Bloomfield Gets New Fire Chief

BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP—served the township as fire marshal and before that was a fire inspector. and especially over the nice bunch of people I will be working with."

So says Valentine Yanuszkeski, newly appointed fire chief of Bloomfield township, who will direct the township's three stations. He is a resident of Pontiac and has been associated with township business since 1948.

For the last three years he has

Chief Yanuszkeski started as a police officer in Bloomfield township in 1948 and four years later transferred to the fire department. He served as a fireman until his promotion to marshal.

His offices will be in Station number one, 4200 Telegraph. The township offices are located at the same address.

The new chief and his wife, Sue, have two children. They are Dennis, 9, and Dean, 6.

TOWNSHIP Treasurer Homer Case made the formal announcement of Yanuszkeski's appointment Friday morning.

Lathrup Man Head Of Cancer Group

LATHRUP—A resident of Lathrup, Dr. John L. Barrett was named president of the South Oakland unit of the Michigan Cancer Foundation at the annual meeting of the group Nov. 15, at William Beaumont hospital. Retiring president is Dr. James E. Ladd.

Award certificates were presented to Mrs. James Lanham for her work on public information and to Mrs. Harold Nash for her work as service chairman.

Mrs. Nelson Mulligan, Lathrup chairman, received a gold pin for 100 hours work and Mrs. Leslie Swallow also received a 100 hours pin for her work as office manager.

Mrs. Mulligan poured at the tea. The members were entertained by Johnny Ginger, television performer, and by Ben Mills of Bloomfield Hills, who played the piano.

Roommates Enjoy Reunion in Tennessee

LATHRUP—It was old home week for Mrs. Buri Poe on her recent trip to Knoxville, Tenn., where she met her college roommates and rehashed old times.

The Poes saw the Tennessee-Ga. Tech game as well as the Mississippi-Tennessee grid contest while they were South.

Mrs. Leslie Swallow says she still still attend Lathrup woman's club activities, even though she moved to Birmingham recently. She's nicely located now on N. Adams.

A five-year resident of Lathrup, she was active also in St. Cyril's guild of St. Bede's church, Heron, Peter, and his family live on Sunnyside and she'll be there often to visit little grandson, David.

Take it from Mrs. Guy S. Peppiatt, you can see a lot of Europe in three and one-half weeks. She traveled with the Thomas Camps of Birmingham. Peppiatt joined them for one week.

Mrs. Peppiatt says they spent most of their time in Paris but squeezed in side trips to Germany, Italy, Spain and even made a quick stop in Portugal.

She and Mrs. Camp also managed a three-day tour of Normandy and Brittany. With all this, they still returned in time to vote in the recent elections.

Ten Girl Scouts from troop 160 worked mighty hard serving 150 Little leaguers and their fathers at their Nov. 10 banquet at Lathrup Community Congregational church.

Co-leaders are Mrs. J. R. Beat and Mrs. Fred Emblin.

Dr. and Mrs. C. Paul Hodgkinson returned just recently from a Chi-twist meetings. Somehow, Mrs. Hodgkinson sandwiched in a grand dinner party and the couple hosted 14 guests at their home in honor of Dr. and Mrs. Maurice Grier of Omaha, Neb.

If you've any energy left after gasping at a feat like that, the Lathrup players can use your help. Their committees for scenery, props and other functions, necessary to produce "The Vinegar Tree," would be delighted to have your assistance.

The group meets at Lathrup Community Congregational church for a rehearsal Dec. 8, at 8 p.m.

Mrs. Charles G. Buhler is in charge of the membership committee.

The college crowd is back home to do their bit around Thanksgiving tables. To name just a few there are Ellen Jenks, Kay Plumtree, Bernadine Slavik, Judith Vogt, Sally Little, and Elaine Thiriot—all from Michigan State university.

A welcome home was ready for Pat Catell, Mary Lou Himes, Bill Goudin, Linda Pederson and Terry Clark, all of Albion, as well as lended a national dental meeting in Los Angeles. They saw the sights in San Francisco and along the coast before heading back home, via Grand Canyon.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Raab of Bungalow drive now have a pair. Daughter Elizabeth Allinger arrived Nov. 13. The Robin Raabs of Beverly Hills will be her godparents when she is baptized at Christ Church Cranbrook.

Young Hearts Sail

SOUTHFIELD—All ready to give Europe a whirl via Southfield high school's senior play, "Our Hearts Were Young and Gay," Diane Perrin (left), as Cornelia Otis Skinner and Anne Fryogle as Emily Kimbrough pose at play rehearsal. The hilarious tour was presented in play form at the school last Friday and Saturday. Virginia Borts was director.

Women Voters to Hear Public Officials Speak

SOUTHFIELD — Provisional Southfield League of Women Voters will hold a general membership meeting in Southfield high school Dec. 1 at 8 p.m.

Program highlights will be the appearance of two of the city of Southfield's public officials, Robert McNutt, city administrator, and Mrs. Wayne McDonnell, councilwoman.

John Herrington attended a workshop session in Lansing.

MRS. ANUERIN JONES and Mrs. Michael Marlo were guests Nov. 13 at the West Bloomfield League of Women Voters meeting and heard a talk by Dr. Eley, political scientist from the University of Michigan.

Following the Dec. 1 meeting, the next general membership meeting of the league will be held in January.

Women Voters to Hear Public Officials Speak

ONE OF THE studies of a provisional league includes "know Your Town" project. Status as a full-fledged league may be achieved upon the successful completion of the study.

Mrs. John Herrington, 23450 Evergreen, is the provisional Southfield league's director of the "Know Your Town" project and program chairman for the Dec. 1 meeting.

At the membership meeting Mrs. Herrington and committee members Mrs. Edward Biskie and Mrs. Charles Curtis will present their study findings to date.

The evening's guests will be interviewed about various phases of city government. McNutt will be asked to review Southfield's form of city government, the division of government, city personnel, finances and purchasing. Mrs. McDonnell will present information about the council as a governing body, council authority and jurisdiction and the relationship of the city government to other government levels.

The meeting will provide an opportunity to become informed and have questions answered about the functions of certain city posts. All local women are cordially invited to take advantage of this opportunity.

SINCE THE Oct. 27 membership meeting, league members have been busy with membership drive activities and informative sessions. Mrs. Warren Shelden, membership director, entertained prospective league members at a coffee hour Nov. 3.

A number of the members worked at the election polls Nov. 8. On Nov. 10 Mrs. Harris H. Paxton, Mrs. Michael Marlo and Mrs.

The man who lives by the golden rule today never has to apologize for his actions tomorrow.

Name "Dixie" was given to the South, according to popular belief, by Negroes who were fond of a Manhattan slave owner by that name.
