

Bloomfield Heights
North of Maple
Carol Darling—MA 6-6345

B'field Heights WNFGA Holds 4th Flower Show

BLOOMFIELD HEIGHTS — The Bloomfield Heights WNFGA held its fourth annual flower show at the home of Mrs. P. B. Eiler of Pinetree trail.

Dispensing with the usual blue ribbon awards this year, Mrs. Lewis Dibble, well-known flower show judge, was invited to give constructive criticism on flower arrangements. Each member entered an arrangement of flowers from her own garden. The flower show was arranged by Mrs. James Martin and Mrs. John L. Doll.

FOX CROFT — A welcome addition to the Peter G. Blom family on West Surrey is Peter, Jr. He was born Aug. 19 and weighed 8 pounds, 6 ounces. The Bloms have three daughters, Carol, 6, Judy, 4 and Christie, 3.

BLOOMFIELD VILLAGE — Heading for the Upper Peninsula recently on their first camping trip were the Eugene Moores of Wooddale court. A tent-trailer and an umbrella tent were home for a week for the Moores and their sons Geoff, 14, Roger, 12 and Rick, 7.

Setting up camp the first night was strictly a comedy of errors but from then on they accomplished the feat in a matter of minutes. The boys enjoyed swimming and fishing in Lake Superior as they traveled around the U. P. camping on Drummond Island, and near Tahquamenon Falls and Grand Marais.

BLOOMFIELD VILLAGE—Lynn

Indian Lake Estates, Fla. The Darlings have been spending the month of August at their summer home on Bear Lake. They spent several days with their son and his family, R. O. Darlings of Foxcroft, returning to Bear Lake this week. They plan to leave for Florida Sept. 1.

WING LAKE — Entertaining house guests this week are the Robert G. Browns of Wing Lake road. Mrs. Brown's sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Robert P. Flagg and their three sons, arrived Saturday from Atlanta, Ga. to stay a week and Mrs. Brown's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Van Kleeck, came from Ann Arbor for the week. Saturday they joined other members of the family for a reunion in Tecumseh.

GILBERT LAKE — Two residents of Burnham road plan to move from Glenore Estates very soon. Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Hollenbeck, Jr. will move to Florida on Sept. 1. Leonard DeCoster has been transferred to New York and they are house hunting in Westport, Conn.

Mrs. DeCoster and Mrs. Hollenbeck were honored by the Glenore WNFGA at a tea Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Eric Hoagberg of Burnham road. Preceding the tea, Mrs. Hoagberg was hostess to the flower arranging class at their lesson with Mrs. Alice Slawson.

Last Friday evening the Hoagbergs entertained 4 members of the Glenore deputized bridge club.

GILBERT LAKE — Vacationing recently at Lost Lake were Mr. and Mrs. William S. Lavis of Timberlake road. They drove to Chicago first to pick up their daughter, Mrs. M. H. Holmeister and her children, Pam and Lynne, who vacationed with them.

The son, Bill met the family at Lost Lake and they celebrated his birthday Saturday evening. Bill managed to celebrate his birthday three nights in a row with a birthday cake each time.

The night before the family party, two friends who were with him at Lost Lake, Ron Greenfield and Ed Parsons, treated him to a birthday dinner at a birthday dinner.

The evening following the family party music friends presented him with a birthday cake. Bill will return to studies at Miami university on Sept. 10.

GILBERT LAKE — Little newcomer at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Raymann of Lahser road is Patrice Michele. She was born Aug. 22 and weighed 8 pounds. The Raymanns' other children are Ricky, 7 and Marianne, 16 months.

BLOOMFIELD VILLAGE — A bit of the Village moved north recently to enjoy the vacation pleasures of Glen Lake. A week together at Glen Lake is an annual event for six local couples who take their children along to enjoy canoe trips and sand dune rides.

In the group are Mr. and Mrs. Richard Strickland, Dr. and Mrs. Fritz Adams, Dr. and Mrs. Sydney Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Ludwigson, Dr. and Mrs. John Laux and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Barnes.

BLOOMFIELD VILLAGE — A recent visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Strickland of Waddington was Mrs. Strickland's twin sister, Mrs. Richard Frost of Texas. She spent a week with them on her first visit here in over four years.

