

AOPI Alums Plan MDA Work Project

The North Suburban alumnae chapter of Alpha Omicron Pi will meet Oct. 18 at the home of Mrs. Carl Holdampf, 512 W. Sunnybrook, Royal Oak, at 8:15 p.m. for their annual work project for muscular dystrophy.

Each fall the chapter devotes one evening to prepare the canvassing kits for the Oakland county muscular dystrophy drive.

Plans will also be made for a telephone bridge party which will be held in November to raise funds for the muscular dystrophy project. Mrs. James Sterling of Northville will be assistant hostess.

Fathers Honored

Monday will be Fathers' night at Baldwin school. Guest speaker will be John Sterling, president of the Big Brother organization of Oakland county. He will give a talk on "What It Means to be a Big Brother." Mr. Sterling is vice president of Cresmer and Woodward, Inc.

Newlywed R. P. Knopfs Honeymooning in Mexico

Barbara Jean Cope and Capt. Robert Philip Knopf were united in marriage Saturday afternoon at the Chapel-Wright-Patterson Air Force Base, Ohio. The double-ring ceremony was performed in the presence of 250 guests.

MRS. ROBERT P. KNOPF

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Henry Cope, 19810 Warwick road, Birmingham. Her husband is the son of Mrs. Robert G. Knopf of New York and the late Mr. Knopf.

THE BRIDE wore a princess style gown of white cloud satin. The scoop neckline and empire bodice was encircled with rose patterned ivory a lencon lace re-embroidered with sunburst of seed pearls and the wind swept skirt fell to the wide chapel length train.

Her veil was imported illusion in elbow length of three tiers caught in a satin pillbox. She carried a cascade of lilies, stephanotis and variegated ivy foliage.

SUE JANE Dennis served as the bride's maid of honor and bridesmaids were Nancy and Ann Cope, twin sisters of the bride; and Mrs. John McShane, sister of the bridegroom.

They appeared in spruce green velvet street length gowns designed with a fitted bodice, round neckline and short cap sleeves. Matching headpieces in ribbon with ivy foliage complemented their gowns. They carried bouquets of Fuji mums and variegated ivy foliage.

John McShane stood as best man and seating the guests were Paul Lanke, Roger Brislaw and A. Harold McKay.

THE BRIDES' mother was attended in a grape purple satin sheath with matching accessories and a spray of lavender orchids covered her purse.

Mother of the bridegroom selected a lavender taffeta re-embroidered and lace dress with a cluster of deep lavender spray orchids.

The new Mrs. Knopf wore a burgundy red wool suit with a matching velvet pillbox hat for her wedding trip to Acapulco, Mexico. The young couple will live in Dayton, Ohio.
