

Enthusiasm Prevails At Fall Fashion Show

EAST BEVERLY—From beautifully simple Italian knits to elegant Oleg Cassini originals, everything won the enthusiastic approval of the more than 400 ladies who gathered at the Oakland Hills country club last week for the annual fall luncheon. It was presented by Our Lady Queen of Martyrs altar society.

Mrs. R. C. Touhey of Auburn drive and Mrs. John Dunn of Birmingham were co-chairmen of the benefit. After the fashion preview staged by the Jacqueline shops of Birmingham, door prizes were awarded by altar society president, Mrs. Dale Branigan and Mistress of ceremonies, Mrs. William T. Sweeney, both of Birmingham.

weekend at Macatawa helping to close the Beckers' summer home on Lake Michigan for the season.

Last week they all drove to Indianapolis, Ind.—the Beckers to their home, and the Shirelys to the parents who came from Florida for a brief visit.

MR. AND MRS. Perry Glorio of East Ruidland keep up with former neighbors—not the Joneses but with Mr. and Mrs. Peter Fries whom they visited two weeks ago in Fainting Hill. The Clifford Beckers who came down from Toronto, Ont. to spend last weekend with them were also former neighbors.

MRS. WALLACE WHEELER of Georgia celebrated her husband's birthday recently with an Italian dinner for him and three other Detroit-area couples.

IT WAS THE 50th anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. James Coll of Buckingham but they celebrated with a lot of "firsts." She made her first night when they flew to New York and they both caught their first cold. He and Kruschew. A lot of theater-going was crowded into their special holiday, too; they saw "My Fair Lady," "The Music Man" and "The Best Man."

MR. AND MRS. Theodore DuCharme of Birwood entertained recently for their daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Knappe, who left to settle in Denver, Colo., as he received his degree in accounting from Michigan State university. Dinner guests were the families of their son, Edward DeCharme, and daughter, Mrs. Harry House, both of Flint plus their newest in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Knappe and son Don of St. Clair Shores.

MR. AND MRS. H. Earl Moore of Auburn drive returned last week from a vacation in the south. Mrs. Moore and the children spent two weeks with her parents in Asheville, N.C. before her husband joined them to spend two weeks with his parents in Nashville, Tenn.

MR. AND Mrs. Floyd L. Brough of Lecherie spent most of last week putting their ARC champion through her paces at the field trials held by the German short-haired pointer club of Michigan near Pontiac. Young John Brough spent the weekend with his friend Jeff Weston of Kirkshire so that he wouldn't have to miss the Little league football opener in his first season with the Boilermakers.

SOUTH BERKSHIRES—Mr. and Mrs. Nick Kolodica took advantage of early fall's warm weather to turn the monthly meeting of their missionary circle at the Russian Baptist church in Detroit into a winner's feast. About 30 church friends and relatives gathered round the grill in the Kolodica yard on Marimoor drive again early in September—the first at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Selwyn Asquith on Corydon drive. It was warm enough for a swim in the Asquith pool that night, but when the crowd gathered from today at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lokar on Plantation drive they'll concentrate on cards.

The group also includes the Robert and the Victor Zaites, all of Coryell, plus the Nelson V. Muradans of Embury drive and the Richard Priebe and Eugene Laakos of Buttonwood court.

VALLEY WOODS—Over on Smallwood, Mrs. Charles Anderson of Birmingham is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Gerald Joynt for two weeks.

MRS. WILLIAM F. KING of Bellvue trail entertained neighbors at a coffee recently to say goodbye to Mrs. Alfred W. Owens who moved to California.

WEST BEVERLY—We'll swear on a stack of Bodeckers (the tourist's bible) that the most European-traveled family in Beverly Hills is that of J. William Bader of Birwood. Mr. Bader returned recently from his fifth trip since the war. Mr. Bader was there on alternate duty, along with her daughter Heidi who was one of the Wayne State University students taking her junior year in Munich.

Mrs. Bader spent nine weeks there, first on a guided tour through Italy. She then covered 7,000 miles in a station wagon traveling through Austria, Switzerland (her husband's birthplace) and Germany where she was born.

HEIDI outdistanced her, however, visiting 20 countries on a two-month, mid-semester bicycle holiday with four other students.

Despite bicycle bother, they spent one day at the Yugoslavian border persuading customs that they weren't going to sell their bikes and language difficulties in Egypt forced them to load the bikes on the train themselves—they had a thrilling trip.