Gen and Mrs. Lehman Miller and their daughter Suzanne were the house guests of the Austin Millers overlast weekend. Hailing from Southern Pines, N. C., they arrived just in time to help their hosts initiate their new swimming pool.

Have You Met . . .

The residents of 165 Overhill road? Mr. and Mrs. John J. McKinnis moved from Cleveland, Ohio, on Aug. 6. He is employed by the Cleveland Graphite Bronze Co. They have three daughters, Karen Lynne, Nancy Jayne and Sue Ann.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Forand of 1832 Winthrop lane? They moved from Springfield, Vt., on July 20. He is employed by Bryant Computer Products, division of Ex-Cell-O. They have two children, Jody and James.

Swaneys Honeymoon In Northern Michigan

The marriage of Dorothy Susan Tripp and Ensign William Chinick Swaney was solemnized Saturday afternoon at four in the First Congregational church of Allegan. The Rev. Andrew Lemke officiated at the double ring ceremony. The altar was banked with bouquets of white chrysanthemums and carnations.

MRS. WILLIAM SWANEY

B'ham Girl Feted At Music Camp

Marjorie Stettbacher, 18, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Stettbacher of Hillcrest drive, Birmingham, was named one of the night outstanding high school girl musicians at the National Music Camp this summer.

The talented young clarinetist was concert mistress of the National high school symphonic band, a position she held during weekly challenges from other clarinetists for her musical talent.

She was also a member of the national high school symphony orchestra which played under the direction of many famous conductors. Marjorie will enter the University of Michigan this fall.

NANCY JANE HUDSON

Parents Announce Daughter's Troth

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur S. Hudson of Pleasant street, Birmingham, announce the engagement of their daughter, Nancy Jane, to L. Stanford Evans Jr., son of Dr. and Mrs. L. Stanford Evans of Redford.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Greenbrier College for Women. Her fiancé is a graduate of Amherst college and Harvard law school, and was affiliated with Alpha Delta Phi Fraternity. He is currently an associate in the law offices of Benjamin H. Long in Detroit.

The wedding is planned for October 15.

JANE LAUER

Troth Revealed At Dinner Party

Jane Marie Lauer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Lauer of Marblehead drive, Bloomfield Hills, is engaged to Paul Richard Springer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Springer of Canfield, Ohio. The engagement was announced August 20 at a cocktail and dinner party at the Lauer's home.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Dondero high school in Royal Oak. She was graduated in June from the University of Michigan and is a member of Kappa Alpha Theta sorority and Phi Beta Kappa.

Her fiancé is an alumnus of Heidelberg college in Ohio and is now attending the University of Michigan for advanced studies.

Food That Tastes As Good As It Looks
Greenfields RESTAURANTS
BIRMINGHAM—725 So. Hunter Blvd.
MONTGOMERY—2901 Woodward Avenue
DOWNTOWN—1130 Brimfield St.

Troth Reveals Winter Plans

Mrs. Charles Gibson Brown of Bethlehem, Pa., has announced the engagement of her daughter, Adelaide Hall, to William Kellogg Carter Jr., son of the senior Carter of New Smyrna Beach, Fla., formerly of Birmingham.

The bride-elect graduated from Moravian Seminary, Bethlehem, Pa., and Centenary Junior college.

ESCORTED by her father, the bride wore a gown of white beads de sole fashioned on classic lines with a fitted bodice, scalloped neckline, applied with beaded imported alençon lace and accented with a self trimmed bow in the center of the bodice.

The bride wore a tiny crown of seed pearls with a cascading French illusion veil. The bridal bouquet was white roses, lilies of the valley and trailing ivy.

PENELOPE BRYAN was maid of honor. Serving as bridesmaids were Ruth McCutcheon, Susan Howell, Heather Hausman and Mrs. Richard T. Wilcox.

They wore ballerina length gowns of white over blue organza with bows of matching fabric. They carried cascade bouquets of white phalaenopsis, anemones and trailing ivy.

The bride's aunt Mrs. Henry T. Winchester wore a champagne silk sheath covered with brown lace. Mrs. Swaney wore an azure blue imported linen sheath with insets of lace appliques.

