SOCIETY Habreles Entertain 2 Students from India

MEADOWLAKE—Hardev Singh and Shaliwol Singh of Punjab, India, were weekend guests at the L. A. Habrele home on Valley Spring drive.

Both young men are students at the University of Michigan. Hardev, who will graduate with a BA in engineering in January, is planning to bring his wife and two children to Ann Arbor in time for graduation and a several-month visit in the United States.

Shaliwol is working towards his masters degree in mechanical engineering.

The Habreles honored their guests at a dinner party during their stay. Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Chanan Gills of Livonia and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hufnagel of Meadowlake.

Mr. Gills, who came to the United States from Punjab some 30 years ago, acts as an unofficial welcoming committee of one to students from India who are studying at U of M.

Mrs. Harold Rowe will open her home at 6552 Valley Spring drive to members of the Meadowlake WNGA Sept. 12 for their fall membership tea and general meeting.

Jimmy Taube, 12, and his ten-year-old sister Deborah, had a thrill of a lifetime recently when they met a real live western hero, Dale Robertson of TV's Wells Fargo show.

Robertson, with his business associates, Ernest Baum of California and Peter Corey of Lansing, stopped enroute to Flint for a brief visit with the children's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Rowe of Valley Spring drive.

The youngsters, who make their home with their grandparents were well supplied with autographs before their famous visitor left.

Mrs. R. P. Kraus of Castle drive entertained members of the Meadowlake Hobby club Sept. 1 for swimming, luncheon and cards at her summer home on Ore Lake near Brighton.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph LePlant of Meadowlake road have been entertaining her sister and brother-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Al Schei of Walnut City, Calif., for the past two weeks.

Couple Here to Plan Photographic Exhibit

Mr. and Mrs. David LaClaire of Grand Rapids stopped off in Birmingham last week to discuss final details for their Color Portrait Photographic exhibit which is slated Wednesday.

Friends of Maurice C. LaClaire and his son David are looking forward to view their exhibit between 2:30 and 5 p.m. when Mrs. John Poole of 1820 Rathbun road, Bloomfield Hills opens her home for this occasion and will be hostess at a tea.

MRS. POOLE has asked the following to assist her: Mrs. Robert Flint, Mrs. Edward Rothman, Mrs. Paul McKenney, Mrs. Semon Knudsen, Mrs. Roger Kye, Mrs. John Stevenson and Mrs. Robert VanderKloot.

A few of the famous LaClaire subjects have been Vincent Price, Ed Sullivan, Sebastian Kresge and Dr. Joseph Maddy.

THE LACLAIRES are nationally known color portrait photographic artists and they are located in Grand Rapids. Presently numerous of their portraits are traveling around the world with an exhibit under the sponsorship of the United States departments cultural exchange program.

In 1952, the senior LaClaire was honored by the Smithsonian Institute in Washington, D. C.

Bon Voyage Party For Mrs. R. Teel

Knowing that there are only so many money belts and wash n dries you can take to Europe, friends of Mrs. Richard Teel honored her with a unique bon voyage party.

Guests brought their favorite pills as gifts to help Mrs. Teel ward off any European malady she might encounter. A m.o.n.g. the guests at the Bloomfield Open Hunt club luncheon were Mrs. Robert Craig, Mrs. Dorothy Wright, Mrs. P. Whirl, Mrs. David Lee, Mrs. Fred Haeder, Mrs. Phil deBouabien, Mrs. Charles Coward, Mrs. Ben Brewster, Mrs. Dick
