

NORTH ADAMS
 Residents Twelfth
 (East of Woodward & Troy)
 Elizabeth Yates
 MI-61822

New, New Residents Share Many Interests

NORTH ADAMS—Chapel Hill estates have many new residents moving into the area in the past few weeks. Moving to Peveril drive from Birmingham are Mr. and Mrs. James F. Martin, Jr. They have two children, Linda, 7, attending Auburn Heights and Donald, 6, a pupil at Stone.

Martin is assistant sales manager with the Merchants bank of Auburn. Bowling and swimming are among the family's interests.

Newcomers to North Adams road are the John Farleys and Mrs. Farley's mother, Mrs. Jessie School of East Detroit. They formerly lived at Lake Hopatcong, N. J. Farley is affiliated with the Chrysler corporation while Mrs. Farley is employed with Chamberlain storm sash company.

The Bruce Greens and children Lisa and Mark are new residents on Ashover road, formerly of the 25th wedding anniversary party of the Greens, is Mrs. Green's mother, Mrs. Myrtle Bissonette of Detroit. They are the owner of a company of the Ford Motor company. The family are sports enthusiasts.

New residents on Ashover road are the Nicholas Pedersen of the Chevrolet corporation while Mrs. Pedersen, Vicki, 14, attending Avondale high and Sherri, 6, attending St. James school. Mrs. Pedersen is an engineer at Vickers. Pedersen enjoys painting in water colors and is also active in the media. They are also active in the Gethsemane Lutheran church in Berkeley.

The Edwin Schaeffers are newcomers to Detroit drive and are former Detroit residents. Their children are Edwin, 22, news editor at the Dearborn press; Marjorie, 16, a student at Avondale high and Denise, 8, a pupil at Auburn Heights school. Schaeffer is a tool and die maker at manufacturing and enjoys golf, bowling and fishing. Mrs. Schaeffer is a hobbyist in oil and china painting.

The C. T. McClures are enjoying their new home on Ledbury drive. They are former St. Clair residents and have two children, Michael, 13, attending Avondale junior high and Kipp, 9, a pupil at St. Martin's school.

McClure is director of service with Chrysler division of General Motors. Mrs. McClure is active among their interests. Mrs. McClure's hobby is millinery.

Also newcomers to Chapel Hill estates are the Richard Hirm family of Fairfield moving from Southfield. Their children are Edna, 6, attending Stone school, and John, 4, attending Stone school. Hirm is director with McManus, John and Adams and Mrs. Adams is a grade teacher at Stone school. Bridge is one of their interests.

New residents on Patch drive are the David Lewis family of Huntington Woods. Their family includes three institutional representatives: Arthur Morrow, game chairman; Robert Williams, games chairman; and Keith Mckenny, program chairman.

The A. D. Robs moved recently from Grand Rapids to their new home on Lanargan drive. Their children are Larry, 14, a student at Seaholm high; Pam, 10, a pupil at Harlan school and David, 11, who has his own business, Creative Sounds of Detroit. The family are music and sports enthusiasts.

Enjoying their new home on Chewick drive are the Gtino-Sovran family formerly of Royal Oak. They have three children, Daniel, 8, Victoria, 7, and Ralph, 5, all attending Harlan school. Sovran is a research engineer with the General Motors Tech. center. The family are sports enthusiasts.

The William Weusers, formerly of Detroit, have recently moved into their new home on Wendover road. They have a son William Jr., 14, attending Seaholm school. Weuser is a mechanical engineer with Ford motor company's Sterling plant. Their interests include bowling, fishing and bridge.

Newcomers to Westview road are the John Shoemakers, formerly of Denver, Colo. The Shoemaker children are John, 11 and Patrie, 8, students at Eastover school. At home are Tim, 3, and Anne, three months.

Shoemaker is associated with sales at the Lincoln-Mercury division of Ford Motor company. Golf and gardening are among their interests.

The Paul Banders are new residents on Ashover drive, Chapel Hill estates. Their move was from Benches, Fla. They have four children, Paul, 6, a pupil at Stone school; Mark, 4, Steven, 2 and Suzanne, two months.

Banders is part owner of a manufacturing plant. Their hobby and interests include photography and hunting.

Newcomers to Dursley drive, Eastover estates are the Harold McElyea, formerly of Detroit. They have two daughters, Harolyn, 11, attending Eastover school and Jonella, 4, McElyea is the owner of Central Lumbering company, Detroit. Their interests include gardening and landscaping.

