Trailing Jackets Rally To Tie Harper Woods

If Detroit Country Day can hold on to the spirit and determination which merited them a come-from-behind 19-17 victory against the Harper Woods Pioneers Friday, the Yellowjackets may surprise coach Dick Anderson by placing better than fifth.

After boosting their Central Suburban conference record to 1-1, for a firm grip on fourth place, the Yellowjackets should be fired up for second place Huron this week.

Trailing 19-7 in the third quarter, the DCD squad seemed to find new life both offensively and defensively in the tail end of Friday's game.

ON THE LAST play of the quarter McBride picked up his blockers and scampered 43 yards on an end sweep to cut the lead, 19-13. The run for point was missed, but a new ball game was in progress.

Controlling the ball during most of the last quarter, DCD fought back in the opening minutes of the period with a 73-yard drive. A 23-yard pass play from quarterback Mike Kramer to fullback Al McBride and McBride's slant off tackle from the 11 finalized the march, 19-19.

KEY BLOCKS BY Bill Bertling and Steve Solomon gave the big enough for McBride's 11-yard sprint into the end zone untouched. The all important extra point failed, but the Yellowjackets' spirit and drive held the Pioneers in check for the remainder of the contest.

Although Harper Woods edged its way to first down, the gains in the first half, "our defense finally began to solidify in the fourth quarter."

MIKE KRAMER PLAYED his best game of the season, passing for 102 yards and running for 62. He called a good game and mixed his plays well. Along with Kramer, Jerry Jaffa and Don Sucher averaged better than seven yards per carry.

The game ended up deadlocked not only in score but in statistics as well. In the yardage gained department DCD barely squeaked by Harper Woods, picking up 241 yards to the Pioneers' 230.

The Yellowjackets scored their first TD in the second quarter on a freak play. Kramer carried on an end sweep from the middle stripe to the Pioneers' 10 and tumbled the ball into the arms of tackle Bill Bertling who burst over for the score.

"THE EXCHANGE of the ball was so smooth I looked like a planned play," said Anderson. Fullback Ron LaFleur was the top man for the Pioneers, scoring all three of their touchdowns on a 50-yard, and two 45-yard runs in the first, second and third quarters.

McBride and Harper Woods' VanDeusen ran for the game's two extra points. The action against Huron begins at 4 p.m. Friday at Detroit Country Day.

school would be foolish to sign a major league contract," said Radatz. "He would probably get lost in the farm club organization unless he was a phenom."

Radatz, "you can't really move ahead until you've had four or five years experience. Those four or five years would be much better spent in college and playing baseball when time permits."

RADATZ COMES from a baseball family. His father played catcher, and his two cousins, George and Walter Radatz, were in the New York Yankees organization before World War II.

They were left-handed. Radatz said he believes the most important characteristic for an athlete "is to know how to conduct yourself on and off the playing field... being conscientious and acquiring mental knowledge."

It's worth the patience and effort to go to college, said MacLean. "I'm primarily a fast ball pitcher, but I mix my pitches with the batters as well as I can. I don't think the curve is just a curve that doesn't curve very much."

"A slider if used effectively is the best pitch in baseball. It's as fast as a fast ball, but it breaks fast at the last moment either into or away from the batter," he said.

WARREN SPAIN of the Milwaukee Braves is considered by Radatz to be the best pitcher in both leagues. Spain has "poise, a good assortment of pitches and a consistent 20 game winning record while having the toughest hitters, those in the National League, to hurl against."

Speaking of that proverbial subject, the Detroit Tigers, Radatz said he believes the young players in the Tiger farm clubs will help the major league club.

But, he said, the Tiger front office should be revamped, because it handles ballplayers as if it were a business and not as athletes, with all their merits and frailties.

HE BELIEVES this was the primary reason for Joe Gordon's recent departure from the Tiger staff.

Asked what type of batters he liked to pitch to, he said, "One I like to throw the ball over the outside corner of the plate. Batters who consistently hit that type of pitch and spray hitters who hit to all fields, are tough to pitch to."

RADATZ SAID control is 70 per cent of pitching with the batters, he said, acknowledge weaknesses, even Ted Williams, and a pitcher who has good control like the "old man of the diamond," Early Wynn, will continue to be effective as long as he maintains his ability to throw to those weaknesses.

Why does a pitcher throw a bean ball or a brush back pitch to himself, said Radatz. "A pitcher does it because he wants to show the batter who's in control."

It loosens the batter up and lets him know you're determined to get him out," he said.

FOR HIS THREE years on the varsity at Michigan State, Radatz has won 17-1 win-loss record. In his senior year, he won 10 and lost one for the fifth place Spartans.

Besides playing baseball he likes to hunt and fish in the off season because he "feels at home outdoors."

Although the Williams College football team, Williamstown, Mass., has been criticized for injuries this year, a Birmingham lad, Dan Crowley, has "come to the rescue". He is plugging the hole in the tackle position of the line.

Crowley is a 6-foot, 200 pound junior. In his three years at Williams he has been named first team All-American and has been named to the team to go to end, and finally tackle.

Against Colby last year, he intercepted a pass while playing end 90 yards for a touchdown.

HE WAS PRESIDENT of the Student Cabinet and active in football, basketball and baseball while at Williams. He has also played baseball during the past two years.

Crowley is the son of Rev. and Mrs. Archie H. Crowley, 1986 Northlawn, Birmingham.

Rusty Deer Hunters Get Practice Trials

A running deer shoot sponsored by the Oakland County Sportsmen's Club will be held from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., Sundays at the range, off Waterford road, one mile west of U.S. 10.

The function of the shoot is to give deer hunters some shooting practice in sighting their rifles before venturing in to the North woods, said Cash Bond, director of the shoot.

The practice sessions are open to the public. Only rifles greater than a 22 caliber may be used.
