Social Engraving

HALLMARK OF EXCELLENCE IN CORRECTNESS AND GOOD TASTE

THERE are some things in life for which there is no adequate substitute. One of these is genuine engraving. It is the hallmark of true distinction in social communications.

Announcements, Invitations, Personal Cards, Stationeries — here in La Belles Stationery Division you will find correct engraving styles for each; a comprehensive selection of fine papers which, moreover, will make yours truly individual!

Miss Besse Cooper, formerly with Wright Kay, in their engraving department, is now in charge of our engraving department, and will be happy to serve you.

MRS. LELAND S. EVANS Evans, Hudson Exchange Vows In Franklin

Nancy Jane Hudson and Leland Stanford Evans were united in marriage Saturday afternoon at Franklin Community church. The single ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Hugh Clifford White in the presence of 300 guests.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Scott Hudson of Pleasant avenue, Birmingham and Dr. and Mrs. L. S. Evans.

THE BRIDE appeared in a bouquet taffeta floor length gown designed with a sashina neckline, long tapering sleeves and fitted bodice. A seed pearl crown secured her silk illusion veil.

Mary Hudson served as honor attendant and bridesmaids were Elaine Hudson, Janet Pay and Janet Wagner. They wore emerald green satin gowns with matching headpieces and carried cascades of ivy and lemon spider mums.

RUSSELL Levette stood as best man and ushers were Wayne Breen, Donald Breen, Wilbur Gantz, Richard Glenn and Dale Sumner.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Hudson chose a champagne brocade afternoon suit with matching accessories. The bridegroom's mother selected a silk brocade in shades of blue. Both mothers had symbidium orchids.

Following the 3:30 o'clock ceremony, guests were greeted at Oakland Hills country club for a reception.

Life Membership Awarded To B'ham Musicale Member

In a surprise ceremony at Birmingham Musicale's opening meeting last Thursday at the Community house, Mrs. I. W. Robertson was awarded a life membership in the club for her many years of service.

She joined the Musicale in 1939 and sang in the chorus continuously until 1958. She served as the club's recording secretary from 1941-49 and in 1947 became the treasurer until 1949. Mrs. Robertson was elected president of the Birmingham Musicale from 1949-51.

OUTSIDE of the Musicale, Mrs. Robertson was chairman of the Community concert membership last presidents' assembly, a position she still holds.

LIFE MEMBERS attending the ceremony included Messrs. Arnold Berndt, Herbert Gardner, Edwin Greer, Norman Lyle, Besse McMechan, Earl Potter, W. W. Raymond and D. L. Tate.