Subdivision Names Board, New Officers

NORTH ADAMS—The Eastover estates subdivision held a dinner dance at Kingsley Inn Friday evening. Chairman for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Jewell, assisted by house committee members Mr. and Mrs. Jack Plasher, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ohm and Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Oviatt.

The property owners association held their annual meeting and election of officers at the N. Reading road home of William Sheppard, Jr. New officers for the coming year are: president, William Sheppard, Jr.; vice president, George McEllen; treasurer, Anthony Fragnoli and secretary, R. Norman Jowitz.

The board of directors are: Hal Zimmerman, Harvey Waldo, Thomas Roberts, Jr., C. Jack Pistor and Daniel Tate.

Cub Scouts Receive Pins At Pack Meet

BLOOMFIELD VILLAGE—Gathering at Bloomfield Village school Friday evening, for their first pack meeting this fall, were members of Cub Scout pack B-16. The boys saw a film of the highlights of the 1959 Lions' football game.

Receiving their Bob Cat pins in induction ceremonies were Paul Clayton, Gordon Sterling, Marshall Garcia, William Ten Eyck, Richard Wright and Edward Neke. Robert Duff, James Mckenny, Midley Elmer, Steve McHenry, Ivan Ludington, Arthur Bull, David Stephenson and Steven Goodale.

NEW DEN mothers are Mrs. Everett Valin, Mrs. Paul Clayton, Mrs. Lee Bliske, Mrs. Robert Williams, Mrs. Gordon McEllen, Mrs. John Siegemund, Mrs. John Dijkstra and Mrs. Arthur Grund. This year's pack committee includes Franklin Roberts, cubmaster; Robert Morris, assistant cubmaster; Mrs. Franklin Roberts, pack mother; Mrs. Arthur Morrow, assistant pack mother and Mrs. Keith Mckenny, mother and Mrs. Other members of the committee are: Jack Reinhart, treasurer; Budley Elmer, institutional representative; Arthur Morrow, game chairman; Robert Williams, games chairman; and Keith Mckenny, program chairman.

Present Charter, Name Officers At Club Meeting

BLOOMFIELD VILLAGE—Meeting at the home of Mrs. R. L. Kilpatrick of Hupp Cross last week, to organize the Bloomfield Village school, Mrs. Morrow, room mother chairman, and neighborhood guest Mrs. Lee Blake, assistant room mother chairman.

Officers are Mrs. R. L. Kilpatrick, president; Mrs. Ivan Ludington, Jr., secretary and Mrs. Derwin Walker, treasurer.

Honor Room Mothers

BLOOMFIELD VILLAGE—Mrs. Arthur Morrow of Hupp Cross entertained with a get-acquainted tea last week for room mothers, library mothers, PTAs, board members and teachers of Bloomfield Village school. Mrs. Morrow, room mother chairman, and neighborhood guest Mrs. Lee Blake, assistant room mother chairman.

Flower Arranging Discussed at Meet

Kern Lake branch of the Woman's national farm and garden association held their October meeting at the home of Mrs. T. Colley of Parkman drive, Bloomfield Hills. Mrs. A. Galley lectured and instructed in the art of flower arranging.

Members present were Meadames J. Ferrar, G. Hagne, William Wise, D. Gmeiner, T. Colley, T. Biehl, W. Fletcher, James Adams, C. Monfeth and a neighborhood guest Mrs. D. A. McCleary.

Hills Branch Meet

The board of directors of the Bloomfield Hills branch of the Woman's national farm and garden association met Monday at the home of Mrs. Leroy Vandever. Hostesses for the luncheon were Meadames E. J. Anderson, Strickland and L. Raymond Twyman.

Have You Met . . .

Foxcroft newcomers, Mr. and Mrs. James Davis of Sandy Lane? They formerly lived in Cornwall-on-Hudson, N. Y. Davis is with the DuPont corporation. They have two children, Linda, 13 and Jim, 10. Both Mr. and Mrs. Davis enjoy golf and bridge.

BLOOMFIELD NORTH
 Residents Twelfth
 North of Maple
 Carol Doring
 MA 6-6348

Famous Visitor Enjoys Dual Gridiron Treat

BLOOMFIELD NORTH-BLOOMFIELD VILLAGE—Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Farrell of Tuckahoe drive will be entertaining a celebrity this weekend.

Coming to spend the weekend with the Farrells are Mr. and Mrs. John D. Voelker. He is the author of the best-seller "Anatomy of a Murder," and the recently published "Trout Madness."

Voelker must be as mad about football as he is about trout, for he will be guest at a dinner party Saturday evening given by Mr. and Mrs. William Burgum of Birmingham.