They made a forbidden climb up one of Egypt's tallest pyramids, swam or rather floated in the salty Dead sea, and were houseguests of an Egyptian family native family in Cairo. As an aftermath, she visited France, England and Scotland after school was over for the summer.

IN ORDER to give Mrs. Neil K. Barber of Bloomfield Hills plenty of time to pack the many travel items showed on her for her European tour she started Saturday. Mrs. James A. Fitzgerald of Birwood held a bon-voyage luncheon in her honor two weeks ago.

The guests were Mrs. Edna E. Conlon of Arlington, Mrs. Richard E. Garlick of Wing Lake, Mrs. Victor Brann and Mrs. Norman Mealey of Birmingham, Mrs. Charles S. Shaw of Bloomfield Hill and Mrs. Edwin Place of Royal Oak.

ANOTHER BEVERLY HILLS couple who braved New York that tension-packed week were Mr. and Mrs. Warren Whithead of Bedford road. They were five days in the city shopping and theater-going and three days at a bank convention in Atlantic City.

While in New York they entertained friends from Bronxville whom they met when they were Long Islanders. They also received an invitation to visit the Belgian estate of his mother who was also their dinner guest.

CRAIG BROWN of Norchester entered his freshman year at Purdue recently but the "chauffeur" trip his parents, Mrs. and Mr. Dean Brown, may not be the last by a long shot. After the Indiana is driving to Lafayette, Ind. the weekend of Nov. 4 to see how their son's school fares in the football game with dad's alma mater, Michigan State university.

A HOST OF West Beverly mothers entertained in their homes the past few weeks for the teachers at Beverly school. Mothers entertaining were, for Kindergarten, Mrs. H. D'Angelo with Mrs. M. Wainer on Lahar; Mrs. Paul Yoder with Mrs. R. Lakato on Hillcrest; Mrs. R. Cochran with Mrs. C. McGregor on Devonshire and at the school, Mrs. C. Hall and Mrs. R. Harriman.

For the first grades hostesses were Mrs. H. Anderson with Mrs. C. Layle on Riverside; Mrs. W. Dalahanty with Mrs. A. Hearne on Carlehill and Mrs. G. Binder with Mrs. D. Borgesson on Riverside.

FOR SECOND grades hostesses were Mrs. L. Boksa and Mrs. E. Walker (at the school); Mrs. J. Cochran and Mrs. W. McAlonan with Mrs. R. Sowder at her home and Mrs. G. Tarbis with Mrs. W. Pierce at her home.

For third grades teachers were entertained by Mrs. R. Wind and Mrs. G. Ball (at the school) and Mrs. Hoexter with Mrs. R. Pope on Bedford. For fourth grades Mrs. W. Chapin with Mrs. T. Full on Riverside and Mrs. R. Painter with Mrs. M. Marsh (at the school).

For fifth grades hostesses were Mrs. L. Rosemont with Mrs. C. Young on Leewood; Mrs. T. Jensen with Mrs. K. Jepson on Beechwood and Mrs. K. Hannah with Mrs. W. Caryl on Nixon. Sixth grade teachers were hosted by Mrs. J. Seybold with Mrs. S. Calley (at the school); Mrs. E. Stavelly with SOUTH BERKSHIRES—Three events for the youngsters starting with a picnic visit to the Ivory farms on Oct. 5 plus the annual dinner dance Nov. 19 at Sylvan Glen for the adults, were organized at the first board meeting of the South Berkshire women's association held recently at the Lahar road home of president Mrs. Maurice B. Weiner.

Mrs. Nihon V. Murdian of Embury drive was appointed vice president in charge of youth activities to succeed Mrs. Arthur (at the school); Mrs. E. Stavelly with

The trip to the Ivory farms next Saturday afternoon includes a picnic lunch, a fire-engine ride into Commerce, pony rides and a trip in the gaily-decorated pony cart for the 50 youngsters expected to attend. Halloween and Christmas parties are also scheduled, Mrs. Muradian announced.

PLANS CALL for the youngsters to parade their Halloween costumes through the area, led by the Detroit Edison calliope and returning to the Northmore road home of Frank Lewandowski for refreshments. The Christmas party is planned for Dec. 10. Annual dinner dance arrangements are being made by Mrs. Arthur Foley of Vernon drive.