RUSSEL PERKINS Swaney assisted his brother as best man. Usher were William S. Tripp, Richard G. Swaney, Courtney Leek, and Garving H. Meadows.

A reception was held at the bride's home immediately following the ceremony.

The new Mrs. Swaney wore a purple suit trimmed with pastel shades made of cotton velvet for her going away costume.

AFTER A honeymoon in northern Michigan the couple will leave Oct. 15 for Athens, Ga., where Mr. Swaney will report at the United States Naval supply school.

Have You Met . . .

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene J. Lamar of 938 Duraley? They moved from Arcadia, Calif., on July 15. He is employed by Burroughs Corp. They have two children, Elise and Deborah.

Hackettstown, N. J. Her fiancé attended Birmingham schools until 1949, graduated from Central high school, Homewood Falls, N. Y., and is an alumnus of Michigan college of Mining and Technology, Sault Ste. Marie. A winter wedding is planned.

B'HAM ECCENTRIC
Thursday, Sept. 1, 1960
Page 3-D

Face and Feature Corrections Face Peeling
Carolyn Nilson,
Stockholm graduate
Her corrective Cosmetics are World Famous and endorsed by Hollywood Stars.
772 E. Maple MI 6-1375

Harvey Berin interprets the afternoon-luncheon dress

In wool crepe...a most cosmopolitan sheath, beautifully new in every detail from standaway collar and modified deep armholes to eased skirt narrowness...just one from our designer collection. Black or navy. Sizes 8 to 18. 69.95

Maple at Bates Birmingham

Have You Met . . .

Mr. and Mrs. George D. Booth of 1806 Shipman boulevard? They moved from Charlotte, N. C., on Aug. 1. He is employed by Chrysler Corp. as assistant sales promotion manager. They have two children, Glenn and Ricky. Hobbies are music and creative writing.

The residents of 323 Yarmouth? Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Lindberg moved from Royal Oak on June 24. He is a sales engineer at Carl Underhill & Associates. They have three children, Carol, Johnny and Laurie. They are members of Orchard Lake country club, DAC and St. James Episcopal church. Hobbies are golfing, fishing and hunting.

STORE HOURS
Monday thru Saturday
9:30 to 5:30 P.M.

ivory mink
on lush
white fleece

woven of the world's finest wools by Forstmann...a most

luxurious new coat look,
this flash of stark
white on the fall 1960

fashion scene. Colored with magnificent ivory mink, this is the wonderful wrap that spans hours and seasons

beautifully. 8 to 14 sizes.

189.95

Jacobson's

2-Hour Free Parking
When You Make a Purchase
Have Your Ticket Validated
At Jacobson's

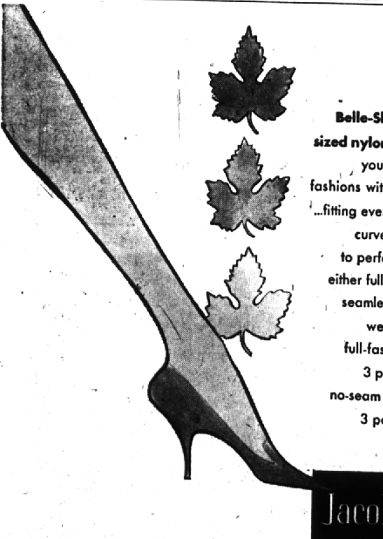

NEW! and delightfully refreshing

CARON EAU DE TOILETTE

IN THESE FAMOUS CARON FRAGRANCES
Fleurs de Rocaille • Belloggia
Nuit de Noel • French CanCan
Le Muguet de Bonheur
2 oz. $6.50
Marcisse Noir • Tabac Blond
2 oz. $5.00

Jacobson's
Birmingham

Belle-Sharmeer leg-sized nylons underscore your now-to-fall fashions with new beauty...fitting every inch, every curve of your legs to perfection, choose either full-fashioned or seamless styles...they wear and wear. full-fashioned, 1.65 3 pairs for 4.75 no-seam nylons, 1.50 3 pairs for 4.35

Jacobson's