Dine Under Canopies
To Fete Dual Events

SOUTH BERKSHIRES — Four hundred guests drank champagne toasts to two happy events at Wendbrook and 13 Mile recently. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Goliboch celebrated his birthday, and the engagement of their son, William, to Gail Rasor of Detroit at a dinner served under canopies on the lawn.

And down the road apiece, teenagers had a big "blast" at Pete Young's on Leemoor. Co-hosts of the platter party were Terry Sanders of Coryell, Dale Piechocki of Woodharen lane and Dave Kenna of Hillcrest.

Their guests were Donna Drott of Southfield, Janet Habre of Birmingham, Linda Wood of Marimoor, Jarl Anderson of West 13 Mile, Tom Poirier of Stellaanar, Suzanne Young of Leemoor, Marianne Seyfried of Bloomfield, Elaine Donaldson of Southfield, John Brewer of Riverside, and Franklins Judy Greenleaf, Joanne Kelsey and Bob Szynkie.

Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Foley of Vernon drive returned last week from a month's vacation in which they covered over 8,000 miles. They waded west on the northern route and after hitting the high spots in California, returned via the Mojave desert and Utah's salt flats. The Foleys reported it was so dry that even the 4,000-foot Yosemite falls trickled to a halt.

Even her ninth trip to Europe had Mrs. Robert J. Bouwman excited, she admitted as she prepared to jet to Scotland last week. A car awaits the Leemoor matron there, for she plans to spend all three weeks, this time, motoring through the highlands and visiting Edinburgh relatives.

Mrs. Melvin Groves of Southmead was hostess at a bridge luncheon recently for Mrs. A. E. Pfister, Mrs. Richard Esler and Mrs. T. Mueller of Southfield.

And just last weekend the assistant director of Junior Federated Women's Clubs of Michigan had three houseguests who were here to attend their fall convention; Mrs. Earle Dahlquist of Manistee, Mrs. Fridolph Johnson of Big Rapids and Mrs. Howard White of Wellston.

VALLEY WOODS — Mr. and Mrs. Russell Schaaf of Eastlady entertained recently when her brother Robert, with his new bride from California, paid his first visit here in five years. Prior to a two-month wedding trip to Europe, the couple is staying with the William Schaafs of Detroit, who were guests at the dinner. Their daughter's family from Lansing were dinner guests also.

Two local boys went through Holl week (freshman hazing time at Lawrence Tech) and emerged with top class offices. Jim Ford of Bloomfield was elected freshman class proxy and Nick Tomi of Smallwood, vice president.

THE BEVERLYS — Mr. and Mrs. Grover W. Brown of East Rutland have just returned from two weeks in the south where they co-hosted a reception for 400 in Bluedrid, Va.. The event honored her sister's golden wedding, and a dinner celebrating her sister's silver anniversary. Before returning, they visited their son, Guy, at the Charleston, S. C. naval base where he is stationed.

Did anyone see that couple at the game between the two Michigans, cheering EVERY touchdown? They weren't confused, just impartial, explained Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Al-guests from Grand Rapids have daughters at each university.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Storck of Mayfair lane, had as a houseguest this past week, Mr. H. Douglas Browne of Glamorgan, England.

Two Sundays ago, Mrs. Willard J. White was hostess in her Hillcrest home for a tea honoring new University of Detroit faculty wives. Pouring for the 75 guests were past Faculty - wives' club presidents: Mrs. Tom Hanson of Bloomfield Hills, Mrs. Burt Blacklee, Mrs. Lloyd Fitzgerald, Mrs. Ralph Treece, Mrs. J. McClellan, Mrs. William Joyce and Mrs. Edward Szczepniak, all of Detroit.

Receiving with Mrs. White, were her husband of the U. of D. dental school and Mrs. Lawrence Britt, Celestin Steiner and Joseph Foley of the U. of D.

Trout fishing gained two out-of-season fans when Mr. and Mrs. Joseph W. Agerson of Beverly road weekendend near Grayling. Their host has started his own fish hatchery to stock the artificial lakes he is dredging. They also enjoyed canoeing on the Manistee river. (See EVENTS, 5-E)
