

And Who Will Be Queen, Nobody Knows

SOUTHFIELD—Some 15 to 20 floats will circle the Southfield high school gridiron at tomorrow night's game with this bevy of candidates for the homecoming queen title. Five finalists will be chosen but the identity of the Queen will be a deep, dark secret until Saturday's dance. The teen beauties are (bottom row, left to right) Freda Bishop, Jan Chapman, Kay Price, Diana Gaddis, Joyce Jackson, Marlene Benvenuti, Anne Fryfogle and Carol

Tea, Fashion Show, Followed by Dance At Cobo Hall

VALLEY WOODS—Dual events to be held at Cobo hall tomorrow are both sponsored by Christ Church society. An afternoon tea will be attended by Mesdames Frank Worrell, William Riley and Edward Brackton, J. O'Callaghan, Leo Lincoln, Myer, Vincent Meagher and Richard Verbeest. Beverly Hills residents at the dance later will be the Leo Lincolns, Myers, Peter S. Cordens and the Harold Voglers as well as Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Saxby, Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Mountain, Jr.

Plan Spirited Parade For Local Moppets

BEVERLY HILLS—South Berkshires and West Beverly aren't waiting for Hallowe'en — they're having weekend ghosts.

On Saturday, Berkshire spooks are invited to gather at 1:30 p.m. at Frank Lewandowski's on Northhome for a costume parade. An old-fashioned calliope will lead them through the area and back to the starting point for treats.

THAT SAME NIGHT at 6:40, there's to be a rally at Beverly school for "monsters," pre-school through sixth grade, with parade marshal Richard T. Hatch lining up the revelers.

PTA proxy Dr. Stanley Crego of Warwick and other judges will award first and second prizes in three divisions—pre-school, kindergarten and first through sixth grade. Jack Stuart of Buckingham and his committee have planned movies, games and shooting galleries for children through fifth grade. Sixth graders are invited to dance with their parents till 9 o'clock curfew.

EAST BEVERLY—Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Paulsen of Georgia returned recently from a 10-day western junket with two other couples. It was mostly business for the men, but the ladies went sightseeing in Los Angeles, San Francisco and Las Vegas.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Stocker of Buckingham spent a weekend in Battle Creek recently with former villagers Mr. and Mrs. Claude Whipple. Daughter Marianne visited Susan Rich of the same city.

Mr. Ray Sifferman of Marguerite entertained a limited out-of-towners twice last week. Tuesday she was hostess at a coffee for Mrs. Lloyd Buchanan who is moving from California to Faverly. Later, they entertained Mr. and Mrs. Ray Cross of Long Island, N. Y. for dinner.

VALLEY WOODS—Mrs. J. E. Harold of Wealds was hostess for a baby shower and dessert bridge last week. Honor guest Mrs. Al Simmons of Royal Oak expects to move to West Beverly soon after her third child's birth. Guests were Mrs. Thomas H. Wright of East Bellevue, Mrs. Peter Ripmaster of Royal Oak, Mrs. John Finney of Berkeley, Mrs. Gene Hirs of Detroit and Birminghamites Mrs. John Long and Mrs.

Greenfield PTA Plans Book Sale And Open House

EAST BEVERLY—The third annual open house at Greenfield school is scheduled for next Wednesday at 8 p.m. After a brief business session, parents will go to their children's classrooms to meet teachers and discuss the children's work and progress.

BUDGET APPROVAL will be the major item on the business agenda with special attention to the school library.

A book sale has been scheduled for the week of Nov. 14-19 by library chairman, Mrs. B. R. Harmon of Fairfax. The PTA hopes to meet the national library standard set at 10 books per child. Their present average is four.

You'll be amazed at the results a classified ad will bring. No matter if you are selling, renting, leasing or buying, a call to MI 4-1100 will pay big dividends.