More football on Sunday afternoon, when the Farrells take their guests to the Lions' game. Following the game the Farrells will entertain a large group of friends at cocktails.

FOX-CROFT—Foxcroft improvement association will hold an annual meeting and election of officers Oct. 25 at 8 p.m. at Onant school on Quarton road.

The nominating committee will present the following names to be voted upon: William Rodger, president; Bob Smith, vice-president; Warren Carlson, treasurer; Mrs. William Fink, secretary and G. W. W. Barton, director.

A California visitor spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Stanford of Woodland pass. Miss Margaret Stewart, attended Iowa State university with Mrs. Stanford, arrived Friday for a weekend stopover while en route to Cleveland.

The Stanfords took their guest to the preview of the Auto show Friday night. Saturday evening they gave a dinner party honoring Miss Stewart.

A visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Quayle is Mrs. Quayle's mother, Mrs. Edna Cook. She came from Parma Heights, Ohio to spend a few weeks with the Quays in their new home on Lantern lane.

WING LAKE—Two newcomers in the Wing Lake area were introduced to their neighbors at a coffee last Friday morning at the home of Mrs. Charles Robinson of St. Ninigdale. Mrs. Rudolph Adreessen, Jr. of Maple road was hostess with Mrs. Robinson. Neighbors were invited to meet Mrs. George Heck and Mrs. John Owens.

Attending the Detroit symphony orchestra invitation concert at Ford auditorium last week were Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Dameron of

Football Season Visit Planned With Purpose

BLOOMFIELD NORTH—GILBERT LAKE—Arriving at the Thomas Brogan home on Carriage road last Friday to spend five days were Mrs. Brogan's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Fondre of Knoxville, Tenn. and Hank Walter, 7, Mrs. Brogan's nephew. The Fondres planned their visit for the football season with good reason. Everyone in the family is just wild about football.

Mr. Fondre played football with the University of Tennessee; his son, Hank Fondre, is backfield coach for the University of Michigan and his grandson, Bobby Brogan, plays on the varsity team in the Little League.

The Brogans and their guests were in Ann Arbor Saturday for the football game and they also watched Bobby play with the Browns.

Weekending in Williamstown, Mass. recently were Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Haefner of Cedar Bend drive. They visited their son Bob, a student at Williams college.

Traveling to Missouri for their daughter's wedding, on Oct. 8 were Mr. and Mrs. John Garwood and their son Gary of Westwood court. Daughter Ann was married to Paul Stein in Webster Groves, Mo. Following the wedding trip, they will make their home in New York.

WESTWOOD MANOR—Motoring to Leelanau peninsula, last Friday morning, were Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. Milburn of Westwood court and Mr. and Mrs. James Grissom of Carey lane. They enjoyed a long weekend on Lake Michigan, returning home Monday night.

Visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Robinson of Sunningdale, over the past weekend, was Mrs. Robinson's aunt, Mrs. Myrtle Coblehigh.

Residents Participate In Archery Festival

NORTH ADAMS—The J. H. Stresen-Reuters of Lenox road are home again after a week at their cottage on Little Glen lake. During their stay they entered into the gala celebration of the annual Archery festival, a smorgasbord dinner, a parade and the crowning of the festival queen.

The Sherman McDonalds of Hickory Heights drive have returned home after a scenic trip through northern Michigan and the upper peninsula. At the Canada Sun, they boarded the Algoma central excursion train for a one-day trip to Agawa Canyon in Sweden.

They also toured the Keweenaw and motored as far as Copper Harbor; they also visited the Upper and Lower Tahquamenon Falls.

Presently visiting the McDonalds is Mrs. Henry Straight of Grand Rapids, mother of Mrs. McDonald.

Mr. and Mrs. David Lewis of Patch drive and the Edward Burns of Wing Lake were joined by nine other area couples on a trek north last weekend.

Their rustic cabins overlooked the picturesque Au Sable river. They down which they canoed on Saturday. This was their first canoe trip for the Lewises.

Arriving from Braintree, Mass. this week for a ten-day visit with Mr. and Mrs. William Sheppard, Jr. of N. Reading road, are Mr. and Mrs. William Sheppard, Sr.

A dinner party is planned for Saturday evening. Invited for the evening are the Harry Emersons and the Douglas Pammins of N. Reading road and the Donald Hyles of S. Reading road.

Weekend houseguests of the Edward Fischers on Mansfield road were their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth J. Gilbo and daughter, Denise, of Grand Rapids.

Visiting the Paul Baners of Ashover road this week is Miss Virginia Benson of Del Ray beach, Fla.

