account or drawing checks against uncollected balances is a very serious matter at any bank and will, among other things, subject the account to charges.

Standard checks, imprinted with the depositor's name or name and address, are furnished free of charge.

PUBLIC BANK . . .

Pays 3% Interest On All Savings Accounts

This rate, together with the method we use in computing interest, results in Public Bank paying the maximum interest. No other bank insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation pays more interest. Interest on all savings deposits received during the first ten (10) calendar days of any month will be calculated from the first day of that month,
