

Pump Gets Once Over

Area residents O. C. Davis (right) of Birmingham, vice president and treasurer of Vickers Incorporated, and B. W. Badenoch of Orchard Lake, general manager of the Aero Hydraulics division and vice president, inspect the hydraulic pump of the ill-fated Lady Be Good B-24 bomber. After 16 years of exposure to the sands and temperature extremes of the Libyan desert in North Africa, the main system hydraulic pump of the aircraft, which was lost on a bombing mission in 1943 and was found only a year ago, met all original test standards when checked out by Vickers, manufacturers of the pump.

WHAT DOCTORS SAY ABOUT

Tall Like Daddy?

- D & C
- B. S.
- Hair Thinning

Q. Is it possible to predict how tall a child will be when he grows up?
A. It is possible to make an educated guess. If interested, request a "How Tall" card, directing your request to SCIENCE EDITORS, P. O. Box 396, Madison Sq. Station, New York 10, N. Y.

Q. I am 35, and have had two D and C's for blocked tubes, but no luck. Is there any chance of having children?
A. First, D and C (dilatation and curettage) is done for purposes other than to "unblock" the tubes. Infertility is often a very complex problem. Both the husband and wife should be examined and the cause of the difficulty pinpointed, if possible. Having discovered the cause, the doctor will employ whatever is called for by way of corrective treatment. Don't be discouraged if the doctor fails to solve the problem in a few visits. It may take time to determine the reason for the difficulty.

Q. Why is "backlash" used in connection with college degrees?
A. It is probably derived from the word "baculus," a term applied to young English knights who fought under the banner of someone else, hence knight bachelor. Pope Gregory IX (1227-41) first used the term to designate a person who had passed an academic examination but who was not yet a "master" or "doctor."

Q. What causes hair thinning in young women?
A. Hair thinning in younger women seems to occur more often now than formerly. A group of New York doctors investigated this problem but failed to come up with an answer. To quote the physicians, "There has been no specific approach, and indeed no satisfactory approach, to treatment of this condition. Answers do not necessarily reflect the opinion of all doctors. The diagnosis and treatment of disease is the function of the patient's personal physician."