Houseguests for last weekend of the C. Alton Carlsons of Romney road were Dr. and Mrs. Theodore Holmlund and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Johnson of Jamestown, N. Y.

The Norman Collburns find their home on Southview road rather quick with their children, son, Leonard, and daughter, Linda, who was married in Northville to Henry Stevens of Northville and the newlyweds are now living in Belleville. Linda was graduated from Ford hospital in September and is now a graduate nurse. John, is a freshman at Western Michigan university and is majoring in mathematics.

The Colburns motored to Brien, Ohio last weekend to attend the 25th wedding anniversary party of Mrs. Colburn's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Yablonski.

Mrs. W. T. Spencer entertained at a recent morning coffee in her Grand Rapids, mother of Mrs. Gtino Sovran of Cheswick drive and Mrs. A. D. Robs of Lanargan drive.

Mrs. Norman Barnes entertained neighborhood residents at a dessert-bridge in her Lenox road home on Thursday evening. The group of eight met semi-monthly in area homes.

Mrs. W. L. Bones of North Adams road entertained at a luncheon last Monday. The guests were all members of St. Agnes guild of St. James Episcopal church.

After the luncheon, members formulated their final plans for a pot luck supper to be held in the undercroft of St. James church on Armistice day.

St. Martin's guild members met at the St. James Episcopal church met at the Burnley drive home of Mrs. Leonard Fisher to introduce a panel discussion. Co-hosting were Mrs. James Brown and Mrs. C. W. McConnell.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Carter of Fairfield are announcing the birth of a daughter, Mary Virginia on Oct. 6. They have two other children, Anne, 5, and John, 4.

"Operation Coffee Cup" was held at the Lanargan drive home of Mrs. George Flatter on Tuesday morning to meet the candidates. Co-hosting the coffee was Mrs. Donald Frankman of Upton drive.

Leonard lake subdivision residents met with Henry Hogan, Jr., Republican candidate for the state legislature and Daniel Murphy, incumbent for Oakland county clerk.

106.7mc
WDTM III

"At last . . ." FM RADIO HAS COME OF AGE IN DETROIT!

AN EXCITING NEW CONCEPT OF PROGRAMMING, FOR THE FIRST TIME BRINGS ADULT RADIO TO THE DETROIT AUDIENCE!

Station WDTMfm is now on the air . . . bringing the Detroit area audience a concept of radio that will entertain and inform—with programming featuring

- Enduring music
- Provocative commentary
- Significant information
- Spirited entertainment

A refreshingly different approach to fm programming brings you

- Philadelphian Orchestra Concerts
- Dr. Waterman's "Conversations in Jazz"
- The National Purpose
- World Editorial Review . . .

and other distinctive new programming to provide an entertaining short segments, information provocative enough to be repeated in subsequent conversations!

WDTM-FM will publish each month a "Calendar for inquiring minds" . . . a monthly listing of all scheduled WDTM broadcasts as well as a listing of all cultural and other activities in growing Detroit. For a complimentary copy, please send the coupon below.

Station WDTM-FM
 2022 Cadillac Tower
 Detroit 16, Michigan

Gentlemen: Please send the October issue of "Calendar for inquiring minds" to

NAME _____
 ADDRESS _____
 CITY _____ ZONE _____ STATE _____

Mankattan
 Mansmooth®
 100% cotton — needs no ironing
 the greatest wash-n-wear shirt value at $5.00
 Mansmooth — all and only Mansmooth — gives you all this! True wash-n-wear, launders quick and easy by hand or washing machine. Dries smooth, stays neat and wrinkle-free all day, thanks to exclusive Reserve Neatness. All the comfort and good looks of cotton. A whole fashionable range of fabrics, colors and collar styles to choose from. And the famed know-how of Mankattan, leader in the wash-n-wear field. Rely on the experience of millions of satisfied wearers — get Mansmooth today!
 see it now at

F. J. Mulholland Co.

BIRMINGHAM

Are you smoking more now but enjoying it less?

HUMAN FLY That's Orin Murray, Field Survey Engineer of fabulous Glen Canyon Dam in Arizona. Murray says, "Sure I've tried other brands. But Camel is the only one that gives me real smoking satisfaction every time I light up."

HAVE A REAL CIGARETTE — HAVE A CAMEL

Ask
Orin Murray
 TAKES IT EASY WITH A CAMEL
 Camel is the best-tasting cigarette of all — because the Camel blend of costly tobaccos has never been equalled. Try Camels and see.

The best tobacco makes the best smoke!