Getting Results

To get the bad news about the Democrats' election showing in Oakland county, 18th district Congressional candidate James Kellis (right) sat down with county Chairman James Ginn at the party's Pontiac headquarters on Tuesday of last week. Republicans repeated their long series of Oakland victories last week, taking every office in the county. Kellis, of Berkley, was defeated by incumbent Republican Congressman William S. Broomfield by a margin of 33,000 votes. Ginn, of Franklin, led county Democrats who racked up 138,577 votes for Kennedy, while Nixon got 159,890 Oakland votes.

JAMES LIAKOS

Greek Guest To Lecture At Kingswood

James Dimitri Liakos, an archeologist and authority on Greek art, will speak Friday, Saturday and Monday to art history classes at Kingswood school. Cranbrook Liakos will also address members of the Birmingham Junior League's docents course Friday afternoon in the Cranbrook Academy of art galleries. He will talk to the entire student body of Cranbrook Academy of art on Tuesday. Liakos, will be a houseguest of the Clifford B. Wests of Lane Fine road. West is the head of the art department at Kingswood. The Greek visitor divides his time between archeological trips and lecturing. In 1959, he was chief assistant in the excavations on the site of Apollon temple at Bassae, Acaridia. The Wests and Liakos met last summer in Greece.

Represents Alums

Mrs. Webster J. Owen of San Quentin drive, Lathrup Village, an alumna admission representative of Hollis college, was in Virginia last week to attend a workshop for alumnae leaders.
