has had the active participation of Mesdames W. B. Cooksey, Frank Coolidge, William Lowery, Arnold Langerhans, David Sutter, Gordon Scott and Vernon Venman.
 Others are Mr. Edward Frohlich, Dr. L. Galdonye, Dr. Joseph Gruber, Mr. Kurtz Myers and Mr. Fredrich Sevald.
 The program will be presented in the Community Arts auditorium on the campus of Wayne State university.
