Parties Fete Navy Man On Three-Week Leave

BLOOMFIELD NORTH — BLOOMFIELD HEIGHTS — Visiting the Eino Nurmes of Cedar Lane drive is Mrs. Nurme's son, Dennis W. Wright, who arrived Oct. 1 for a three-week leave following graduation from Electronics school in San Diego.

His many friends are keeping him busy with parties before he returns to duty in North Carolina. Ken Wood, son of Dr. and Mrs. Kenneth Wood of Lone Pine Village, has planned a get-together for Dennis on Oct. 16. Ken and Dennis attended Culver Military together.

LONE PINE VILLAGE — Mr. and Mrs. William Walton of Cran drive were hosts at an all-day family get-together recently when Mrs. Walton's sister, Mrs. John A. Fenington, came from California to visit. Last weekend, the Walton family joined three other families to spend the weekend at a cabin in Alpena.

WESTWOOD MANOR — Visiting Mr. and Mrs. Ed Pappert of Kolly road are her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. Carl Brine of Pittsburgh. The Pappert's daughter, Margie celebrated her 11th birthday Thursday with a dinner party for 12 classmates.

Mr. and Mrs. Pappert left on Friday to attend a reunion of former Navy pilots in Chicago. It was the first reunion in 15 years of the air group who were aboard the aircraft carrier Essex during World War II.

FOX CROFT — Indian Guides in the Dakota tribe recently spent a whole day traveling Indian style on the Huron river. The boys and their dads paddled nine canoes all day with only one mishap, which the boys considered the most exciting thing that happened on the trip.

Hud Rankin and his son, Tommy tipped over and fell in the river and the boys had a glorious time rescuing the Rankins and all their floating equipment. Tommy was so thrilled with his adventure that he could hardly wait to get home with a full report to family and friends.

BLOOMFIELD VILLAGE — Coming home from Duke university last weekend for the Duke-University of Michigan game was Mary Gibbs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Slater of N. Williamsbury. Mary and her houseguest, Libby Daniels of North Carolina, arrived Thursday night, then left for Ann Arbor on Friday. They spent the weekend with Carol Green and Carol Bain, both of Bloomfield Village.

Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Staeger of Covington place recently enjoyed a week in Philadelphia and New York. They went to Philadelphia to attend a convention, then extended the trip on the spur of the moment to spend a few days in New York.

Bloomfield Village School PTA Fair To Have Snake Show

BLOOMFIELD VILLAGE — The annual Bloomfield Village school fair, sponsored by the PTA as its only money-raising project, will be held from 4:30 to 8:30 p.m. Oct. 28 in the school and on the grounds. Mrs. William C. Schnackel, fair chairman, and her assistant Mrs. Keith McKenny, have arranged for the "Snakes Alive" exhibit of Paul Allen, Sr., Clarkston herpetologist, and an eight-seater merry-go-round will be located on the school ground near a group of ponies, which children may ride.

Allen's alligator and snakes will be on view in one of the schoolrooms. Other rooms will house variety counters, snack bars, the traditional "Cake Walk" and games for children of all ages. Prizes are being planned by Mrs. Kurt Hoffman.

Junior High PTO To Hold Open House

BLOOMFIELD HILLS — The PTO of Bloomfield Hills junior high school will hold its first meeting Monday, Oct. 17. Coffee will be served in the cafeteria from 7:30 until 8 p.m. Parents will then attend an abbreviated version of a junior high school day. They will be given a schedule of their child's daily class schedule and a map of the building. Periods will be shortened to eight minutes, to allow parents time to meet the teachers and discuss operations.

Association Plans Square Dance Soon Girl Scout Troop Started at Conant

WING LAKE — The Wing Lake Farms association will hold its annual square dance Friday, Nov. 4 at 8 p.m. at the Bloomfield Hills junior high school, Quarteron at Wing Lake road. The dance will continue until 11:30 p.m.

Callers will be Art and Elma Irwin. Tickets will be available at the door. For further information, those interested may call Edward Schenning, 4570 Ottawa lane, Wing Lake.

BLOOMFIELD NORTH — Girl Scout troop 966 has been organized for fifth and sixth grade girls at Conant school. Their first meeting was held on Tuesday, Mrs. Ed Pappert, leader of the troop, held a mothers meeting last week at her home on Kolly road. Her co-leader is Mrs. F. O. Gadd. There are 15 girls in troop 966.
