

Comedy Appropriate To Election Season

St. Dunstan's Players are presenting a comedy, "The Girls in 509" at the Playhouse on Lone Pine road, Oct. 28, 29 and Nov. 3, 4 and 5.

The play involves the separate efforts of the national chairman of the two major political parties to woo the girls to support publicly their particular party. The struggle of these two esteemed politicians make for a very funny "great debate."

STARRING in the title roles, as "The Girls in 509" will follow the tradition of formal Broadway openings, in that the first night audience will be gaily attired in formal gowns, tuxedos, white tie and professional debut at the age of tails.

OPENING NIGHT performance of "The Girls in 509" will follow the tradition of formal Broadway openings, in that the first night audience will be gaily attired in formal gowns, tuxedos, white tie and professional debut at the age of tails.

Why not enjoy the fun and merriment of Halloween for more than one evening. What better time to be taking pictures. For a complete selection of flash bulbs, film, etc., stop in today.

Calling All Delta Zetas

Mrs. Forbes Hascall (left), 668 Oakland, Birmingham, president of the Oakland county Delta Zeta alumnae; Mrs. Frank Oakes, president of the metropolitan Detroit alumnae and Mrs. Leo Blazok of the downriver hostess group, in authentic 1902 costumes, with a 1900 vintage "pay phone", are calling Delta Zetas in Wayne and Oakland counties for their 57th Founders' Day celebration at Wayne State on Oct. 24.

Delta Zetas Celebrate 58th Year

Delta Zeta sorority will relive the days of the Florida girls when they meet Oct. 24 at the Wayne Alumni House to celebrate their 58th anniversary.

The Founders' Day reception will begin at 8 p.m. with the traditional candlelighting ceremony honoring the six founders. Delta Zeta was founded in 1902 at Miami University in Oxford, Ohio, and the six founders will be represented in the ceremony by national and state officers living in this area.

TAKING PART in the candlelighting ceremony will be Mrs. Russell Costello, Orchard Lake, national panhellenic delegate and immediate past national president; Mrs. Winfield C. Himm, Franklin Village, province alumnae director; and Mrs. George Barker Jr., Royal Oak, province collegiate secretary.

Dr. John H. Gaeth of Wayne State university will be speaker for the evening. He is professor of audiology and director of the hearing clinic. For many years Delta Zeta has been interested in the problems of the deaf and will be interested in hearing what Dr. Gaeth can tell them of the latest advances in this field.

MRS. HASCALL will be a hostess for the reception. Group chairmen for this chapter are Mrs. Robert Kerley, 1269 Pierce and Betty Hayes, 18250 Kirkshire, Bird. Also planning to attend the reception are Mrs. Donald Burch, 4056 Chestnut Hill; Mrs. Robert Olinger, 4390 Bronson; Mrs. Dunn Fraser, 31435 Fromm; Mrs. Albert Olson Jr., 57355 Whyaal and Mrs. Harold Vandragt, 390 Bird.

Nancy Cummings Weds Robert Neil Simmons

First Methodist church in Birmingham was the scene Saturday for the marriage of Nancy Lee Cummings to Robert Neil Simmons. Dr. Arnold Runkel performed the 2 o'clock ceremony in the presence of 200 guests.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Lee Cummings of Cedar drive, Birmingham. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Dean Simmons of Coldwater.

FOR HER wedding, Nancy wore a crystal white silk tulle gown with a cascade of pearls and iridescent paillettes fringed the lace which etched a rose pattern over the bodice, designed with a Sabrina neckline and long sleeves which tapered traditionally over her wrists.

A scalloped princess cap of leveled sheer lace clasped her tiered veil of silk illusion and she carried a cascade bouquet of stephanotis, orchards and ivy.

GERALDINE Barber, honor attendant, appeared in a willow green gown designed with a shallow scooped neckline, bracket length sleeves and a full skirt. She carried light bronze pom poms centered with darker bronze pom poms and variegated ivy.

Bridesmaids were Janet Cummings, sister of the bride, John Marsh, Melinda Harrison and Mrs. Robert Harris.

Attendants were attired in crayon green satin gowns identical to the maid of honors.

ROBERT N. Cochrane stood as best man and ushers were Gordon Cochrane, Lowell Maxson, James Rhodes and Thomas Engle. The bride's mother selected a beige organzine tulle dress featuring a scoop neckline and bell-shaped skirt. Mother of the groom chose a taupe nylon lace over tulle dress with matching jacket. Both mothers had brown cymbidium orchids.

