

Volunteers Honored at Tea

Red Run golf club was the scene last week for the board of directors of the Women's Service committee of William Beaumont hospital's annual members' tea. Among the volunteers attending the event were (from left) Mrs. Courtley Parker of N. Cranbrook road, Mrs. Gardner Pardee of Glengarry road and Mrs. Lloyd Bishop of Cedar Hill, all of Birmingham. A representative of each of the organization's service projects served at the tea table.

Club's Rummage Sale Egyptian Exhibit

The Michigan Federation of Business and professional women's clubs, Inc., held its fall leadership conference in E. Lansing last week. Local members attending the conference were Anne Radcliffe, Kay Griffith, Mel Collins and Bonnie Wright. A rummage sale is planned 8 p.m. Saturday at 266 S. Woodward.

The Birmingham Junior league will hold its Oct. 19 meeting at the Cranbrook Institute of Art, where the members will have a chance to view the Egyptian exhibit put on by the Young People's art classes. Guest speaker will be Franklin Pace, curator of Ancient Art at the Detroit Institute of Art.

Coming Events

October 6
Birmingham alumnae of Gamma Phi Beta sorority will have a dessert meeting 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Robert Thomas of Huntington Woods. Mrs. Gerald Johie will report on her recent trip to Gulfport, Miss., where she was a delegate to the International convention.
Poncha Away club will meet 8 p.m. tonight at the Community house in Birmingham. The group meets every Thursday evening. At the last meeting officers were elected and a film was shown on "Medicine Men."

October 7
University of Minnesota women's club for the Detroit area will have its annual membership tea 1 p.m. at the home of Mrs. George Turner, 15690 Glastonbury, Detroit. Mrs. M. J. Patterson of Romney road, Birmingham, was elected vice president. Mrs. John Thornhill, 2545 Broadway boulevard, Bloomfield Village, will have a coffee at 10:30 a.m. for the Needlework Guild. Women are asked to bring a garment for the guild.

October 10
Three Flags chapter DAR is having its annual birthday luncheon 12:30 p.m. at Rotunda Inn. Mrs. E. W. Noland of St. Joseph will speak on "St. Mary's school for Indian Girls," which is located in Springfield, South Dakota.
Birmingham Child Study group will meet 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Richard Westcamp, 25536 Hendrie boulevard, Huntington Woods. Guest speaker will be Mrs. Paul Ragwell.

October 11
Phileas club will meet 1 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Zula Thompson, 427 Southlawn, Birmingham, for dessert—lunch and sewing.
First fall meeting of the U of D Women's guild will be 1:30 p.m. in the ballroom of the McNichols campus. The Rev. Richard Dempsey, S. J., doctor of economics at the U of D, will discuss the relative merits of the economic phase of the Democratic and Republican platforms.

October 11
Bloomfield Hills alumnae group of Pi Beta Phi will meet 12:30 for a luncheon at the home of Mrs. Bernard Miller, 537 Hickory Bend, Birmingham. Guest speaker will be Mrs. J. Reed Alexander.

October 12
Trampoline class for women at the Woodward center from 10 to 11

Rosemarie Berns Weds David Stephen Ortner

Community Congregational church in Lathrup Village was the scene Saturday evening for the marriage of Rosemarie Berns to David Stephen Ortner. The candlelight ceremony was performed by Dr. John D. Rose.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugo F. Berns of Lee Baker drive, Southfield. Her bridesmaid is the son of Mr. and Mrs. David G. Ortner of Bloomfield drive, Lathrup Village.

ROSEMARIE appeared in a full length tulle gown with a chapel train, bateau neckline, long pointed sleeves and trimmed with Venice lace and satin. The butterfly veil of silk illusion fell from a crown of pearls. She carried white begonia blossoms in a cascade arrangement.

Matron of honor was Carole Thomas and bridesmaids were Irene Shaak, Mary Alice Sears and Shannon Wieland.

THEY WERE gowned in turquoise peau de soie with bouffant skirts accented at waistline with two peau de soie rose buds. Headpieces were of matching peau de soie tailored bows with circular veils. They carried cascade bouquets of bronze fugi mums.

Peggy Gempel, flower girl, wore a white bouffant dress in pink silk organza and a headpiece of pink sweetheart roses. She carried a bouquet of turquoise and white mums.

Standing as best man was John Ortner and seating the guests were Daniel Ortner, Dick Ortner and Robert Wieland.

MRS. DAVID S. ORTNER

Mrs. L. Dahlberg Entertains at Membership Tea

The Jenny Lind club of Detroit will hold its annual membership tea Tuesday at the home of Mrs. LeRoy Dahlberg on Lone Pine road, Bloomfield Hills. Associate members and prospective members will be honored at the tea.

Mrs. Robert Peebles, membership chairman, is heading the tea. Serving on her committee are Mrs. Carl G. Hasselblad and Mrs. Walter W. Wood.

The Rev. Constantine Trued, who has returned from a world tour, will speak on the reactions of the African people to their own situation.

'Wayne Musicale' Presented Here

Detroit Country Day school will present "A Wayne State Musicale" Monday at 8:15 p.m. Valter Poole will conduct. Artists include Shirley Love, mezzo soprano; Isadore Sasiow, violinist and Robert Shulman, piano.

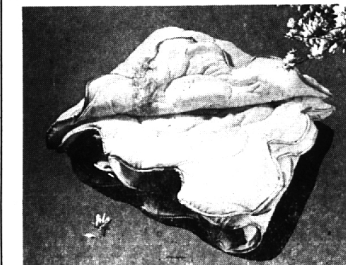

Concert committee members include Mrs. John E. Graham of Wing Lake road, Bloomfield township; Mrs. S. F. Leahy of Hupp Cross road, Bloomfield township; Mrs. L. T. Lewis of Pilgrim road, Birmingham; Mrs. Paul McKenney of Dunston road, Bloomfield Hills and Mrs. Valter Poole of Detroit.

