

Brown-Koenig Married In Presbyterian Church

Karen Helen Koenig and Douglas Burr Brown exchanged vows Saturday afternoon in the First Presbyterian church. Dr. Glen Harris performed the 3 o'clock ceremony.

Parents of the newweds are Mr. and Mrs. Howard Koenig of Mayfair lane, Birmingham, and Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Brown of Royal Oak.

KATHE KOENIG, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Beth Ellen Koenig, sister of the bride; Mrs. Robert W. McIntosh, sister of the bridegroom; Linda Henning, Christie Bliss and Angie Iannelli.

William Herrick stood as best man and ushers were Robert McIntosh, Richard Kost, Thomas Platten, Robert Herrick and Pat Hansen.

The bride's dress was white silk taffeta with a sabbina necktie and chapel train trimmed in alienor lace applique and pearls. A headpiece of white silk taffeta accented with lace applique and pearls secured her veil. She carried a bouquet of ivy and stephanotis.

MRS. DOUGLAS B. BROWN

Mother of the bride chose a grape satin dress and the bridegroom's mother selected an orchid dress in pearl do size. Both wore pinned corsages of white mums and roses.

FOR TRAVELING, the bride chose a black and gray trimmed black velvet with red and black accessories. They will live in Ann Arbor where they are both students at the University of Michigan.

Birmingham - Bloomfield Hills Society Notes

If mother had only made me practice the bassoon!

The reason we're thinking in this vein is because of our recent conversation with Mrs. Robert Hay. She told us of the upcoming season for the Detroit women's symphony.

Three concerts are scheduled this year under the sponsorship of the Tuesday musical, Dec. 2, Feb. 10 and April 14. The girls meet once a week to practice and this year two area women are featured, Mrs. Neva Fossenkemper of Vine-wood and Mrs. Walton E. Cole of Sugar Spring road, violin and viola respectively.

The ladies are delighted with their director this year, Orin Daley of the University of Michigan faculty who studied under Jean Sibelius in Finland and has been conductor of the honors orchestra at Interlochen. The concert will be held at Wayne's new community arts building.

The members of the Bloomfield Hills branch of the women's national garden and garden association threw away their calorie books last Monday night.

Knowing well that men like something much more substantial than granny Zane's fluff chiffon (you know, the one with chocolate raisins and raspberry dipped marshmallows served over ice red) the women ordered huge roasts of beef for their annual 'meat's night'.

Talented husbands were invited to carve and among them we saw James Longwell, Al Clark and Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Candler, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Richards, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Katke, Mrs. George Dixon, Mrs. R. A. Taggart, Mrs. E. M. Roberts, Mrs. Nelson Miles and Mrs. Fred A. Henry Jr.

Club Gets Jump On Yule Decorating

While we are on the subject of our garden clubbers, the Birmingham branch of the national farm and garden association got the jump on holiday decorating last week with their workshop at the community house.

Mrs. John Knight Jr. discussed and demonstrated plans for "holiday enchantment" and among those already making plans on busy decks their halls were Mrs. Phil DeBeauvoir, Mrs. Alvin H. Knorr, Mrs. Marvin Katke, Mrs. George Dixon, Mrs. R. A. Taggart, Mrs. E. M. Roberts, Mrs. Nelson Miles and Mrs. Fred A. Henry Jr.

Guests Entertained

Mr. and Mrs. Steve Booth entertained at dinner last week. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Francis Loud, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry McMechan, Mr. and Mrs. Garvin Woodard, Mrs. Weeelan Wright and Mrs. Marion Crocker.

Alums' Opening Meet

The University of Michigan women alumnae held their opening meeting at the home of Mrs. Marcus Cunningham on Brady lane in Bloomfield Hills. We saw Mrs. Russel Heyl, Mrs. Robert Porter, Mrs. Luther Leader, Mrs. Carl Abbott, Mrs. G. T. Christianson, Mrs. Russell Strickland, Mrs. Guy Pitts, Mrs. Robert Kintworth and Mrs. Shirley MacQueen.

Show Goes Attend Midnight Supper

Last night was an elegant night for the Emma Willard alumnae association. They saw Jane Fonda (an E.W. girl) in a new comedy "Invitation to a March" which is at the Century for a pre-Broadway tryout, then went on to the Detroit club for a midnight supper where the guest of honor was, naturally, Miss Fonda.

Attending from this area were the Edward Rothman's and Lydia.

John Poole and daughter Cathy, Mr. and Mrs. Doris Lovett, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Winston, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Soelham, Mr. and Mrs. Clement Peurouse, Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Butler, and Mr. and Mrs. Elliott Kinney.

Rummage Sale Gets Underway

Mrs. Ed. Bennett and Mrs. G. R. Squibb have their hands full these days. They are co-chairman of the Christ Church rummage sale (which we have been told is the second largest rummage sale in the United States—this year the auxiliary hopes to move into number one position).

The church is beginning to bulge already with members bringing in their goodies in a steady stream and to whip up even more enthusiasm they presented a style show of handsome rummage clothes at their open house last week. Among members modeling were Mrs. T. Dickson, Mrs. Henry Woolfenden, Mrs. C. R. Weir, Mrs. W. A. Adams and Mrs. F. S. Strong III.

Couple Honored

Mr and Mrs. J. E. Quirk honored Mrs. Jean Steding and Maurice Smith Jr. whose wedding takes place the end of November, at a dinner last week. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. John Warner, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Bretzlaff, Mr. and Mrs. Hank Hendrick, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Weedon and Mr. and Mrs. N. O. Wynkoop.

To Start Trooping

The talented junior league strolling players will open their season Oct. 24. They will present "The Foxy Foxes" (written by our favorite local author, Jerry McMechan) to all the Birmingham elementary schools. This year's cast includes Mrs. David Raymond, Mrs. Franklin Butler, Mrs. Fred Baber, Mrs. Otis Thompson, Mrs. John Armstrong and Mrs. Everett Fisher.

Needlework Guild Seeks New Members

Can you sew a fine seam? Well even if you can't the Needlework Guild needs you. This is membership week and directors are seeking new members who will donate two new items (one to wear, one to wash) before the October 19 ingathering.

Among the many new directors this fall are Mrs. Charl Pearson, Mrs. Edward A. Proctor Jr., Mrs. Bruce Smith, Mrs. David Aubrey, Mrs. I. Miller, Mrs. Albert Remington, Mrs. Harold Hickman, Mrs. Donald Kipp, Mrs. Lowell Sarnes, Mrs. Paul Hoffman Jr., Mrs. Prescott Jordan, Mrs. Donald L. Lauder, Mrs. William M. Mary, Mrs. Robert Knight, Mrs. Mathew McLaughlin and Mrs. Robert A. Cole.

Bazaar to Benefit Lapeer State Home

Retarded children at Lapeer State Home and Training school will benefit from proceeds of the annual bazaar and harvest festival sponsored by the Lapeer Parents association Oct. 15.

The bazaar will be an all-day event, 10 a.m. to 6 p.m., at St. Joseph Episcopal church, Woodward at Holbrook, Detroit. Luncheon will be served from 11 a.m. until 2 p.m. and dinner from 5 to 8 p.m.

Committee members from the Birmingham area include Harold Bergum, 7880 W. Greenwich drive and Mrs. Sheldon Marston, 1870 Webster.

All proceeds will be used to furnish recreational, educational and occupational therapy facilities, which the state does not provide, for the 4,000 children at Lapeer Home, as well as to provide funds for existing programs and other services for the mentally retarded and handicapped.
