

Author Asked To Speak At Meeting

Fine Lake country club will be the setting Wednesday for the Village Woman's club's luncheon meeting. Guest speaker will be Mrs. Elizabeth Dunn.

She is the author of the "Candy and Bill" short stories which ran in the Ladies Home Journal for 17 years. Her stories, essays and articles have appeared in the Saturday Evening Post, Glamour, Good Housekeeping, McCall's and other leading magazines.

EARLY IN HER career, she was on the staff of the New Yorker. Then she plunged into the fashion world as stylist for R. H. Macy company and later worked as the personal assistant to Mrs. Edna Woolman Chase, famous editor of Vogue.

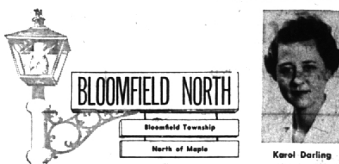

Committee members include Madeline Charles Henning, Walter Smith, K. F. Hardy, Eli Alexander, Carl Barton, W. L. Kemp, Arthur Raish, M. M. Hanson, Harry Winston Jr., John Blaindell, Robert Wratt, Henry Beam and Seth Slavson.

Have You Met . . .

The residents of 931 Rock Spring road? Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Zar moved from Wauwatosa, Wis., on Sept. 28. He is district sales manager of Babcock & Wilcox Co. Hobby is trap shooting.

2-D THE BIRMINGHAM (MICH.) ECCENTRIC Oct. 27, 1960

Local Couple Enjoy New England Autumn

BLOOMFIELD VILLAGE—Enjoying a fall tour of New England recently were Mr. and Mrs. Lester V. Griem of North Williamsburg. They stopped to see the Thousand Islands and enjoyed a visit with their daughter Lynn at Skidmore college.

Planning a dinner party for 20 on Nov. 7, is Mrs. Willard Hatt of Overhill drive. She will entertain members of the Detroit chapter of Delta Gamma. Co-hostesses will be Mrs. Vern Draheim and Mrs. A. B. Frost.

Mrs. Hatt also has pictures of her recent trip through Japan, Bali and Bangkok.

Mr. and Mrs. Phil Turner of S. Glenary road returned last week from the Hawaiian Islands. The Turners enjoyed three weeks in Hawaii, then spent a weekend in San Francisco before returning home.

WING LAKE—New York attracted two local couples last week. Mr. and Mrs. Victor Brain of Franklin road were there for four days to see some plays and enjoy a bit of night life.

Just about the time they left, Mr. and Mrs. George Dixon of Park Circle drove into New York with friends to attend a convention. They also enjoyed seeing "Music Man" before they flew home.

CHELMSLEIGH—Visiting in the east recently, were Mr. and Mrs. George Booth of W. Hardale. They spent a week with their daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Tuller, of Worcester, Mass.

Former local residents, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace N. Barker, came from Charlottesville, Va. to spend last weekend with the Booths.

BLOOMFIELD HEIGHTS—Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Grindley of North Lake drive are at home spending two months at their farm in Vermont. While they were there, they enjoyed visits from their daughters and their families, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Atkinson of Wellesley, Mass. and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Shepard of Deerfield, Mass.

WESTWOOD MANOR—Mrs. Bradley Radke of Westwood lane gave a tea Oct. 17 for teacher Mrs. Eleanor Hope, and mothers of her third grade class at Conant school. Mrs. Radke was assisted by Mrs. Walter Rankin.

Debbie Radke recently celebrated her eighth birthday with a dinner and theater party for six classmates. Along to help with the fun was her sister, Pam.

Moose Went Thataway, So No Moose on Menu

FOXCRIFT—Dr. and Mrs. Douglas M. Campbell of Crabtree road invited some 30 friends to their home Saturday for a moose party—a gala celebration for returning hunter Dr. Campbell who spent a week moose hunting in Canada.

In vitation to a "Come for cocktails and mooseburgers" with a foot note advising the menu was subject to change without notice. Guests arrived Saturday evening to find an "Alibi Party" sign on the Campbell's front door.

Despite the change in the menu, the party was as perfect as the alibi—"you can't shoot what isn't there." When "Deadeye" Campbell arrives in Canada, the moose leave.

Mr. and Mrs. David W. Barton and their daughter Linda of Orchard way enjoyed a colorful trip to Williamsburg recently stopping to sightsee along the way.

Visiting the Wright Hitts of Valley Forge recently were his mother, Mrs. Virginia Hitt of Kansas City, Mo. and his aunt, Mrs. Nathan Neesley of Grand Rapids.

Visiting the H. H. Hausers of East Surrey recently, was Mrs. J. E. Roberts of California. A frequent traveler in the east with her husband, Mrs. Roberts stopped to band.

During her visit, Mrs. Hausser and Mrs. Roberts spent four days shopping and sightseeing in Montreal.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Byrne of East Surrey have moved to a new home, also on East Surrey. They recently purchased the residence, formerly owned by the Ellsworth Kramers.

Chuck White, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn White, celebrated his 11th birthday recently with a bowling party, followed by a birthday dinner at his home on Crabtree road. Guests were Bill Golling, Lynn Stanford, Ricky Stanford, Jeff Perkins, John Hawkes, Bob Reynolds, David Olmstead and Chuck's brother, David.

GILBERT LAKE—The annual Halloween party for Gilbert Lake estates will be held Sunday evening on the lake shore.

Refreshments will be served around a bonfire and the children will parade in costume. Planning the party with Mrs. William Decker, chairman, are Mrs. John Bauer, Mrs. Sheldon Mayer, Mrs. Dale Miller, Jr. and Mrs. Harry Wiest.

Recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Wright of Deep Wood road were Mrs. Wright's parents, Dr. and Mrs. H. E. Pfennig of Ellensburg, Wash. They spent a month with the Wrights and enjoyed a trip to New England during their visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard W. Schmid returning home to Hollywood. Friends at a dinner party Saturday evening. Joining them for the party were Mrs. Schmid's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Taylor of Owasco.

Entertaining a visitor from Tennessee are Mr. and Mrs. Ely, Jr., of Burnham road who enjoyed a week's visit from his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Ely. Soon after they were visited by Ely's sons from Memphis, Mrs. John Dixon and Lillie Smith.

Parents to Visit Wing Lake School

WING LAKE—As has been the custom for some years at Wing Lake school, National education week will be observed by holding open house on Nov. 7, from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m.

All classrooms will be open so that parents can get acquainted with teachers and look over their children's work.

Refreshments will be served and school calendars will be available to all who join the P.T.O.

Girl Scouts Will Staff Play Rooms On Election Day

FOXCRIFT—Girl scouts in troop 106 will set up play rooms in three precincts where mothers may leave their children while they vote.

The play rooms will be open from 3:45 to 6:00 p.m. at Bloomfield Hills junior high, Wing Lake school and at the new fire station on Maple road. There will be five girl scouts and a leader to staff each play room.

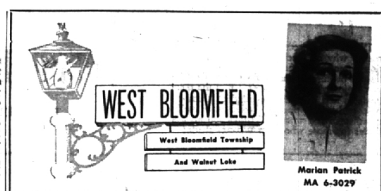

Troop 966 will plant yellow daffodils and tulips at the new Conant school to commemorate the 100th anniversary of the birth of Juliette Low, founder of the Girl Scouts.

Walnut Lake PTA Plans Halloween Party for 'Spooks'

WALNUT LAKE—The Walnut Lake school P.T.A. will sponsor its annual Halloween party Saturday at 7 p.m. at the school.

Prizes for the prettiest, funniest "scariest" and most original costume are planned as well as refreshments, a talent show and movies.

Robert Magnuson is chairman and Albert Hastings, assistant chairman.

Big Gals and Small Enjoy Fall Camp-Outs

WALNUT LAKE—The emphasis on outing in Walnut Lake Girl Scouting is unmistakable, particularly at this time of year when the woods and trails are so inviting.

Mrs. Robert Rauss's Brownies troop 938 received their first instructions in fire building at the Walnut Lake Subdivision one beach this week.

Brownie troop 712 is looking forward to their first camp-out of the year at Remington park with their leaders, Mrs. John Pangborn and Mrs. M. A. Hayden, for a cook-out, nature hike, a songfest and games. The troop is also planning a mother's tea to be given Nov. 8.

GIRLS IN troop 375 held a cook-out recently at the home of their leader, Mrs. Ray Martin of S. Clunbury road. They held a Halloween party Monday at the home of assistant leader, Mrs. C. L. Wallace of 4975 Rands road.

Mrs. Louis Garvey and Mrs. Clayburne McClelland, leaders of troop 973, conducted their troop on a recent camp-out.

Troop 763 spent a recent week-end camping at Hilton, Camp Narrin. With them were their leaders, Mrs. K. M. Middleton, Mrs. Edwin Grahm, Mrs. Harry Mullen and senior life savor, Corrine Sarlund.

WALNUT LAKE—Mrs. John (See CAMP - OUTS, 8-D)

Jacobson's
CHILDREN'S SHOPS

Woodward at Willets
Birmingham

SPECIAL PURCHASE!
Girl's look of leather coat
24.00

Outstanding savings! A luxurious vinyl look of leather coat with a full acrylic orlon pile lining... tabbed knit collar, covered buttons, in the season's new drop shoulder styling. Willow or beige. Girls sizes 7 to 14.

An exceptional value at this price.

STORE HOURS:
Monday thru Saturday
9:30 to 5:30 P.M.

PLAN AHEAD . . . TAKE ADVANTAGE OF THIS PRE-SEASON DOLL SALE AND SAVE!

388

"Baby-in-Car Bed"—14-inch unbreakable vinyl doll in her own 16" car bed and blanket bunting. She drinks, sleeps and wets. Life-like and adorable.

488

"Babee Love"—22-inch all vinyl doll with her own teeter-seat, plastic play tray and feeding bottle. Fully jointed; she drinks, wets, and sleeps. Rooted hair. Checked jumper and bonnet.

Jacobson's
childrens shops

TOYLAND

Woodward at Willets
Birmingham

2-Hours Free Parking
Have Your Ticket Validated
When You Make a Purchase
at Jacobson's

A Fair Amount of Snake

Julie Baldwin, (left), daughter of the William H. Baldwins of Hupp Cross road, tries to hold a 30-pound boa constrictor while Bill Scott, son of the Will Scotts of Hupp Cross road, eyes the mameuver with skepticism. The snake will be on display at the Bloomfield Village Fair, Friday, Oct. 28, when Paul Allen, Sr., Clarkston herpetologist, brings his harmless snakes and alligators for a "Snakes Alive" exhibit.

LOOK MOM!

SALE

WASHABLE, WOOL-NYLON BLEND SLACKS

3-6	7-14
3.99	4.99

Exceptional savings in girls warm man-tailored slacks in a harvest of rich, colorful plaids. Washable wool-nylon blend with concealed side zipper, pleated front, snug boxer waists, side pockets. A wonderful value at the start of season.

Jacobson's
childrens shops

Woodward at Willets
Birmingham