a Thanksgiving message

Thanksgiving season we feel is a fitting time to stop and remember the things for which we should be thankful.

For good and loyal friends of many years standing.

For being able to watch a small town grow into the thriving community that Birmingham is today.

For the good things of life we as Americans enjoy more than any other people on earth.

For freedom . . . the freedom given us in the constitution and preserved through 177 years of the union.

For all this and more we join our fellow Americans in giving thanks.
