Family Bids Aloha, Goodbye to Hawaii

FOX-CROFT — A small chunk of Diamond Head and a grass skirt have been added to the travel souvenirs at the Stan Negas home on a quiet road in the hills.

With just eight days for a vacation in Hawaii, Mr. and Mrs. Negas and their daughter Kathy decided to travel fast—they boarded a jet plane after breakfast at nine and arrived on Oahu long before dinner.

Hawaiian village was their headquarters and from there they went sightseeing, visited a Japanese town, attended a luncheon and still had time for Kathy to take hula lessons.

From Michigan State University and Barbara from University of Michigan.

Weekend guests at the Stanley J. Gillen home on Chewton cross will be Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Field, Jr. and their two sons from Grand Rapids. The men plan to attend the Lion's game tomorrow.

The Gillen's daughter, Elizabeth, who is at Mills college in California, will spend the holiday with her grandparents in Palm Springs.

Mrs. D. Peirson Smith of Hupp cross arrived home recently after four weeks in Europe. She traveled by jet plane to join her husband who has been in Europe on business. They enjoyed a month of travel before Mrs. Smith returned home.
