Susan Jane Bollinger Marries George Coatta

Kirk in the Hills church in Bloomfield Hills was the setting Saturday afternoon for the marriage of Susan Jane Bollinger to George David Coatta. Dr. Harold DeWindt performed the 3:30 o'clock ceremony.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. Palmer E. Bollinger of Yarmouth road, Bloomfield Village, and Mr. and Mrs. George L. Coatta of Eastport, Mich.

THE BRIDE wore a Bianchi gown of ivory bouquet taffeta designed with a scoop neckline, three quarter sleeves and a chapel train. The floor length skirt was caught up in an asymmetrical drape at the waist.

Her bouffant elbow length veil of silk illusion was held in place with a clip of roses. She carried a semi-cascade bouquet of phalaenopsis orchids, stephanotis and ivy.

MAID OF HONOR was Sue DeNador and bridesmaids were Nancy Doherty, Barbara Bollinger and Ann McKee. Flower girl was Judy Davis.

They appeared in street length gowns of gold satin peau de soie with bell skirts, fitted bodices, scoop necklines and three quarter length sleeves. They carried semi-cascades of white glamelias.

JACK SUYDAM stood as best man and ushers were Palmer C. Bollinger, Gary Tillson and Robert Iutwiz.

Following the afternoon ceremony, guests were entertained at Orchard Lake country club.

Mrs. Bollinger chose a candlelight beige silk marquisette chantilly lace dress designed with a satin cummerbund. Mrs. Coatta selected a blue lace dress with matching accessories. Both mothers had orchids.
