Guests from Abroad
Visit in North Adams

NORTH ADAMS — The John Kinseys of Hyland drive are presently entertaining houseguests from different parts of the world. The Kinseys visited their guests during their world travels in the summers of '69 and '60.

Arriving from Milan, Italy, to spend a few days with the Kinseys and Mr. and Mrs. Italo Mascheroni. The James Steers of Melbourne, Australia, will also be houseguests before going on to the machine tool show in Chicago after Labor Day. Mr. and Mrs. Dickie Borione of Paris, France, will arrive to spend the Labor Day weekend with the Kinseys. This is Mrs. Borione's first trip to the United States and she and her husband will go on to Chicago to attend the tool show.

For the past 15 years the Kinseys and a group of friends spend the Labor Day weekend at the Murray Hotel on Mackinac Island. The group will gather at Mackinac Island again this year and will include the Leon Hanselmanns of Birmingham and the J. B. Bushmans and son, Jim, of Franklin. The other couples joining the group will be from Detroit, St. Clair, Saginaw and New York City. Accompanying the Kinseys will be their guests, the Dickie Boriones.

The William Plumbs of Butter-nut Hill drive have been spending the last two weeks visiting their daughter and son-in-law, Professor and Mrs. W. B. Mitchell at their farm on Lake Charlevoix.

The Mitchells returned to Battle Creek where the professor teaches at Community College at East Jordan.

Mrs. Joseph Strayner and daughter, Susan, of Wrenwood drive joined Strayner in Hunts, Ala., for the month of August. Strayner is with Chrysler Corp. and is temporarily working in Hunts for the next few months.

The Kermit Peeds and sons, The Clifford Noltes invited immediate neighbors for dinner in their Meadowlane court home a recent evening in honor of the John Haight. Another evening party for the Haight was hosted by the Ira Thompsons of Meadowlane court last week.

Mrs. Roland Smith entertained at a dessert-bridge in her home for Mrs. Haight on Wednesday. The guests were all of Hickory Heights.

Pat Deak, daughter of the Louis Deaks of Pine Hill drive, entertained 16 friends of the National Bank of Detroit, Cranbrook-Mable branch, at a picnic supper on the family patio a recent Wednesday evening.

The Osage Garden Club held its summer board meeting to formulate plans and programs for the coming year at the Hickory Heights drive home of Mrs. Frederick Oliver on Monday afternoon. Conducting the meeting was the club's new president, Mrs. Charles Crane of Lenox road.

Mrs. Thayer Cowman of Lanegan drive entertained at a "farswell coffee" for Mrs. Sidney Beddows of Lanegan drive last Wednesday morning. The guests were all of Leonard Lane subdivision.

The Beddows family is moving to Akron, Ohio where Beddows was transferred with Enjay. They plan to move next week.

The Herbert Gardners of W. Orchard Hill drive and their children, Tom and Mary Ellen, visited Birmingham friends at Torch Lake recently. They enjoyed the wild and beautiful surroundings with the Richard Andersons of Gilbert Lake and then visited the John Kohls and the five little Kohls of Orchard Hill drive at their Torch Lake cottage.

The Gardners then traveled on to Lankin Lakeshore Lodge near Harbor Springs.

The Robert Corvet family of Far Hill drive stayed close to home this summer and enjoyed their new free-form swimming pool that was completed in the late spring.
