

Oakland Town Hall Series Start Oct. 18

The Pontiac-Oakland Town Hall Series will present a variety of charm and enlightenment to its subscribers for the 1960-61 season. Five well-balanced programs will be featured on Wednesday mornings at 10:30 at the Oakland theater, Pontiac.

Representatives from the Birmingham area include Mrs. E. M. Bates of Waddington road and Mrs. Martin Rummel of Lyonhurst. Ticket chairman is Mrs. Cecil McCullum of Cherokee road, Pontiac.

FLAMENCO guitarist Carlos Montoya opens the season on Oct. 18. Sharing the spotlight is his wife, Trianita, a talented dancer. They are from Madrid, Spain.

On Nov. 9, General Carlos F. Romulo, Ambassador from the Philippines, will speak on "America's Stake in Asia."

Famous writer, editor and publisher, Harry Golden, author of "Only in America" will be the speaker on Jan. 18.

MAGGIE DALY will bring her Irish wit and charm to anecdotes of her experiences as fashion commentator and model, along with helpful tips on d fashion, in "Out of my Hatbox" on Feb. 3.

On March 8, "The World of Gill Wang" will conclude the series. The world created by this tiny Chinese pantomimist is full of a variety of original humor and satire of universal appeal.

The lectures will be followed by celebrity luncheons featuring a question and answer period.

You will find many bargains in The Eccentric Classified Columns.

MRS. ALBERT H. SPUNG Vows Heard In Catholic Ceremony

Sheila Marie McGinnis became the bride of Albert Harvey Spung Saturday morning at St. Hugo of the Hills church. The Rev. Francis Stack performed the 11 o'clock ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Joseph McGinnis of Crestlake drive, Birmingham. Her husband is the son of Mrs. Lyman Spung of Columbus, Ohio, and the late Mr. Spung.

THE BRIDE wore a gown fashioned of white bouquet taffeta designed with a round neckline, long tapering sleeves and a bell-shaped skirt with a chapel train. Trimmed with alston, lace, a Swedish crown secured her silk illusion veil. She carried white roses.

Maid of honor was Maureen McGinnis, sister of the bride, and Mary Ann Coyle was bridesmaid. They appeared in coffee chiffon dresses.

ROBERT L. Spung stood as best man and ushers were Charles Zipfel, Thomas Flynn, Robert Brown and Robert Urquhart.

Breakfast followed the ceremony at Bloomfield Hills country club.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. McGinnis chose a pink brown taffeta dress and the bridegroom's mother selected a Dior blue taffeta dress.

MRS. DANIEL DICKINSON Former Resident Weds in Texas

Lois Jean Geisler wore a chantilly lace gown for her September marriage to Daniel Bond Dickinson. Vows were heard in St. Anna Catholic church at 3 o'clock.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Geisler of Midland, Tex., formerly of Birmingham. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Dickinson of Hillsboro, Tex.

THE BRIDE'S gown featured a sabbina neckline trimmed with sequins and pearls, long tapering sleeves and fitted bodice. A half hat of chantilly lace secured her silk illusion veil.

Sandra Hutnell was maid of honor and bridesmaids were Mrs. F. E. Green and Reba Foster. Attendants dresses were of silk organza over taffeta in shades of teal blue.

Assisting the bridegroom were Ronald Fraley, Gerald Geisler, John Curry, Ken Byrne, Billy Diddle and Bill Little.

FOR HER daughter's wedding, Mrs. Geisler was dressed in an autumn brown lace dress.

The bridegroom's mother chose a royal blue and black dress with matching accessories.

For her wedding trip to Colorado, the bride wore an avocado green wool suit with black accessories.
