Susan Van Hook Marries Robert H. Cunningham

Christ Church Cranbrook was the scene Saturday afternoon for the marriage of Susan Van Hook to Robert H. Cunningham. The Rev. Lester L. Dobyns performed the 2 o'clock ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James K. Van Hook of Sunnydale road, Bloomfield Village. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Cunningham of East Liverpool, Ohio.

MRS. R. H. CUNNINGHAM

SUSAN appeared in a Bianchi crown of bouquet taffeta. The princess style bodice flowed into a graceful bell-shaped skirt with a chapel train lightly sweeping the floor. The scoop neckline was accented by delicate pearl beading and an obi sash with small roses cascading from the waist featured the back of the gown.

A rose covered shell secured her fingertip veil of French silk illusion. The bridal bouquet was a semi-cascade of white roses and stephanotis with a white orchid center.

MARY KAY Sherwood, maid of honor, wore a plum colored de-lustered satin gown with a matching headpiece. Her flowers were rubrum lilies and tiny orchid pom-poms.

Jay Lott stood as best man and seating the guests were James Van Hook, William DeKaan, William Cunningham, and George Cunningham.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at Forest Lake country club.

THE BRIDE'S traveling attire was a gray stripe sheath with black satin trim. They will honeymoon in Florida.

Mother of the bride chose a powder-blue alencon lace and chiffon dress, with matching accessories. Mrs. Cunningham selected a beige chiffon sheath with moss green accessories.

Artists to Exhibit Work in Birmingham

The Little Gallery opened its winter season of exhibitions Tuesday. Three artists will be featured in two separate and distinctive exhibits, completely different in media, approach and background.

The Metal sculpture of Morris Brose is comprised of 21 pieces of bronze or iron representative of his work during the past five years. He has been represented in 21 major exhibits and has received seven awards.

ESTHER Gilman has achieved proficiency in dance, ceramics and graphics as well as painting. Born in Cleveland, she has lived and studied in New York City where she has exhibited in many of the galleries.

Mary Wescher, a New Yorker by birth, has lived most of her adult life in the heart of California. Born of a theatrical family, she managed between roles in the theater and motion pictures to study at Art Students League but after marriage confined her interest to collecting rather than to painting.

IN RECENT years she has returned to her first love, the paint brushes and has produced the oil series which was shown in Los Angeles just prior to this exhibit. The exhibition will continue at Little Gallery, 915 E. Maple, Birmingham, through Oct. 29. Gallery hours are 12 to 6 p.m., Tuesday through Saturday.

Derby Junior High PTA has arranged a special meeting for parents of eighth grade students to be held Thursday, Oct. 13 at 8 p.m. in the cafeteria at the school.

"Group Testing" will be the subject of discussion. Robert Ford, principal, will speak briefly and Mrs. Geraldine Rue, eighth grade counselor, will explain the testing program. She will tell why students are tested, how results are used, what tests tell teachers and how parents can become acquainted with results of tests.

Refreshments will be served.

The more than 250 parents who attended the meeting for seventh grade parents at Derby on Thursday, Oct. 6 were introduced to the principal and seventh grade home room teachers.

They also heard a panel discussion of various aspects of life at the school. On the panel were Hans Jens, seventh grade counselor; Bud Keller, director of student activities and Stanley Elyan, assistant principal.
