WNFGA Speaker To Discuss Plant Therapy

FRANKLIN — Mrs. Louis Colombo, Jr., vice president of the Foundation for emotionally disturbed children, presently working with youth at the Pontiac State hospital, will be the guest speaker for the Oct. 10 meeting of the Franklin branch of the Woman's national farm and garden association.

Following a noon luncheon at the Franklin Community church, Mrs. Colombo will speak on "Horticultural Therapy."

Among the members who have spent at least one full day a week for several years in this project are Mrs. Donald Tracy and Mrs. Robert Swift.

Serving the luncheon Monday will be Mrs. P. D. Wright, Mrs. J. Becker, Mrs. John Ambrose, Mrs. R. E. Shepper, Mrs. Thomas Adams and Mrs. Walter Dreyer.

Newcomers Welcome At WSCS Luncheon At Franklin Church

FRANKLIN — A Newcomers luncheon will be held Oct. 11 at the Franklin Community church under the auspices of the Woman's Society of Christian service.

New residents in the area are invited to attend. The affair will start at 12:15 p.m. in the church social hall.

Mildred Wood, chairman of the day, urges all WSCS members to bring a pot-luck dish and their own hostess. Mrs. J. C. Goff, 5600 E. Millarway, program is the Mayor. The club extends an invitation to women in the area to join them for the session.

Cider-Sippers Sample Fruity Fall Fluid

FRANKLIN—What Capistrano is to the swallows, Franklin is to cider-sippers. Thousands clogged village roads during the past weekend in the annual pilgrimage to the area's dual attraction.

Both the Franklin cider mill and Pickering's farm worked overtime, as long lines of the devout streamed through their doors.

It's a sure sign of fall.

Mr. Gordon Titworth of Rosemond court has agreed to take the blue-birds, who will be "flying up" this month. She is another mother will volunteer to work with the dozen or more older girls who have found the program so interesting.

The Ben Harris' dropped everything last weekend to rally the clan for a welcome party to honor the brother, Gordon, just finished a year's stint for the Air Force as a weather expert in Iceland. He visited Franklin enroute to his home in Okla.

Stewart Robertson, oldest son of the John Robertsons of Ovid drive, leaves for the Great Lakes naval training center Oct. 5. He enlisted in the Navy and will serve four years.

The Franklin garden club meets tonight at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Brehm on Evelyn avenue. Every member will be asked to participate in the program, relating outstanding occurrences of the past summer's gardening.

Discarded, wearable clothing will be gathered during the next two weeks at the Franklin community church for distribution to the children of the Farmington children's hospital and other needy. Mrs. Edward Green and Mrs. Donald Tracy are in charge of the ingathering.

Members of the Commission on missions and the Christian social concerns commission will assist in preparing garments brought in before Oct. 15.

The avant garde of a scintillating new cultural series, open to women of the area, are Franklin's Mrs. Donald Hogue of Romney road and Mrs. Ross Plevens and Mrs. William Weightman of Wood Creek Farms.

They are enthusiastically promoting the 1960-61 Pontiac-Oakland town hall series which has planned five interesting Wednesday evenings at the Oakland theatre in Pontiac.

The series includes Flamenco guitarist, Carlos Montoya and his flamenco-dancing wife, Virantia, who open the season Oct. 18. Gen. Carlos F. Roumlo, ambassador to the United States and president of the fourth general assembly of the United Nations will speak Nov. 9 and author, editor and publisher Harry Golden is due Jan. 8.

Maggie Daly as her charming fashion tips are scheduled for Feb. 8 and "The World of Gill Wang" will conclude the series on March 8. Subscriptions are available from Mesdames Hogue, Plevens and Weightman.

Franklin village players have chosen "The Gazebo," a light-hearted mystery comedy for their December show. Tentative plans are to present the play at the Farmington players barn on 12 Mile road.

Auxiliary to Meet

FRANKLIN — A white elephant sale will be held following the pot-luck luncheon and business meeting of the Franklin cemetery auxiliary Oct. 13 at 1:00 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Kenneth Bristol, 26265 W. 14 Mile road.

Silver Celebration

Mr. and Mrs. James M. Gilmer of Wellington drive, Franklin, celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary by entertaining 150 close friends at a dinner and dancing party at the DAC Tuesday.

'Winterizing' Set For Main Drags In Beverly Hills

BEVERLY HILLS — Grading and a coating of gravel are scheduled in about three weeks to "winterize" Pierce, Beverly, Evergreen and 14 Mile roads, according to Beverly Hills road commission. Walter Kouba and Councilman Lon J. Linsenmeyer.

The men asked that any residents along 13 Mile notify city officials with conditions left off dissatisfied with the Evergreen intersection.

Buses carrying pupils to Groves junior-senior high school have a roaded along 13 Mile road in preparation of its "spring-breaking" condition. The grading and regaveling from 13 to 14 Mile are expected to put the road in condition for the buses once more.

Milner was the only signer on the original bill of complaint. Attorney Orland Ellis, representing Franklin Community association in the case, predicts it will be at least six months before the case can be heard in circuit court. Crowded court dockets are expected to prevent an earlier trial.

Women to Hear Tape

BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP — The Bloomfield Republican women's club meets Monday at 10 a.m. at the home of Mrs. Robert Eoff, 5600 E. Millarway. Program is the Mayor. The club extends an invitation to women in the area to join them for the session.
