

Students Welcome New Principal to School

By NANCY PRICE

Derby has a new principal, Robert Ford. He came to Derby after spending three years at Barnum junior high. When interviewed, he indicated that his first impressions of Derby were good and that he thought Derby had a group of well-mannered and well-behaved students.

The students at Derby hope that he enjoys being here with us as much as we enjoy having him.

MISS SWITZER, Mrs. McAvoy, and the Art club went to the English art show today. Thirty students packed their lunch and left school at 9:45 a.m. to enjoy the exhibit.

MRS. PIERCE and Miss Williams, two of our teachers, are taking their language classes to see Ben-Hur on Oct. 29. Everyone is anticipating a wonderful time.

THIS WEEK is United foundation drive. Homerooms are all planning different activities to raise money for the drive. Some of the activities planned are raffles and bake sales.

FRIDAY, OCT. 17, Derby's eighth and ninth grade football teams played two exciting football games against Groves. The eighth grade although they played a good game, lost 14-12. The ninth grade team came out on top with a score of 17-7.

THE EIGHTH AND NINTH grade football teams are tonight under the lights at Seaboard. The eighth grade games at 7 and the ninth grade game at 8:15 p.m.

OCTOBER 19, Derby sold the first issue of "Derby Dataline" our school paper. Our staff, with advisors Miss Carter and Mrs. Webb and our Editor-in-chief, Chuck Bethel, have worked hard to make the first issue a successful one.

THE WEEK OF the 17th was Derby book fair. There were all types of books on sale including some for adults, for the junior and senior level and for little brothers and sisters as well. Date of delivery is Dec. 1.

The proceeds went to the Derby Library Mrs. Graizer, our librarian, thanks all of you who participated in our annual book fair.

KINGSWOOD SCHOOL

Puckish Tales Told By 3 Hockey Campers

By BETSY WRIGHT

In an assembly on Friday, Oct. 14, 11 Kingswood girls who attended hockey camp in Camden, Me. this summer, entertained the school with the tale of their experiences.

Instead of the traditional skit depicting life at hockey camp, three quite amusing speeches were given by Judy Bartolomey, Fern Leander, and Nancy Linn. They told of the drive to and from camp, the plane ride and "a typical day at hockey camp."

Then, to the surprise of everyone, Chris Myers presented Mrs. Margaret Houston, hockey coach, with a sterling silver whistle engraved with her initials.

The other seven girls who took part in this assembly were juniors Lynn Carey, Janie Leander, Sally Lynch and Cilla Snyder and seniors Nancy Muhlner, Carrie Reed and Nancy Reynolds.

As a result of Mrs. Houston's excellent coaching, the hockey team is off to a good start. In their game with Groves Pointe convent on Friday, Oct. 14, the varsity squad triumphed 2-1, and the reserve team finished in a 1-1 tie.

COMPLETELY at home now, in their new surroundings, are eight new additions to Kingswood's faculty. They are Mrs. Phoebe Chao, English; Mary Firth, Latin, ancient history and English; Velma Pinter, math and science; Kezia Vanmeter, English; Brigitta Walther, French; Mrs. Patricia Welling, modern dance; Mrs. Caroline Williams, resident counselor and Mr. Richard Urban, Latin.

THE EXCITEMENT of the Autumn festival is over, and Kingswood is now settling into its fall routine. Join in it, however, look their FSATS Saturday morning. The results of these preliminary aptitude tests will give the girls