MRS. ROBERT N. SIMMONS

THE NEWLYWEDS are honeymooning in the Smoky Mountains. The bride's traveling costume was a plaid wool suit with brown accessories. They will make their home in Caro, Mich.

Courts Are Open

Adams school badminton club started its 1960-61 season. Courts are open Wednesday from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. Anyone interested may contact Jack Cummings, 984 Kenneway, Birmingham.

Working on Benefit Dance

Members of the Boosters club who are working on final plans for their annual benefit dance at Pine Lake country club are (seated—left) George Taylor, Oakland county prosecuting attorney; and Dr. Joseph Chandler. (standing) are Dr. George Raynal, Dr. Raymond Gagliardi and Dr. Norman Gehringer. Proceeds from the December dance will benefit the fathers' waiting room and the physical therapy lobby at St. Joseph's Mercy hospital.

Showcase, Inc. Plans Series Of Lectures

Showcase, Inc. 186 Brownell, invites Birmingham area residents to attend a series of two-hour coffee break talk times each Wednesday from 10 a.m. to noon.

"Facts and Fancies to Open Your Walls" will be the topic of Fred Duke of the Fletcher Studios, Detroit, when he speaks Wednesday. Also scheduled for Oct. 26 is "Adventures in Music in the Midst of Visual Art" with Verell Wharton of the Detroit Museum of Art Concert series.

ON NOV. 2, "Fall Beauty and Spring Flowers from the Same Flower Beds" will be the topic of Wayne Siefert of the Oakland county extension service.

"Cooking Witchery — Japanese Style" will be the topic, given by Meta Kado of Kado's Oriental Imports.

"The 'Sick' Comic and Social Satire" (illustrated) will be presented Nov. 16 by Seymour Riklin of Wayne State university.

ON NOV. 30, "Jungles in Miniature" (terrarium gardens) will be the topic of Mrs. Ray Hogg.

Wayne Siefert will speak again Dec. 1 on "Some Tips on Propagation of House and Garden Flowers by Cuttings and Division."

"Nighttime Lighting in Your Garden" will be the topic Dec. 14 when Lucille Ingram of Detroit Edison speaks.

All programs are free.

Oakland County Red Cross Calls For Volunteers

The second annual call for volunteer workers to help with retarded children has been issued by the Oakland county chapter of the American Red Cross.

Twenty to 25 volunteers are being sought to work in the Farmington and Northville units of the Plymouth State home and training school.

Volunteers are given their choice of hospitals. The Farmington unit is located at 30405 S. River cutoff while the Northville branch is located at 15400 Sheldon road between Five and Six Mile roads.

NO SPECIAL training is needed although persons with previous experience in special education, physiotherapy, nursery school work and recreation programs would be particularly desirable.

Helpers are asked to be on hand one day a week with 10 a.m. to 3:30 or 4 p.m. in the preferred hours.

Appointments for the training classes starting Friday can be made by contacting the Royal Oak office, 315 W. Sixth street.

The Birmingham Eccentric office hours are: 8:30 a.m.-5 p.m. Monday through Friday, 8:30 a.m. to noon Saturdays.

The World's A Stage

By JACK WOODLEY (Special Writer)

WHAT IS A SEASONED HUSBAND? Only because the hand is faster than the eye did this Ohm get by the Mrs. When she sees it, I'm stumped. Oh well, cold cuts are nourishing.

I don't know about other men, but cooking is more preferable to me than skin diving in a sudsy dishpan. You are way ahead of the game if you anticipate the situation in its embryonic stage.

Go up to the little woman with a big smile on your face and say, "Honey, you look tired, I'll cook the hamburgers tonight."

This maneuver serves two purposes. Your desert rose thinks she's given a hard choice by his Mother-in-law. If his dog didn't leave, she would. Being a normal little boy, he bid a sad adieu to his moon.

I am not mentally disposed to challenge the chaotic state of the husband's sense, negative posture of the empty skillet. I believe in live and let live. The dishpan is happy and so is the skillet.

But, we must be realists at the same time. Women are always reform and change. Consequently, the dishes must be washed and the skillet put to work. I don't know about other men, but cooking is more preferable to me than skin diving in a sudsy dishpan. You are way ahead of the game if you anticipate the situation in its embryonic stage.

Last Minute Plans

The Very Rev. Edward F. Mann, S.J. and Mrs. John Reuter of Oakhills drive (seated), and Mrs. George Tillworth of Oakhills drive, make last minute preparations for the homecoming tea which was Sunday at the University of Detroit union building. This is Father Mann's first trip back to Detroit after being stationed in India for the last 23 years. The reception and tea were in his honor.
