Troy News Briefs

Civil Defense Head Instructed to Move Full-Size Shelter

Clarence Long, Troy civil defense director, has been directed by city commissioners to move his full-size model fallout shelter.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Nordstrom, 100 West 17 Mile road stated that there is enough other vacant property at the rear of the city hall for the structure's location. They objected to it being "right outside the window" of their home.

Foundation work on the shelter had begun when the Nordstroms complained.

Troy Boy Wounded By Shotgun Blast

TROY—A 14-year-old Troy boy wounded himself Oct. 19 when a shotgun accidentally discharged as he examined it.

Glenn Buchanan, 395 East Maple, was taken to Beaumont hospital. The accident occurred at the home of the youngster's friend, Donald Buchanan, 14, of 1780 Westwood, Troy.
