Busy with Fitting

Busy with fittings on the costume she will wear for the annual Wing Lake Property Owner's association dance slated for Sept. 10 at Edgewood country club is Mrs. F. R. Peters of Thurber road, (middle). Assisting are (from left) Mrs. James J. Diagar of Thurber road and Mrs. Walter G. Stecker of Wing Lake road. Apart from her duties as a homemaker and mother of three children, Mrs. Peters is very active in community affairs. Her hobbies are playing the piano, skiing, boating, swimming and golf.

MSUO to Start Second Year Of Classes

Michigan State University Oakland will start its second year Sept. 15, with an estimated 900 freshmen and sophomores and 41 faculty members. Construction will begin on two major buildings this fall, and university officials hope to start work during the year on an intramural building and the first student residences. The first playing fields are already nearing completion. These additions to MSUO's three present structures will take care of the needs until the enrollment reaches 3,000.

THERE WILL BE expansion.

too, in the liberal arts requirements and in extra-curricular activities of all kinds. Beginning this year, every student must take a year's sequence in music and the visual arts.

Lecture and concert series and art exhibits throughout the year are being planned and student activities will grow into several new areas.

THE FALL QUARTER will open formally with a freshman convocation Sept. 15. There will be an orientation program the 15th and 16th, registration the 17th, with classes starting the 19th. At the end of the week, on Friday the 23rd, the new faculty and the new students will have a chance to get acquainted at an all-university picnic.

The fall quarter will close with four days of final examinations ending Dec. 12. The winter quarter will run from Jan. 3 to March 22, and the spring quarter from March 30 to June 16.

Sherrill Gatley Weds Vaso R. Medigovich

Sherrill Elizabeth Gatley and Vaso Runyan Medigovich were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents, Dr. and Mrs. L. Warren Gatley of Lahser road, Bloomfield Hills, Friday evening. The Rev. Lester Dobyns of Christ Church Cranbrook performed the 7 o'clock ceremony.

The bride appeared in a deep ivory gown fashioned of antique pique de soie featuring a sabrina neckline, cap sleeves and a chapel train. A cup of matching heron lace secured her illusion veil. She carried a bouquet of white roses and stephanotis.

MRS. VASO R. MEDIGOVICH

SALLY LYNNE Coburn of Battle Creek served as honor attendant and bridesmaids were Shelaah Gilard and Jane Wilson, both of Bloomfield Hills. Elizabeth Connolly of Bloomfield Hills was the flower girl.

Attendants were attired in silk organza over tulle designed with a bodice of chantilly lace and carried gold and salmon roses. Their headpieces were ivy and matching roses. The flower girl wore a white organza over mauve and carried a basket of rose petals.

THE GROOM, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Medigovich of Akron, Ohio, asked Donald Mitchell of Farmington to be best man. Ushers were John S. Carton of Battle Creek and Eric Andreolfi of Akron.

A reception at Bloomfield Hills country club followed the evening ceremony.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Gatley wore a mint green chantilly lace dress and the groom's mother selected a beige chiffon gown. Both mothers had orchids. THE NEW Mrs. Medigovich wore a brown silk suit with matching accessories to start her wedding trip to Montreal, Quebec, Maine and Long Island. The couple will live in Ann Arbor.

Travelogue

CLIMB TO YODELLAND in grey suede Lederhosen... in mother and daughter silver buttoned shepherd's sweater jackets in purr knit or shrunken wool. Wear your lodencoat full length or mid-length. Pack a velour hat and brush pin.

GO MAN GO in your knee skimming skirt with a jazz tunic of doosien cotton. Be the first to wear knickers or urchin pants. Wow them with a bartender shirt its neckband brass stud-fastened as is the dandy dickey. Wear your pants in a ladylike way... try a culotte.

CRUISE TO THE BRITISH ISLES in a kilt with a matching tartan trimmed shetland-type cardigan and plaid capezios. Don an authentic shetland with a partner flannel skirt in lovat green or blue. Take Saville Row by storm in a Lord Chesterfield coat in flannel or tweed lined with a Batik print. Go to Buckingham Palace in a guardsman coat in brass buttoned, ermine lined charcoal flannel.

MUSH TO FUN in foreign lands in a Hoopie hat and Ulak boots. Carry a muff, mitten or bag in funny bunny... leopard bunny, chinchilla bunny, fox bunny or bunny-bunny.

FLY TO THE STATE OF CAPEZIO... a madder place you've never been. The people wear nothing but shoes like the SKITTER, the flat with the squared off toe, The mudguard pump, the grainy-leathered stacked heeled screw vent pump, skimmers in matching to V.S. clothes, plaids and prints, and sometimes the pony skin pump.

WALK TO WOOLLYLAND in a wallpaper print handscreened shetland or Irish fisherman knit. You'll be warm to rough & tumble hooded or cowl neck oversized and overlong pullover. Pack a light and fuzzy mohair or camel's hair sweater.
