Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Norton Receive Papal Blessing

Bethanie Ann Boss and John McEvoy Norton were united in marriage Saturday. A Papal Blessing was bestowed upon the couple at a double ring ceremony by the Rev. Celestin J. Steiner in St. Monica's church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin W. Boss of Detroit. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis S. Norton of Birmingham.

MRS. JOHN McEVOY NORTON

FOR HER marriage the bride chose a classic Edwardian styled gown of bouquet taffeta. The molded bodice was fashioned with a portrait neckline accented by swirls of seed pearling. The bell-shaped skirt, which formed a chapel train, curved down over a wide panel in the front from a tiny Dior bow at the waistline.

A fingertip veil of French illusion was held by a cluster of orange blossoms at the crown of a Juliet shell. She carried a cluster of white orchids in a cascade of stephanotis.

MATRON OF honor, Mrs. Henry Norton, and bridesmaids Mrs. John Cinnamon, Lynne Young, Roberta Brickley, Mrs. Frank Norton and Donna Boss were attired in identical gowns of fern green silk organza.

The dresses were fashioned with shallow scooped necklines, tiny cap sleeves and princess waistlines. Their matching bandeaux had clusters of leaves at each temple.

The matron of honor carried a bouquet of bronze and rust fuchsias, clustered in wheat and gold foliage. The bridesmaids' bouquets were identical, touched with bitersweet.

THE BRIDEGROOM'S brother, Henry Norton, was best man. Spating the guests were another brother, Frank Norton, William Rove, John Lassaline, Benjamin Clark and William Cline.

For her daughter's wedding and reception at Meadowbrook country club, Mrs. Boss chose a gown of gold and toast brocade with matching accessories. Her flowers were bronze cymbidium orchids.

Mrs. Norton's gown was of emerald green brocade and her accessories were matching and she carried white orchids.

A MOSS GREEN wool suit with matching accessories was the going away outfit of the bride. Following their wedding trip to Sea Island, Ga., the couple will return to their new home in Farmington.
