Teeth Need Brushing?

W. Carleton Scott is a man loaded down with tooth-brushes. But he doesn't mind—he's one of the members of the Birmingham Exchange club who will be selling brushes throughout the Birmingham area all day this Saturday. Scott, a Gilbert Lake resident, is a past president of the club. Proceeds from the sale will be used for youth activities.

GOP Chairman Lashes At UAW Official's Talk

The chairman of the Oakland county Republican committee Tuesday branded as "dangerous and irresponsible" the suggestion of a UAW official that the United States might trigger an armed conflict with the Soviet Union.

Arthur G. Elliott Jr., addressing a meeting of Republican women in Birmingham, took sharp exception to the published remarks by Ernest Masey, board member of UAW local 212 and executive secretary of the Metropolitan Detroit branch of the American Civil Liberties union.

"It is dangerous and irresponsible for anyone to suggest that the United States might trigger a third world war—and that's exactly what Mr. Masey implied," Elliott said.

The Oakland county GOP chief said such statements "not only increase international tensions, but lend credence to the Soviet picture of the U. S. as a belligerent nation."

ELLIOTT SAID he was sure Masey was expressing his own personal views and not that of rank and file union members. But he "seriously questioned the advisability of labor spokesmen making statements that tend to place the position of organized labor toward Communism in doubt."

Elliott concluded that "the Republican party does not doubt the peaceful intentions of the Russian people, but it realizes that the wishes of the people have little effect on Soviet bold war policy."

"MR. MASEY's glowing account of Russia as a nation of peace-loving farmers and workers indicates an astonishing naive of the nature of the Soviet threat," Elliott said.

"While I'm sure that Mr. Masey found expressions of friendship everywhere during his tour of Russia, he has only to look at what is happening at the United Nations to learn that this outpouring of goodwill is not necessarily shared by Kremlin leaders," he added.
