Student's Christmas Sale

Colorful ceramic vases, cups and pots, silver and copper jewelry, hand-woven scarves in brilliant tones, place mats and napkins, small sculpture, drawings, paintings, and woodblock prints are among the many items being ready by students at Cranbrook Academy of Art for their annual Christmas sale which opens Dec. 2 in the Art Galleries.

It will also be open to the public on the following two weekends: Dec. 3 and 4 and Dec. 10 and 11 from 2 to 5 p.m. The display will be in the lower galleries this year.

WILBUR Steiner, a design student from Rochester, N. Y., is sale chairman, appointed by the student council. Thomas Hillebrand of Ludington and Vernon Kamboltz of Green Bay, Wis., are serving on the hanging committee.

There will also be a selling committee, but the entire student body will be active in the sale, which has become an anticipated event in the area. Fifteen per cent of the total is donated to the student scholarship fund.

Visit Son At Ohio Wesleyan

Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Hasbell Shaffer of Radnor drive, Birmingham, recently visited their son, William, a freshman at Ohio Wesleyan university, during parents' weekend.

Bill, student manager of the football team, and Dr. Shaffer enjoyed the honor luncheon given for the football team and their dads. After the Saturday game, the freshmen came out victorious in the freshman-sophomore tug-of-war.

A BONFIRE soon had all the freshmen bonnies going up in smoke as freshmen girls and boys alike fed the flames. A freshman defeat would have seen the bonnie season continuing.

Pleasant activities at Bill's fraternity house included open house on Saturday, a special dinner on Sunday for all visiting parents, followed in the early afternoon by a formal pledge ceremony.

During this ceremony Bill received his pledge pin into the Sigma Alpha Epsilon national fraternity. He is a graduate of Darrow school, New Lebanon, N. Y.

Lutz Initiated Into Tau Beta Pi

John M. Lutz, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. Earl Lutz, 1147 Hillside drive, Birmingham, was one of 63 undergraduates to be initiated into Tau Beta Pi, national honorary engineering fraternity at the University of Michigan. The Lutz family are newcomers to Birmingham, having moved here from Ashland, Ohio, in August, 1959.

John's father was initiated into Tau Beta Pi in 1931 at the U of M and was present at his son's initiation. John will graduate in February with a BS degree in engineering mechanics and expects to receive a BS in mathematics in June.

The International Typographical Union was founded in 1852 and is the first and oldest labor union in the United States.
