Dial M for money— Actually, we know it's "Dial M for merriment" the Village players are doing. What we're referring to is the benefit performance of the show being sponsored tomorrow night by the Birmingham alumnae of Colgate Sorority. Money derived will be used for the Sorority backed senior center in the Cranbrook music guild which Michigan scholarships. A number of dinner parties have been given by Mr. and Mrs. George Jones. Their guest list includes Dr. and Mrs. John Hamill, Justice and Mrs. Theodore Souther, Mr. and Mrs. Tony Reina, Mr. and Mrs. Grant Farrell, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Vandeweer, Dr. and Mrs. James Reed, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Upton, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Weller, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sadler, Mr. and Mrs. Burke Bartlett, Mr. and Mrs. John Costello, Mr. and Mrs. Jackson Tammelfort, Mr. and Mrs. Paul King and Dr. and Mrs. Paul Trimmer.

Say It With Music

One certainly needn't travel to Europe for elegant salon musicals (that's salon, son, not saloon). We have one of the finest right here in Bloomfield Hills, by name the Cranbrook house which was organized in 1952 by Mrs. Benjamin Brewster. Mrs. Brewster, along with Harry Booth realized that Cranbrook house provided a perfect setting for musicals in their usual chairs at the back of the world have known them since the middle ages. Here among the renaissance tapestries and furnishings guild members have enjoyed world famous artists for the last eight years.

They've gone most musicals a better by including jazz artists in their summer garden concert. Mostly progressive (way way out) this group has included Bernard Peiffer, Don Shirley and Dave Brubeck (Cranbrook stadium had to be used to accommodate the crowd).

Members of the Cranbrook house one can find members enjoying the concerts from their favorite corners. Some prefer the couches in the bay window but last night we spotted Dr. Lloyd Kemp and Albert DeSalle in their usual chairs at the back of the main drawing room.

WEDNESDAY evening was the season opener (I hope that doesn't sound too much like a baseball game) and featured artist was pianist Jean Casadesu. Famous son of equally famous parents, Robert and Gaby Casadesu. Handsome (83) Mr. Casadesu jetted here from an engagement with the London Philharmonic and among those seen last night were Mr. and Mrs. Edmond Pratt, Mr. and Mrs.

Merrill Bates, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gilman, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Allen Jones, and Mr. and Mrs. John G. Dinkello.

Pouers included Mrs. Leroy Dahlberg, Mrs. Frederick G. Weed, Mrs. Max Fruhauf, Mrs. Henry Booth and Mrs. Leroy Kiefer. This year's president is James Schneider, who was assisted by house chairman Mrs. Jack Sanders.

Helpful Friends

The problem of a house warming gift was neatly solved last week by a group descending on the Richard Pages in their new home on Glenhill. This group included The John Crims, The Fran Leeds, The David Raymond, The Jerry Frosts, Jr., Bill Holmes, Mrs. Jean Steding and Maurice Smith. The gift? Yes, the guests bustled themselves with trowels and shovels and filled the Page's large planter with their gifts of greenery.

Newcomer Arrives

Mr. and Mrs. Richard C. Oglesby of Westwood are happy to announce the arrival of Bushman, their first lemur. Private showings are available daily.

So Sorry!

We all have our "fingerprints on a blackboard" words. One of mine is mesdames. Yet, somehow, someone inserted that horrendous word in my column last week. It wasn't I, and if you feel as I feel about "mesdames" please accept my apologies!

Oldtimers

Film festival at Cannes? Not quite, but members of St. Dunstan's had almost as much fun last Saturday when Steve Booth and Fran Loud dug up some really old silent films, decorated the pavilion with movie posters and slogans and engaged Gordie Saunders to create mood music on the piano while the flicks were being shown.

Stars of the evening were Patty Arbuckle (Charlie Chaplin), Harold Lloyd, Wallace Beery and the ever popular Mae Busch.

Spotted at the crowded tables were Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Fredericks, Mr. and Mrs. David Lee, Mr. and Mrs. John Soppin, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Porter, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Maunders, Mr. and Mrs. Richard O'Reilly, Mr. and Mrs. John Kice, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Honegan, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Downey, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hain, Mr. and Mrs. Otis Thompson, Mrs. Dottie Teel, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Teel, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Scott, Jim Mann, Mr. and Mrs. John Allman, Mr.

Birthday Celebration Follows Eastern Trip

BLOOMFIELD FARMS — Mr. and Mrs. Taylor Perkins of Cumberly road, spent a six day vacation in New York City. They visited several friends and attended "Song of Music".

They returned in time to host a family party celebrating the birthday of his father, R. T. Perkins of Toledo. Enjoying the family get-together were his mother Mrs. R. T. Perkins and his brother and family, the William Perkins of Indianapolis.

Miss Karen Taggart, of Lathrup village, was guest of honor at a buffet supper and miscellaneous shower, Nov. 15, given by Mrs. Kenneth Hixby at her home on Westmoor road.

Miss Taggart's marriage to Stewart Schultz, Jr. will take place Nov. 26 at All Saints Episcopal church, Detroit.

WEST MAPLE — Dinner guests at the Walter Meads' Maple road home Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Donald Warncke and Bill Warncke of Waterford and Mrs. John Trainer and sons Cory and John, also of Waterford.

BRAS — Dad's day at Purdue university was almost a family reunion for the Otto Troos family of Walnut Lake road.

Daughter Deedee who is a senior at Purdue entertained her parents, her sister and brother, Liz and Phil, and Dan Kreuz who drove down from the Bras. Also joining the family group was daughter Carol who is a sophomore at Michigan State university.

Teddy Grigsby celebrated his seventh birthday with a luncheon for seven of his contemporaries. Youngsters at the party who also and Mrs. Dick Allman, Mr. and Mrs. John Warner, and Mr. and Mrs. Gary Bawden.

Parties Underway

Deer season has just opened and Mr. and Mrs. Robert LaJoie are firing the shot to be heard round the area as far as holiday entertaining is concerned. They have invited 200 of their friends to close the Sign of the Beefeater, Mr. LaJoie's establishment after closing hours tomorrow night, thereby getting the jump on Christmas parties.

Dreamer

I had a funny bit about the election if my boys had won. But they didn't. Do you mind waiting four years for it?
