

Sally Grisinger Weds At Kirk in the Hills

Kirk in the Hills of Bloomfield Hills was the setting August 12 for the marriage of SallyMarie Grisinger to Paul William Bando. The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Hermanson at 7:30 o'clock in the presence of 250 guests.

The parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. Arnett B. Grisinger of Shadow Lane, Bloomfield Hills and Mr. William Bando of Berkley and the late Mrs. Bando.

GIVEN IN MARRIAGE by her father, Sally wore a gown of ivory Italian silk, princess style featuring a scoop neckline and a bodice of alencon lace re-embroidered with iridescent sequins and seed pearls, cap sleeves and a full length skirt with a harem chapel train.

A small crown of iridescent crystals and seed pearls secured her ivory fingertip veil. She carried a cascade bouquet of white orchids surrounded by ivy, white roses and stephanotis.

MRS. JOHN L. Lewis, sister of the bride, served as matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Nanette Dahlin, the bride's cousin, of Burlington, Iowa; Ruth Youngs of Wichita, Kan., and Virginia Dowling.

The attendants wore white organza sheath gowns featuring an applique blue motif on the back panels. Their headpieces were white organza bows. Matron of honor carried a bouquet of white carnations and stephanotis. Bridesmaids' flowers were light blue cascade bouquets of carnations and stephanotis.

Mr. and Mrs. William Young To Live in East Lansing

Given in marriage by her father, Adele Lucas became the bride of William Arthur Young Saturday afternoon at the First Presbyterian church in Birmingham. Dr. Harris performed the 2 o'clock ceremony in the presence of 150 guests.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh L. Lucas of Glenvarry, Birmingham. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Young of Allegan.

THE BRIDE WORE a white silk mist gown designed with a fitted bodice, bell-shaped skirt and a chapel length train. A Dior bow secured her fingertip veil of silk

MRS. WILLIAM A. YOUNG

RODY SHERILL was asked to be best man and ushering were Carl Bills, Bruce Johnson and Thomas Woods. Flower girl was Jan Lucas. Mother of the bride chose a slate blue chiffon dress with matching accessories and a cymbidium orchid. Mrs. Young selected a moss green lace dress with matching accessories. She also had cymbidium orchids.

A GARDEN reception followed the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents. Following a honeymoon in northern Michigan, the young couple will live in East Lansing.

Birmingham - Bloomfield Hills Society Notes

When a girl turns 89, it's time for a party. The birthday lady in our story is Mrs. Charles D. Pinckney. Her daughter, Mrs. Ray H. Smith, entertained at a tea for her Monday.

Among the guests were Mrs. Fred Neu, Mrs. Otto Dallas, Mrs. S. S. Baker, Mrs. H. Q. Lowe, Mrs. C. E. Erickson, Mrs. Thomas Chester, Mrs. C. V. Crockett, Mrs. Arthur Underwood, Mrs. William Falls and Mrs. C. E. Dalton.

Edward Bennetts In San Francisco

The Edward Bennetts are vacationing in San Francisco. They picked up daughter Julie and her friend, Sue Wollenberg, at Lost Trail camp in Santa Monica. After a visit to Los Angeles, they will return home before Labor Day. And more Birminghamites continue to hurry back into town in order to miss the Labor Day run. Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Crockett spent their extended summer vacation at her father's ranch in Idaho. Son Fritz divided his time between camp and the ranch.

Birmingham Couple Home from N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hutton have returned home from a visit in New York. They saw a "Best Man" and "The Five Finger Exercise." The latter is coming to Detroit and we have been told not to miss it.

They visited former Birmingham residents, Mr. and Mrs. Hank Jackson, in Weston, Conn., and also the Aldes Butlers in New Canaan.

The Jacksons picked up Mr. and Mrs. Ben Brewster of Bloomfield, who are at their summer home on the Cape, and together they cruised to Nantucket. It was really old home week when they spotted Mrs. Nat Doughty conducting an outdoor art exhibit there.

Sailors Gather At Orchard Lake

The Tuesday night sailors at Orchard Lake aren't daunted by threatening skies. We saw the faithful gather last week, and after cooking their picnic suppers over charcoal fires they braved the high winds and dropping temperature on the Lake.

We spotted the Sid Oldbergs, the Bill Lerrhens, the F. S. Strong, the Waldemar Adams, the Berrian Ketchums, the Richard Browns, the Robert Ketchums, Dr. and Mrs. Robin Adair, the Edgar Jollys and the Charles Huntoons. Speaking of the Huntoons, their daughter Carolyn is completing last-minute plans for her Sept. 17 wedding. The rites will take place in Ithaca, N. Y., at the Cornell University chapel. Both Carolyn and her fiancé John Harcourt Marr were graduated from the university last June. John is from Green Island, Jamaica, West Indies. Carolyn and John will live on the family plantation, Abingdon, while they search for a home of their own. Virginia Huntoon will be maid of honor and among guests attending the wedding from this area will be Mrs. Russell Layland, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Finkenauer, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. John Randall and their daughter, Mary, and Mrs. John Diebold.

C. R. Weirs Move To B'ld Hills

We have always hated to hear our Birmingham-Bloomfield area referred to as a "transient" area. Not all of the movers go too far away, however, and we are happy to report two such moves this week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Weir's new home on Cranbrook in Bloomfield Hills has just been completed and they will make the short trip from Chesterfield to Cranbrook today. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Murry have built a home on Rathorn in Bloomfield Hills and it is now ready for their occupancy.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry McMechan are back in town after a visit to Northport with the Richard Himmelmasters. They spent part of their time while there with Mr. and Mrs. Temp Licklider of Cranbrook school.

Reunion Party Set For Cast Members

The Bud Strucks had so much fun at the Orchard Lake Follies two weeks ago that they decided to have a reunion party for some of the cast members.

Bud produced the show and among the Strucks' guests will be the Bethel Kelleys and the John E. Quirks. Mr. Quirk wrote the follies and Mr. Kelley was M.C. Other guests include the Ferd Brooks, the Sy Thingstads, the Richard Darraghs and the Daniel Tates.

The Strucks' oldest daughter, Paula, is due home next week after spending the summer in Europe. She toured with a group of college students sponsored by professor R. Kneller of UCLA. Paula, who will be a senior at the University of Michigan this year, spent two weeks behind the iron curtain and her parents are anxious to hear of her adventures.

Home from Europe

Mr. and Mrs. William Cooper are back home after their lengthy tour of Europe. They drove 8000 miles and Mrs. Cooper admits that at this point she is just about shopped out.

We talked to Mrs. Arthur Palmer today and heard of their vacation in Nantucket. They purchased a summer home there and plan on spending future Cranbrook summer vacation time on the coast.

Prices effective through Sat., Sept. 3. We reserve the right to limit quantities.

Crisp-golden hot from the skillet, or tasty and cold from the refrigerator, these plump, young Wrigley birds are picnic perfect.
