Colonial Dames Slate Meeting At Yacht Club

LINDA ANN JANKE

Wayne Student's Engagement Told

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth K. Janke of Oakland avenue, Birmingham, announce the engagement of their daughter, Linda Ann, to Philip Hoyt Burgess, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth W. Burgess of Detroit.

The bride-elect is attending Wayne State university. Her fiance is a graduate of Albion college and is affiliated with Tau Kappa Epsilon. He is presently teaching at Lee M. Thurston high school and is attending Detroit College of Law.

Mrs. Rogers I. Marquis of Island Lane will introduce Frederick J. Griffiths, director of Gunston Hall, when he addresses the members of the national society of the Colonial Dames at a luncheon at the Grosse Pointe yacht club Tuesday.

Mrs. Paul Penfield of Lakeside drive, Birmingham, is program chairman of the society. Other interested Birmingham area members are Mesdames Merrill Bates, Warren S. Booth, Francis Loud, Alfred Moore, Robert Traub and Charles Welch.

Gunston Hall, a museum house at Lorton, Va., is a national project of the Colonial Dames, and is noted as the birthplace of George Mason, author of the Virginia Declaration of Rights, forerunner of the Bill of Rights in the constitution of the United States.

BLOOMFIELD NORTH

Bloomfield Township
North of Maple

Karol Darling
MA 6-6243

Seniors Kick Off Day At Outdoor Breakfast

BLOOMFIELD VILLAGE—The senior class at Seaholm high were up and crowing before the roosters on Field day last week. All of the more than 500 students were invited to the W. H. Kraus home on North Glengarry road for a six o'clock outdoor breakfast.

Mr. and Mrs. Kraus entertained 24 guests election night with a buffet dinner of pheasant, duck and ham at midnight.

Coming from the Laurentian mountains to spend Thanksgiving weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Thomas T. Restrick of Amberly is Mrs. Restricks' brother, John W. Ross. He will arrive Wednesday from his ski resort, Laurentide inn in St. Agathe, and plans to stay until Monday.

DEVON BROOK — A recent house guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Haines of Devon Brook was Peter Van der Klis of Rotterdam, Holland. The Haines met him when they were living in that country. The Haines' daughter, Nancy, will be home from George Washington university for Thanksgiving.

GILBERT LAKE — Mrs. George Strewer will be the guest of honor at a luncheon and baby shower at the home of Mrs. Howard Kobel of South Millerway. The shower is being given by Mrs. Keith Herron, Edward Comer, Mrs. Joseph Common and Mrs. Albert Smith.

Guests will be Mrs. George Arnold, Mrs. Arthur Johnson, Mrs. Lynn Townsend, Mrs. Wright Matvel, Mrs. John Greer and Mrs. David Stanton as well as Mrs. Robert Athay, Mrs. Robert Begle, Mrs. H.

C. Aulie, Mrs. William Mauck and Mrs. R. E. Vogt.

House guests last weekend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Bratton of Lane Lake road were Mrs. Bratton's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Schall of Memphis, Tenn. The Brattons took their guests to the football game in Ann Arbor on Saturday and brought their daughter Marilyn home for the weekend.

Motoring to Oxford, Ohio, together last weekend were Mr. and Mrs. William S. Lewis of Timberlake road and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Armstrong of Lane Lake road. They joined their sons, Bill Lewis and Mike Armstrong, for Father's weekend at Miami university.

Younger Generation Shows the Critics

WING LAKE — Four young ladies in the Wing Lake area walked into the Red Cross office this week and presented that organization with $8.16, the profits of the first successful project of their new service club.

They call themselves the Bloomfield charity workers' club. Members are Paula Cole, Diane Dickerson, Andy Odle and Reggie Pierce, all 11 years old.

They meet every Wednesday in Paula Cole's playhouse which she changed from a doll house to a club home. Listed in the BCWC records are all the organizations for which they plan donations. The Red Cross was first on the list and the BCWC chose a bake sale as their first fund raising project.

They printed and distributed over 100 notices and opened shop in the club house last Saturday with cup cakes, cream puffs, cookies, bread and rolls which they had baked. By evening, the last cream puff was sold.

Spending this week with the Charles Robinsons of Sunningdale, is Mrs. Robinson's sister who is also her sister-in-law, Mrs. F. W. Robinson. She has been in Ann Arbor visiting her daughter and newborn grandson and, after a visit with the Robinsons, will return to New Jersey.

Mr. and Mrs. James Wright of Wing Lake road expect their daughter Bitsy home for Thanksgiving. She will arrive from Duke university Wednesday to spend the weekend.

CHELMSLEIGH—Mr. and Mrs. William B. Bachman, Jr. of Oakleigh entertained a group of their former Birmingham neighbors Friday evening with a potluck dinner and bridge.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Willam Burlingame, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Blaisdell, Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Dickinson, Mr. and Mrs. John Main and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hardy.

The Bachmans will be going East with their sons Bill and Tom for Thanksgiving weekend. They will have Thanksgiving dinner in New York and look over prep schools for Bill.

LOCHSLEA — Three sisters are enjoying a reunion at the Russell McBride home on Inwood circle. Mrs. McBride's sister, Mrs. B. F. Batcheler arrived Tuesday from Green Bay, Wis. to stay a week. When her husband arrived, the men took off for a hunting trip. Another sister, Mrs. Alfred Hard arrived from Ann Arbor for a visit.

Yule Decor Shown At Garden Club

FOXCROFT — Holiday decoration ideas were displayed at the Nov. 7 meeting of the Foxcroft branch, WNFGA. A group of garden club members designed and arranged the display.

The tea table centerpiece was arranged by Mrs. Leo J. Knapp and hostesses were Mrs. R. O. Darling, Mrs. C. F. Buschagen, Mrs. C. L. Heiserman and Mrs. J. S. Howell.

Discusses Therapy

WESTWOOD MANOR — Mrs. James Liddell of Westwood lane was hostess Nov. 1 to members of the Westwood Manor branch, WNFGA. Mrs. J. R. Alexander presented a talk on horticultural therapy.

Have You Met . . .

Wing Lake newcomers, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bailey of Sheringham road? They formerly lived in East Lansing. Bailey is district manager for Anheuser-Busch.

Corsage-Makers Teach Club Members

WING LAKE — The Wing Lake Shores branch, WNFGA met Nov. 7 for luncheon at the home of Mrs. L. F. Brydell of Chippewa court. Mrs. Werner Kusay was co-hostess.

Following the meeting, a workshop in corsage making was conducted by members who had taken flower-arranging lessons.

Rotary Anns Meet

Mrs. William DeGraff, 961 Fairfax, Birmingham, will open her home Monday to members of Rotary Ann for a luncheon. Hostesses will be Mesdames J. M. Hardin, William Knight and Arthur Gillespie. Guest speaker will be George W. Averill, managing editor of The Birmingham Eccentric.