Groves had it's first football game of the season, Fridgy, Sept. 23 with Cranbrook. The game was played at Seaholm high school. Both teams did very well, with Cranbrook tang the victory 40-7.

On Sept. 30, at 2:30 p.m., a chartered bus took all Junior per polith members to the team's second parameters of the team's second parameters. The second parameters of the team's second parameters of the team's second parameters of the season of the season of the season. Fridgy, and the silgest made me rage. But the sligged made one rage.

New I'm a teen like you
And being "cool" is nothing Mat if someone calls our school a pun?

Are yon not proud—would you If you do, you're a coward and a fool
And that's most certainly not cool.

Believe me, its "cool" to be high school, for the team's second game.

Below is printed a poem written by one of Grores football players. This poem tells us it is cool to be proud and sick up for your school. I went to a game and I won't tell it name; Bad of word tell it name; Bad of word tell it name; Bad of word word of the school of the school of the school of the school of the school, where you had been a school, where we word word word word a government of the school, where we veryous's cool coul," where we veryous's cool occol," we would not seen to school, where we veryous's cool coul," a saked myself, "Is this my achool, where we veryous's coo cool," school, Where everyone's too cool?" Now I'm not one for the stage,
