Couple Repeats Vows In Evening Ceremony

Judith Ann Schmidt was given in marriage by her father to William Lewis Allen Jr., at a candlelight ceremony Saturday evening at Magnolia Evangelical United Brethren church. Officiating at the double ring ceremony was the Rev. Richard Campbell.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Schmidt of Royal Oak. The bridegroom is the son of the senior Allens of Lahser road, Birmingham.

THE BRIDE chose a princess style gown of imported French satin featuring a V-neckline outlined with re-embroidered alencon lace and appliques of matching lace accented the skirt.

A matching lace crown secured her three tier veil. She carried a crested bouquet of white rose buds, ivy and stephanotis centered with a white orchid.

Patricia Benker, maid of honor, was attired in emerald green taffeta and carried a cascade bouquet of gold pom pom mums. Bridesmaids were Judy Simons, Sally Smith and Karen Burks. They appeared in kelly green dresses and carried cascade bouquets of bronze pom pom mums.

JACQUELINE Smith, junior bridesmaid, wore a gown in Nile green and she carried a colonial bouquet of rust pom pom mums. All the attendants wore bow headpieces with shoulder length veils and elbow mitts matching their dress.

The bridegroom's best man was Gerald Beck. Seating the guests were Charles Rankin, Eric Henderson and John Hoolehan.

Mrs. Schmidt chose a mint green lace dress over taffeta in the same pattern as that of the bride with matching accessories and pinned a bronze orchid to her shoulder.

MRS. ALLEN wore a pale chartreuse silk dress with matching accessories and a green orchid.

A reception followed at the Royal Oak Woman's club, after which the bride donned a beige wool sheath dress for a honeymoon trip to New York. The young couple will reside in Royal Oak.