Patrons include Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Guething of Kenosaw road, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Guething of Lake Park, both of Birmingham; and the Lester Morris' of Detroit.

You will find many bargains in The Eccentric Classified Columns.

Working on Benefit

Elaine Nagle, owner of Village Bookshelf, 790 N. Woodward, Birmingham, (left) and Annetta Wonnberger, president of the Altrusa club, discuss the group's benefit lecture which is slated for Wednesday at the Birmingham community house. Featured speaker will be Dr. Bergen Evans, witty lecturer, professor and television personality. Proceeds of the event will go to the Sister Kenny equipment fund.

SALE

SCALLOP EDGED FRENCH CREPE COMFORTER

$10

Beautiful hand guided stitching all around the scalloped edge of this French Crepe comforter which is filled with dacron polyester. In the 72x84 inch size which fits both twin or full size beds... pink, blue, or matching white bindings.

Jacobson's
home decorative shop

325 N. Woodward Avenue
Birmingham

Customcraft's
sleek, slender black calf pump for fall... with just a touch of trim, high sliver of a heel.

22.98

Jacobson's
Maple at Bates Birmingham

Royal Couple in U. S.

King Frederik IX of Denmark and Queen Ingrid are touring the United States highlighting a series of events known as "Denmark in U.S.A." As guests of President Dwight D. Eisenhower, the Royal Couple, making the first U.S. visit of any reigning Danish monarchs, arrived in a.m. every Wednesday.

North Suburban alumnae group of Chi Omega will meet 1:15 at Jacobson's in Grosse Pointe for a fashion show and luncheon. Birmingham chapter members will model. Reservations must be in by Friday to Mrs. Robert Page, 2488 Manchester, Birmingham.

Members of the Society of Engineers' Wives will convene for their first meeting of the fall season 12:30 p.m. at the Rackham Memorial building. Guest speaker will be Mrs. Miriam Hewitt, supervisor of the adjustment division of Recorder's court.

October 13
Franklin Cemetery auxiliary will meet 1 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Kenneth Bristol, 26295 W. 14 Mile road, Franklin. A White Elephant sale will follow the business meeting.

Modern living department of the Birmingham women's club will meet 7 p.m. at the home of Mrs. James Lowman, 931 Ridgewale, Birmingham, for a pot luck supper. John Moss will present a program on "Holiday Decorations."

First fall meeting of the greater Detroit area council of hospital auxiliaries will be held noon at the Wayne county medical society.

October 14
Mu Phi Epsilon national professional music sorority will present one of its members, Emily Muttter Adams, in a fall music 8 p.m. at the Detroit Institute of Arts lecture hall. Her accompanist will be Lawrence La Gore.

BIRTHS

A daughter, Ellen Louise, was born Sept. 23 to MR. AND MRS. JAMES E. MCCOBB of Beaverton, Oregon. Mrs. McCobb is the former Martha Bostwick. Grandparents are Dr. and Mrs. Milo Bostwick of Birmingham and the Edward C. McCobbs of Grand Rapids.

A daughter, Susan Leigh, was born Aug. 30 to DR. AND MRS. THOMAS VARBEDIN of Grandfield road, Birmingham. Mrs. Varbedin is the former Marilyn Mardigan, daughter of Mrs. and Mrs. Edward Mardigan of Detroit. Paternal grandparents are the L. Varbedin of Southfield.

A son, John William, was born September 10 to MR. AND MRS. WILLIAM KELLEY Stanley street, Birmingham. Mrs. Kelley is the former Nancy Bears. Grandparents are the C. J. Kelleys and Mrs. Mark Bears, both of Birmingham.

A daughter, Christine Curtis, was adopted Sept. 20 by MR. AND

Velvets by Christine... a panorama of new hat silhouettes, creating a stir on every fashion scene. Here, a soft, triply-tiered cloche gives complete head coverage for the most dramatic effect. Dominant in black or fall colors. 10.98 Others from 8.98 - 13.98

Millinery Salon

Jacobson's

Maple at Bates Birmingham

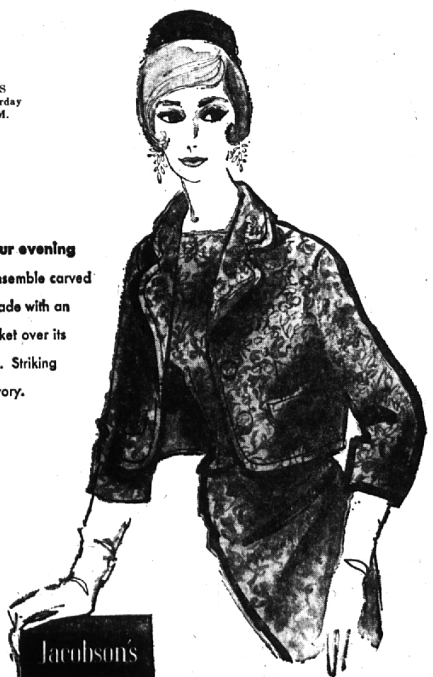

STORE HOURS
Monday thru Saturday
9:30 to 5:30 P.M.

Fashion suited to your evening hours... our 3-piece ensemble carved in cotton/acetate brocade with an easy-wearing little jacket over its own sleeveless blouse. Striking glamour in black or ivory.

8 to 18 sizes. 39.95

2-Hour Free Parking
Have Your Ticket Validated When You Make a Purchase at Jacobson's

Maple at Bates Birmingham

Jacobson's